NOTES: Italicised titles are taken from official sources, mostly onscreen graphics. Where versions aired in languages other than English, official titles are used only for Detours. Road Block hints in these versions are approximately translated into English where possible, with unofficial English titles for Detour given in task details and unofficial titles used elsewhere. The five seasons marked as unavailable above were either airing at the time of writing or have started since this guide was finished, and will be added to future updates. Apologies for any inconvenience caused.

Australia

arau0101rb	Abseil Light Tower	Australia	Who is your tower of strength?: Climb the interior ladders up one of the MCG's lighting towers, grab a clue, then free rappel 75m back down. Towers are first come first served.
arau0101ri1	Nothin' But Net	Indonesia	Upon arrival in Lombok, search the fishing village where the ferry arrived for a hidden clue.
arau0101ri2	Rice to Meet You	Indonesia	Travel to Pura Lingsa and run across a courtyard to the clue while locals pelt you with powdered rice.
arau0101dt	Cash or Carry	Indonesia	Cash: Prepare and sell fifteen bowls of bakso for a minimum price of 5000 rupiah each. Carry: Collect a basket of produce from one market stall and take it to a second by balancing it on your head. No hands. Both first require travelling to Mandalika Market. No hands, but apparently wearing a hat under the beanbag used to balance the baskets was fine.
arau0101ri3	Offshore Holdings	Indonesia	Travel by taxi and boat to Gili Trawangan, snorkel in a marked area to find a submerged briefcase, then bring it back to shore and count the Indonesian currency inside. Each case has a different total. Non-elimination; the spared team will get a 30-minute penalty if they do not win the next leg. The leg winners get an Express Pass for use before the end of Leg 8.
arau0102ri1	Fandemonium	Vietnam	Upon landing in Ho Chi Minh City, travel to its opera house and search the women walking around outside for the one holding a fan with your names on it. In keeping with the tradition of using alternate race flags in Vietnam because the usual one is too similar to the former flag of South Vietnam, throughout this leg the flags are green and gold instead of red and gold.
arau0102ri2	Dipsticks and their Cars	Vietnam	Choose a waiting jeep, then replace its tyres and change its oil. The jeeps are used to travel in for the rest of the leg, with drivers provided.
arau0102dt	Carry Fowl or Carabao	Vietnam	Carry Fowl: Travel to a chicken farm, catch 20 chickens in a pen, then use shoulderbaskets to take them to the local market. Carabao: Travel to a farm and use an ox plow to find one of several race flags buried in a muddy field.
arau0102rb	Arrange Coins in Order	Vietnam	Who's in line for a king's ransom?: Ride in your jeep to Minh Mang Tomb and collect seven coins representing Nguyen emperors from tables around the complex, then return and perform a mystery task: putting them in chronological order as hinted to by the signs on each table. For unknown reasons, the blue graphics used for regular tasks are used here instead of the red graphics used for Road Blocks.
arau0103ri1	Luck of the Chinese	China	Upon landing in Hong Kong, travel to Jumbo floating restaurant and bite through a pile of fortune cookies on a table to find one with a specific message inside. Each team has its own table.
arau0103ff	Head Shave	China	Travel to Tin Hau Temple in Causeway Bay and complete a mystery task: having both your heads shaved.
arau0103dt	Lion Dance or Kung Fu Stance	China	Lion Dance: Learn and perform a fast-paced two-person lion dance routine. Kung Fu Stance: Learn and perform a series of slow-paced kung fu moves, then each punch through a stack of six clay tiles. Both first require travelling to Walled City Park in Kowloon.

arau0103ri2	To Hell and Baccarat	China	Upon arrival in Macau, travel to the Venetian and win ten hands of baccarat against a dealer. Each win awards teams a lettered mahjong tile (because China) which spells the next destination... but they get a regular clue at the end, defeating the purpose. arau0103rb	Zodiac Game	China	Who can crack the animal code?: Use a series of logic puzzle-style hints to place twelve lanterns marked with the Chinese Zodiac animals on a pair of rails in the correct order to enter the adjacent Pit Stop courtyard.
arau0104dt	Smash or Bash	South Africa	Smash: Taking turns, throw knobkieries to break a total of four hanging clay targets. Bash: Build a giraffe feeder to match the example shown. (This Detour has a U-Turn attached.) Both first require driving to Kragga Kamma Game Park. Since it's 300km just to reach the cluebox on a cliff and 300km back, it appears as though it's a six-hour drive just to ensure teams are bunched at the start of the task; it's more likely it's to ensure teams don't arrive at the wildlife park Pit Stop at night. arau0104rb	Bungy	South Africa	Who wants to take the plunge?: Bungy 216m from the Bloukrans Bridge. First requires driving to said bridge.
arau0104ri	Haulin' Goats	South Africa	Drive to Nomathamsanqa and collect a goat from a pen, then deliver it to a sangoma at the other and receive a traditional blessing. Odd for the show to call sangomas "witch doctors".
arau0105rb	Tandem Skydive	South Africa	Who's up for a birds' eye view of Cape Town?: Tandem skydive with a local jumpmaster from 9000 feet. First requires driving to Melkboss Airstrip.
arau0105iri	Children in Need	South Africa	Drive to Kargo Warehouse and attach a trailer to each of your cars, fill them with supplies, and deliver them to Intyatyambo Orphanage.
arau0105dt	Guns or Rosé	South Africa	Guns: Skeet shooting. Drive to Valley Gun Club and shoot a total of nine clay targets, switching shooter every five shots. Rosé: Drive to Nelson's Creek winery and transport an empty barrel across a vineyard, then use buckets and a funnel to fill it with red wine from a nearby vat. arau0105ri	Sands of Time	South Africa	Drive to Atlantis Dunes and ride quadbikes along a course with fifteen covers along the way, lifting one at a time to reveal either a clue or an hourglass. It is not required to lift every cover; find an hourglass and wait for the sand to run out before continuing. Hourglasses are different sizes.
arau0106ri	Apple of My Ire	Netherlands	Upon landing in Amsterdam, travel to the Oud Hollands Gebakkraam food cart and each eat two appelbollen. Teams aren't told that the first four to finish win sleeper seats on an overnight train to Prague while the others spend the trip in regular seats. Teams change trains in Berlin, with Germany listed as a visited country in the pre-season promotions, but there are no tasks there and it is not in the race memory task in the season finale. Either it's creative accounting, or it was a deliberate substitute for political reasons as a task later in the race was held in an Israeli settlement in the West Bank region of Palestine. arau0106cc	Saint Misbehavin'	Czech Republic	Travel to Charles Bridge, where "the holey statue will lead you to your next clue."
arau0106dt	Chivalry or Delivery	Czech Republic	Chivalry: Put on suits of armour and search Old Town Square for a keymaster, take a key from him, then find a damsel in distress "at the Prince" and give it to her. Delivery: Collect a litter with a child inside from St. Agnes Convent and carry her through the streets to Old Town Square. arau0106rb	On Target	Czech Republic	Whose aim is true?: Archery. Hit a small target twice within 40 arrows, earning a $50 bonus for each bullseye; fail and either beg other teams for arrows or take the quitting penalty. First requires travelling to a mock medieval camp on Strelecky Island. arau0107ri1	Slap Shots...	Czech Republic	Drive to Zimni Stadium and put on ice hockey gear, then work together to score one goal against a professional goalkeeper.

arau0107ri2	...and Snapshots	Czech Republic	Drive to St. Nicholas Cathedral, climb the tower to a former Soviet spy post, and photograph a "person of interest" within 30 seconds of reaching the top. One attempt per team; fail and correctly count the tower's stairs instead.
arau0107dt	Stack Up or Stack In	Czech Republic	Stack Up: Stack two pallets of beer cartons, collecting cartons as they slide along a production line. Stack In: Walk to a nearby restaurant and eat a total of eighteen jatrnice sausages made with a slurry of pig organs. Both first require driving to the Pilsener Brewery.
arau0107rb	Church Abseil	Czech Republic	Who wants to scale the heavenly heights?: Follow a priest to a church spire, then free rappel through a hole in the roof back to the floor. I'm guessing this was a backup task – not only does the hint imply something closer to rock climbing, it's also a lamer version of the season's very first task. There is no rest period at this leg's Pit Stop and the episode ends with the first team arriving; to avoid spending as much time as usual finishing this leg, the last four teams are only shown at this task in the "Last week..." recap.
arau0108rb	Wieliczka Salt Mine	Poland	When push comes to shove, who digs adventure?: Push a minecart along a track to a cavern, then dig through the salt inside to find a prism, using it to open a mock crypt. Each cart has multiple prisms but only one will fit in the hole. First requires driving to Wieliczka Salt Mine.
arau0108dt	Herd or Hoe Down	Poland	Herd: Drive to a farm and select a paddock with fifteen sheep, then use portable corral fencing to separate three marked sheep. Hoe Down: Drive to Zakopane and learn and perform a traditional Polish axe dance. The farm is described as being "the Polish countryside". How... specific. Time penalties for decapitating your partner with an axe, clearly.
arau0108iri	Tandem Wood Saw	Poland	Use a two-handed saw to cut four slices from a thick log. Only two players cut at a time; at least one must switch after each slice is cut. Based on the uneven penalties one group got for quitting, my guess is each team was forced to fill four of the eight possible sawing positions rather than a weaker team letting a stronger team work faster.
arau0109rb	Truck Off	Israel	Who is your driving force?: Attach two shipping containers to a truck, drive it through a slalom course without hitting any markers, then reverse park it in a narrow area. First requires travelling to the Port of Haifa.
arau0109ri	Split Decision	Israel	One at a time, answer five opinion-based questions about the race, selecting a team as each answer. The second player must correctly match the five answers given by the first player, but is not given any hints if the combination is incorrect.
arau0109dt	Find Unseen or Make 13	Israel	Find Unseen: Use a metal detector to find a key hidden in a marked area, then use it to unlock a chest. There are dozens of decoys but only one key in each team's area will work. Make 13: Standing behind marked lines, use matkot bats to hit a ball between each other thirteen times in a row without dropping it. Both tasks first require travelling to Jerusalem Beach.
arau0110ri1	Desert Snow	Israel	Take a cable car to the top of the Masada ruins, then walk to King Herod's Winter Palace and search for the clue.
arau0110cc	Dead Ahead	Israel	Find "the site where the Dead Sea Scrolls were discovered".
arau0110rb	Decipher Hebrew Scroll	Palestine	Who's not lost in translation?: Use a translation guide to translate a clue written in Hebrew lettering. Sounds simple, but it's written from right-to-left as with actual Hebrew words and there's an added element not mentioned where the last word – Jerusalem – must be translated from numbers in the "A=1, B=2" code. Filmed in an Israeli settlement illegally built on Palestinian territory.

arau0110ri2	Lost in the Post	Israel	Travel to the Main Post Office in Jerusalem and mail a memory card (upon which video messages to loved ones were recorded at the previous Pit Stop).
arau0110dt	Pilgrim's Trail or Holy Grail	Israel	Pilgrim's Trail: Collect an 80kg cross from one end of the Via Dolorosa and carry it to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, built where Jesus was crucified. Holy Grail: Travel to the Wailing Wall and walk through the tunnels to a dig site, find a pot, then take it to the Ruins of David and along an aqueduct to an archaeologist. Based on the odd planning – teams must walk to a random route marker on their way to the Pit Stop – it seems plausible there was an unshown U-Turn. Non-elimination; the spared team will get a 30-minute penalty if they do not win the next leg. (This is the first and to date only Amazing Race leg to have all teams stay in the same positions from start to finish.) arau0111ri1	Bless is More	Sri Lanka	Upon landing in Colombo, travel to Gangaramaya Temple and receive a traditional Buddhist blessing.
arau0111dt	Count or Carry	Sri Lanka	Count: Find a marked stall and correctly count over 1000 small fish in a crate, with only an empty crate for assistance. Carry: Use a flatbed dolly to deliver fifteen large blocks of ice, unbroken, from a truck to Stall #63. Both first require travel to St. John's Fish Market. arau0111ri2	Unlock the Past	Sri Lanka	Find out what year Sri Lanka gained independence and use the answer as the combination to unlock a chest on a nearby beach, then find out what year its first Prime Minister was born and unlock a second chest containing the clue.
arau0111ri3	Photographic Memory	Sri Lanka	Travel by bus to Ambalangoda and find a mask stall, memorise a photo of a mask, then search a nearby street festival for the person wearing that mask before bringing them back to the stall. Each photo is different; masks are first come first served.
arau0111rb	Sew a Shirt	Sri Lanka	Who can reap what they sew?: Use a sewing machine to sew a shirt from provided pieces of fabric, with only a finished shirt for reference. First requires travelling to the Trendy Connections warehouse in Colombo. arau0112ri1	Flesh Wound	Singapore	Upon landing, travel to Gor Chor Tua Pek Kong Temple and select a pile of durians, then split them open to find the one in the pile with a dyed centre.
arau0112dt	Dare or Stair	Singapore	Dare: One at a time, complete a two-rope traverse between two skyscraper rooftops and back. Stair: Climb the stairs to the roof of a skyscraper and collect a souvenir, then walk back down, go to the adjacent tower, and climb the stairs to deliver the souvenir to its rooftop. Both first require travelling to Marina Bay Sands. arau0112ri2	Future Sight	Singapore	Travel to Hong San See Taoist Temple and have a five minute palm-reading. All three teams get similar “you will be rich” fortunes told to them. arau0112cc	Confucius Says	Singapore	Travel to the Jurong Chinese Gardens and search for the next clue, given only a Confucian quote for assistance. The quote's meaning isn't important; the clue is at a statue OF Confucius. arau0112ri3	Wheel of Fortune	Singapore	Travel to the Singapore Flyer and search its 28 cabins for one of three clues. The other cabins all contain “Try Again” clues, and cabins are marked off a list at the bottom once checked; regardless of a cabin's contents, a full revolution must be completed before getting out.
arau0112ri4	Prison Break	Australia	Drive to Fremantle Prison and collect a ring of keys, then use them to open and lock the cells in a three-level prison building to find a hidden clue.
arau0112rb	Arrange Flags	Australia	Who won't flag under pressure?: Select the flags of the nations visited during the race from a group containing several decoys, then put them in the order visited. In addition to the obvious yet understandable issue of Palestine's omission, they also replaced the Dutch flag with that of Luxembourg (which is identical but has a lighter shade of blue).

arau0201ri1	Off the Grid	Australia	Travel on foot and by water taxi to Barangaroo Wharf, then choose a marked car in a corral and get it out by driving it and a series of other cars back and forth. No turning.
arau0201ri2	Balut	Philippines	Eat a total of eight balut.
arau0201dt	Pig or Jig	Philippines	Pig: With greased arms, catch four piglets in a muddy pen and deliver them to an adjacent pen. Two pigs per partner, taking turns. Jig: Learn and perform a traditional harvest festival dance to the approval of four judges.
arau0201ri3	Bamboozled	Philippines	Use a set of provided items to build a seaworthy raft of any design, then paddle around the shoreline to the Pit Stop. The leg winners get a Salvage Pass and can either take a one-hour head start on the next leg or spare the last team from elimination.
arau0202ri1	Turban Search	India	Upon landing in New Delhi, travel to Agrasen ki Baoli and search the turbans of 50 men walking around for one with the word "correct" printed on its fabric. Pick wrongly and the turban must be retied before continuing.
arau0202dt	Pull or Poo	India	Pull: One at a time, milk a cow to collect 500mL of milk. Poo: Make 50 dung cakes from cow manure and hay, barehanded, sticking them on a wall to dry. Both first require travelling to a dairy farm on the outskirts of New Delhi. Classy titles, there. Why not call them Fill and Fuel?
arau0202ri2	Bollywood!	India	Travel to the Old Fort and find a mock Bollywood film set, then learn and perform a Bollywood dance routine correctly before reciting a Hindi script to the director's satisfaction. There is clearly a task edited out here – there are audio cuts all over the place, and team placements vary wildly from here to the Pit Stop. During the Pit Stop, teams are taken to Jaipur.
arau0203ri1	Hindu or Die	India	Travel to the Red Elephant Temple and receive a traditional Hindu blessing. Preseason promotions imply this was tied to a Detour; based on this version's extensive history of task recycling, it was likely the "walk across hot coals then get blessed/lay on a bed of nails" Detour the Norwegian version used at this same temple, and was edited out when all ten teams chose the same option.
arau0203rb1	Indian Driving Test	India	Who's a fast learner?: Sit through a brief lesson on local road signs, then drive along a set route with an instructor to the next destination. First requires travelling to Bharat Driving and Maintenance Training School.
arau0203ri2	Pots	India	Load 75 clay pots onto an oxcart, then lead the ox across a market to deliver them. If fifteen or more are broken, an immediate fifteen-minute penalty will be given at the delivery point.
arau0203rb2	Steps	India	Who is the stair master?: Walk from the top of a maze-like stairwell to a holy man on a landing, travelling down exactly 41 steps and up exactly 10 steps. First requires travelling to the Amber Fort. Unlike other legs where there are two Road Blocks, here a team can have the same partner perform both. (With the division rules, it's not that advantageous.)
arau0204dt	Dune Bash or Camel Dash	United Arab Emirates	Dune Bash: Drive a dune buggy around a ten-kilometre course. Camel Dash: Ride a camel around a marked course, collecting flags from four poles along the way. (This Detour has a Must Vote U-Turn attached.) Both first require driving to Al Faqa Desert.

arau0204ri1	Do the Wave	United Arab Emirates	Drive to Wild Wadi and slide on a wave machine, attempting to reach a row of clues hanging at the front of the machine without falling from your board. Fail and return to the back of the line. There is a Road Block edited out directly after this task. arau0204ri2	Pony Up	United Arab Emirates	Drive to Meydan Racecourse and pick a winner in one of the day's horse races. Races are held every 45 minutes; fail to pick a winner by the last race and one partner must piggyback the other 200m along the track instead. For the record, gambling is illegal in the United Arab Emirates. arau0205dt	Count 'Em Up or Price 'Em Up	United Arab Emirates	Count 'Em Up: Find a marked stall at Al-Arsa Souq and count a sack of dried limes, using only an empty crate for assistance. Sack totals vary. Price 'Em Up: Find a marked store at the Gold Souq and arrange seven jewellery items in order from least to most expensive. (This Detour has a Blind U-Turn attached.) There are notable similarities between the jewellery task and the showcase round on the Australian version of The Price is Right... which conveniently returned on Channel 7 shortly before this season began airing. arau0205rb	Memorise Symbols	Turkey	Whose memory won't go to water?: Memorise the arrangement of eight Arabic symbols inside Hagia Sophia, then walk to the Basilica Cisterns and arrange eight rotating column sections to match the sequence correctly. No notes; only one return trip allowed. Non-elimination; the spared team will get a 30-minute penalty if they do not win the next leg. arau0206ri	Turkish Bath	Turkey	Walk to Hurrem Hamami, change into your swimsuits, and scrub each other with a bar of soap to reveal a mystery word embedded into the bar. arau0206dt	Shine or Design	Turkey	Shine: Find a shoeshine stall and provide shoeshines to ten paying customers for at least four lira each. Design: Find a carpet shop in the Egyptian Bazaar and choose a card showing part of a rug design, then search the marked piles for the full rug. (This Detour has a Yield attached.) Both first require travelling to Yeni Camii, where the Yield is waiting. arau0206iri	Turkish Oil Wrestling	Turkey	Covered in oil, work together to get past a group of four oil wrestlers and grab a lamp from a plinth. arau0206rb	Whirling Dervishes	Turkey	Who wants to give it a whirl?: Spin in place, like the Whirling Dervishes, for five minutes without stopping. First requires travelling to Darüzziyafe Restaurant. arau0207rb	Bake a Souffle	France	Who's a rising star?: Follow a recipe to bake a souffle correctly. The first four teams to arrive will start cooking at 9pm; the others will start one hour later. arau0207ri1	With the Greatest of Cheese	France	Travel to Rungis Market and find a marked cheese stall, collect a 30kg wheel, and take it across Paris to a cheese store. arau0207ri2	Artistic Impression	France	Travel to Passerelle Debilly and find a painter. Something's been edited out at some point here – with later teams starting the Road Block at 10pm and the cheese task taking two hours at most, there's no reason teams would be finding the painter after sunrise. Especially in winter. arau0207ri3	I Love the Nightlife	Cuba	Upon landing in Havana, drive to Tropicana Nightclub and find the lead showgirl. Probably a Detour edited out here – in contrast with the sunrise issues noted above, the drive from the airport to Tropicana is about 20 minutes on a fairly straight route, so surely anyone should have arrived before dusk when they arrived over two hours before sunset. (Also, all seven teams read the “Fly to Havana” bit of the clue and nobody mentions Tropicana at all.) There is no rest period at this leg's Pit Stop and the episode ends with several teams still to arrive.

arau0208rb	Navigation	Cuba	Who's feeling a little nautical?: Use a compass, nautical chart, and given coordinates to navigate a yacht to a second boat anchored at sea. One-hour time limit; catch a fish on the way and get the clue immediately. To preserve the order from the previous leg despite an overnight wait, teams start the task in four groups, signing up for a time as they reach the marina. Following the task, teams' comically unreliable cars are replaced with more modern vehicles for the rest of the leg. arau0208dt	Che Puzzle or Daiquiri Guzzle	Cuba	Che Puzzle: Drive to Old Havana and finish a giant 90-piece jigsaw to show Che Guevara's face. Daiquiri Guzzle: Drive to the El Floridita bar and make six daiquiris each, then deliver them on trays, onehanded, to Hemingway's old hotel room at Hotel Ambos Mundos without spilling any. arau0208ri	Feed & Catch a Crocodile	Cuba	Drive to a crocodile farm near (the town of) Australia, fill a wheelbarrow with crocodile feed and throw it into a nearby pen, then work with a handler to catch a crocodile in another pen. During the Pit Stop, teams are taken back to Havana. arau0209ri1	Opening Ceremony	Canada	Upon landing in Vancouver, travel to Stanley Park and find the totem poles, then participate in a traditional Squamish welcome ceremony.
arau0209ff	Pose Nude	Canada	Travel to Nicole Sleeth Studio and complete a mystery task: posing nude for an art class until they have finished sketching you. arau0209ri2	Kayak	Canada	Paddle a kayak to Harbour Green Park, then decode a message displayed in a line of nautical flags. A second unmarked line a short distance away shows the nautical flags for each letter of the alphabet in order. arau0209dt	Toss or Tumble	Canada	Toss: Taking turns, throw a total of ten axes into a log six metres away. 40 throws maximum; fail and you must switch. Tumble: Taking turns, stand on a floating log and roll it for a total of ten revolutions. It does not count if the log fails to complete a revolution. Both first require travelling to Mount Seymour Provincial Park. arau0209rb	Sky Ride	Canada	Who can reach for the sky?: Climb up a ladder onto the roof of a ski gondola, then grab three hanging flags as the car travels up the mountain. Miss any and ride back down before starting again. First requires travelling to Grouse Mountain. Does the scenery look familiar? The same cable car was used for a stunt in the episode of The X-Files where Agent Scully is abducted. (Spoiler!) arau0210ri1	A Load of Bull	Canada	Taking turns, ride a mechanical bull for as long as possible. Last a total of one minute to get the clue; whichever pair lasts longest gets a mystery prize: a 30-minute headstart at an hours-of-operation bunch the next morning. arau0210rb	Ice Climb	Canada	Who's climbing the walls?: Use ice climbing gear to climb 25m up a frozen waterfall and grab a clue, then abseil back down. arau0210dt	Search or Ski	Canada	Search: Use an avalanche beacon to find a transmitter buried somewhere in a 4000m² snowfield. Ski: Ski down a basic slalom course without missing any gates. You must be standing as you pass through each gate. Both first require travelling to the Lodge of the Ten Peaks. Teams who finish Ski open the next clue in front of a row of numbered signs with smaller photos of the eliminated teams beneath them; it looks as if the slalom was the first part of a two-part task and they then had to recall who finished last on each previous leg. arau0210ri2	Mush Rush	Canada	Drive to the Great Divide Trail and ride a dogsled around a 3km course to find clues hanging from a tree somewhere along the way.
arau0210ri3	Smash and Grab	Canada	Drive to the Fairmont Lake Louise and use only the provided items (a grater, a high heel, a scrubbing brush, a bottle opener, a ball of steel wool, and a teacup and saucer) to extract a clue frozen inside an ice sculpture.

arau0211dt	Waiter or Wheel	China	Waiter: Memorise food orders given by eight restaurant diners in Mandarin, recite them to the chef correctly, then serve each diner the correct meal. Wheel: Taking turns, spin a lazy Susan marked with ten different delicacies and have your partner eat whatever comes up until a total of four items have been eaten. Both first require travelling to Liang An Yi Jia restaurant. I refuse to believe duck anus spring rolls are an actual delicacy rather than something the show made up to mock Chinese food.
arau0211ri1	Foot Massage	China	Travel to Wuzhisheng Foot Reflection Health Center and each get a painful ten-minute reflexology foot massage.
arau0211ri2	Counter Attack	China	Travel to Marco Polo Bridge and correctly count the number of lion statues. Shorter: "Legend has it that the statues are impossible to count. Off you go!" arau0211rb	Up the Wall	China	Who can crack the warrior code?: Climb up a steep section of the Great Wall of China, passing through nine rows of warriors by finding the correct warrior in each row. First come first served; get blocked by three wrong warriors and return to the back of the line. First requires travelling to the Mutianyu section of the Great Wall. (Or to Inner Mongolia, apparently.) During the Pit Stop, teams are taken to Guilin. arau0212ri1	If Wishes Were Fishers...	China	Travel to Lijiang River and ride on a raft to a group of fishermen, then search for the one with the next clue by asking with a provided Mandarin phrase.
arau0212dt	Teach or Learn	China	Teach: Choose a pupil and use flashcards to teach them ten Australian slang terms until they can repeat them all when tested. Learn: Choose a pupil and work with them to learn ten Mandarin words using flashcards, then repeat them all when tested. Both first require travelling to a kindergarten in Yangshuo. arau0212ri2	Made in China	China	Travel to Baisha Market and find a marked stall, then sell ten common local "kitchen gadgets" to bystanders.
arau0212ri3	Know Your Partner	Australia	One at a time, answer five opinion-based questions about the race, selecting a team as each answer. The second player must correctly match the five answers given by the first player, but is not given any hints if the combination is incorrect.
arau0212rb	Attention to Details	Australia	Who has total recall?: Wade to a row of clueboxes in the shallow water, read the multiple-choice questions about the season in each, then place colour-coded rings around the boxes to represent the answers. No hints will be given if any answers are incorrect. Grant says there are five questions, but there are three sets of seven clueboxes.
arau0212ri4	Buried Treasure	Australia	Run to the far end of the beach and dig in a marked area to find a buried treasure chest, then carry it to the finish line. All three tasks held since returning to Australia have been the final task in other seasons – the opinion task in the American version, the other two in the Asian version made by the same producers as this version.

Season Three: Australia vs. New Zealand

arau0301ri1	Pull the Other One	Australia	Tug of war. Teams from each country work together; losers get an immediate ten-minute penalty before leaving the start line. Instead of the usual eleven teams, this season has five teams from Australia and five from New Zealand. Aside from this task and one later in the season, the format otherwise remains the same as always. arau0301ri2	Raft and Half	New Zealand	Complete a whitewater rafting course with a professional, collecting half of a ring at the end of the course along with the clue.

arau0301rb	The Tractor Factor	New Zealand	Who's got better traction?: Drive a tractor through a slalom to collect a haybale and reverse back to the start to stack it, repeating to stack four bales, then enter a paddock and grab the other half of your ring from around the neck of a sheep. Each ring is unique and the joining segments are colour-coded; once the ring is assembled the leg's final clue can be read. (There's clearly additional info given off camera, given how vague the message was.) The leg winners get two Express Passes, one to be given away before the end of Leg 3 and both available for use before the end of Leg 5. arau0302ri1	Spider Sliders	Cambodia	Upon landing in Siem Reap, find a marked stall at the Old Market and eat a total of seven tarantulas. Each player must eat at least three. arau0302rb	Beads to Their Own	Cambodia	Who is the zen master?: Count the monks in a crowd wearing red-and-gold beads, then climb up a staircase with an offering and give the answer to one of two waiting monks. One will give the next clue if correct; the other will treat all answers as incorrect. arau0302ri2	Lock Step	Cambodia	Having worn a pedometer all day, write down their current totals. The team with totals closest to each other wins a mystery prize: a 30-minute time credit at the start of the next leg. Combining it with a Road Block involving running up and down stairs seemed clever... except for the problem that it was possible to rig the readings by shaking the pedometers or by simply resetting them. arau0302dt	Shrimp or Shoot	Cambodia	Shrimp: Travel to a fishing area and harvest 750 grams of shrimp from local traps. Shoot: Travel to a floating village and find a pool hall, then level a table and sink five balls playing against a local. Both first require travelling to Tonle Sap, the largest lake in southeast Asia. Possible alternate title: Lake or Pool. arau0303ri	Race and Relaxation	Thailand	Get a massage each, choosing massages from a list written only in Thai. Each massage lasts a different amount of time. Thailand = Thai massage! arau0303dt	Climb Up or Drill Down	Thailand	Climb Up: One at a time, rockclimb up a cliff to collect a flag before abseiling back down. Drill Down: Use a manual drill to bore holes in coconuts, draining the juice into a jar until it reaches a marker. (This Detour has a U-Turn attached.) Possible alternate title: Strain or Drain. arau0303rb	Down Under	Thailand	Who's more likely to clam up?: Snorkel in a marked area to find a golden clam on the seafloor with a pearl inside. Not all of the clams have pearls; the "pearl" has the clue inside. First requires travelling to Chicken Island. arau0304ri1	Walk with the Animals	Namibia	Pick two young baboons and transport them along a marked trail any way necessary. A small amount of food is provided to use as needed. arau0304rb	A Cut Above	Namibia	Who's got a healthy appetite?: Cut animal innards to prepare two buckets of lion feed to match an example, then take them via wheelbarrow to a feeding station and feed the lions. Remember: Drink water before you decide to haul a wheelbarrow across the Namibian veldt.
arau0304ri2	Double Click	Namibia	Walk to a nearby school and learn a short song in a local dialect, then sing it to the students' satisfaction. arau0304dt	Pipe or Poo	Namibia	Pipe: Use traditional methods to make a fire strong enough for a Bushman to light his pipe. Poo: Alternating turns, spit two pellets of springbok manure across a marked line eight metres away. Possible alternate title: Flame or Aim.

arau0305rb	Semaphore and Against	Russia	Who's ready to crack the code?: Memorise a set of Semaphore signals from an ongoing demonstration, then use a translation guide on a nearby sign to convert the message into Russian Cyrillic. Held on the Battleship Aurora, also the first location the American version visited on their first trip to Russia. arau0305cc1	Photographic Memories	Russia	Find a clue outside a museum, using only a photo of the building to find it. Could have been made easier if any teams realised the Russian message was the museum's address. arau0305dt	Cossack or Coat Rack	Russia	Cossack: Learn and perform a traditional Cossack dance routine. Coat Rack: Work out which of 300 luggage check tags in a set is missing, then enter a cloakroom and find it amongst the coats. Both first require travelling to Beloselsky-Belozersky Palace. Possible alternate title: Glide or Seek. arau0305iri	No Alarm, No Foul	Russia	Cross a room filled with lasers without hitting any to reach a Faberge-style egg with the clue inside. Only two group members – one per team – compete; fail and return to the end of the line. arau0305cc2	Goin' to the Chapel	Russia	Find the Church of the Saviour on Spilled Blood, the Pit Stop, using only a model of it to do so. There is no rest period at this leg's Pit Stop and the episode ends with several teams still to arrive. arau0306ri	Empty Nest	Russia	Choose a matryoshka and search five huts for the smaller dolls used to finish its set. Clues are only given when all teams from your country are done. It sure is convenient there were three teams from each country left. arau0306dt	Boil or Build	Russia	Boil: Fill a cauldron with water to a marked line and light a fire under it to heat it, then climb in and submerge yourselves. Build: Stack a large pile of firewood into a wall to resemble the example. Possible alternate title: Shiver or Timbers. arau0306rb	Doggone	Russia	Who wants to go to the dogs?: Steer a dogsled around a marked course. No, really. That's the entire task. The leg winners get a Salvage Pass and can either take a one-hour head start on the next leg or spare the last team from elimination. (Note that the first task of the episode and the linear tasks otherwise make it likely the first and last teams will be from different countries.) During the Pit Stop, teams are taken to Moscow.
arau0307ri	Learn & Perform a Fado Duet	Portugal	Learn a traditional Portuguese folk song using only MP3 players and written lyrics for assistance, then sing it with the correct tune and pronunciation. The judge for this task also appeared in the American season's 23rd season; notably, the clue she gave teams here directed them to where she waited for the teams on that season. arau0307dt	Wet or Dry	Portugal	Wet: Count the yellow umbrellas among thousands suspended over a series of alleys. Dry: Collect a washing basket from one of five ladies, then search a series of clotheslines suspended between buildings for a garment with her name on it, bringing it back. Possible alternate title: Overhead or Underpants. arau0307rb	Just Stew It	Portugal	Who's a good catch?: Deliver a large fish, 2kg of mussels, and 5kg of octopus to a restaurant on foot, then eat a serving of a traditional local fish stew. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.

arau0308ri	Rock and Stroll	Croatia	Carry a large rock each up the stairs of the City Wall to the Watchman's Keep, then answer a mystery question: the number of stairs. Get it wrong and take your rocks back down before trying again.
arau0308ff	I Second that Devotion	Croatia	Travel on foot to the Dominican Monastery to find the first part of a mystery task: collecting prayer cards from three nearby churches and taking them to a set address for the second part: getting traditional medieval-style religious haircuts. Both partners must get the set haircuts to finish.
arau0308sb	Tie Two Ties	Croatia	One at a time, correctly tie a tie on your partner. One partner ties a necktie; the other a bowtie. Throughout the years, many words have confused racers. But “bowtie” has to be the most unexpected.
arau0308rb1	Descension...	Croatia	Who's always looking ahead?: Abseil face-first down Fort Bokar. First requires walking to Fort Bokar.
arau0308rb2	...and Ascension	Croatia	Who's a social climber?: Use an ascender to climb Fort St. John. With a “pick a departure time” bunch after the stair task trying to force a Fast Forward race, the last team to arrive was basically doomed with this leg design. arau0309rb	Buckle Up	Argentina	Who wants to horse around?: Steer a horse carriage with your partner on board along a trail to a polo field, then saddle a waiting horse for a polo match.
arau0309cc	A Dramatic Reading	Argentina	Find “Buenos Aires' most dramatic bookstore”.
arau0309dt	Tango or Tribute	Argentina	Tango: Travel to a tango school, then learn and perform a tango routine. Tribute: Treasure hunt. Search a marked page of a book to find Maradona's former stadium, go there and work out the second step from a verbal clue given in Spanish, then find Evita's grave. Possible alternate title: Lovers or Leavers.
arau0309ri	Row Row Row...	Argentina	Travel to the Argentina Rowing Club and row a boat upriver to the Pit Stop.
arau0310ri1	Aussie Invasion	United States of America	Upon landing in Los Angeles, drive to Hollywood Boulevard and take photos with three people dressed as film characters played by people born in Australia, then take the photos to Ray's Photolab. Why would you need to go to a photo lab for Polaroid photos? (It sure is lucky all of the New Zealand teams got eliminated back-to-back, leaving only Australian teams in the final episode. And that you can fly to “Hollywood” now.)
arau0310ri2	Sausage Fest	United States of America	Drive to Pink's restaurant and each eat a fully-loaded hot dog. This task is totally worthy of being in the last leg of a race. #SarcasmMode arau0310ri3	Say Goodbye to Hollywood	N/A	Identify a series of destinations on a provided airline route map. Whichever team gets the most answers correct wins a trip to LA to enjoy after the race. Nothing says “Free upgrade to business class because the sponsor airline wants to look good! Yay!” quite like flight attendants who wake you up in the middle of the night to make you fill out a kids' activity sheet.
arau0310ri4	Fly Fly Away	Australia	Ride a helicopter to the Otway Fly, then search its bridges for a cluebox.
arau0310ri5	Air, Land & Sea	Australia	Part 1: From the air, search the area around Port Campbell for a mystery word, then land and tell a fisherman. Part 2: Walk to Port Campbell Beach and dig to find an item inside a giant sandcastle. Part 3: Use a paddleboard to reach an item attached to a buoy. The idea is that the three items reveal the next destination when combined, but the first is such a giveaway you'd only do the last two tasks to avoid a penalty.
arau0310rb	Visual Memory	Australia	Who's got an eye for detail?: Find items worn or held by the greeters amongst an array of decoys and put them on barrels representing the relevant legs. No hints are given if there are any errors. The Road Block tally is reset for this leg; either player can perform the task.

arbz0109rb	On Track	São Paulo	Who's the fast one?: Drive a go-kart around ten continuous laps of a track. (This task has a Yield attached.) arca0107cc	Lost in Translation	Nunavut	Work out where to go from a clue written entirely in Inuktitut.
arca0107ri	Deep Throats	Nunavut	Walk to the nearby river and search for a pair of Inuit throat singers.
arca0107dt	Harpoon Hunter or Igloo Builder	Nunavut	Harpoon Hunter: Travel to a target range 1km away with one partner pulling the other on a sled, both hit the target with a harpoon, then switch places and return to the start. Igloo Builder: Use provided tools and precut blocks of snow to build an igloo, using a finished igloo for reference.
arca0107sb	Dog Sled Run	Nunavut	Ride a dogsled along a marked course to collect a food cache, then return. Rather than being directly before a clue as usual, this is at the end of the Detour – teams go from the Detour to a snowmobile parking lot where the sign is, then ride snowmobiles to the next task.
arca0107rb	Traditional Snack	Nunavut	Who needs to fatten up?: Eat ten pieces of muktuk (raw whale blubber).
arca0108ri	Lucky Seven	Nova Scotia	Collect a passport from a mock immigration desk at Pier 21, search the museum for seven stamp kiosks and stamp the passport at each, then return.
arca0108rb	Scarecrow Building	Nova Scotia	Who wants to find their long-lost twin?: Search downtown Mahone Bay on foot for a scarecrow matching any of those in a provided set of photos (amongst several decoys), bring it to a gazebo, and dress a second scarecrow to match it using items from a pile. The product placement is taken care of with the group of photos being given on a phone. So why have the judge compare players' copies to the photos when both scarecrows are right there in front of her? arca0108dt	Surf or Turf	Nova Scotia	Surf: Ride a boat to a set of lobster traps in deep waters, haul six up, remove every lobster and band all the claws, then return to shore and deliver them to Grand Banker Seafood Bar. Turf: Walk to Boscawen Inn and memorise twelve types of German sausage by sight and taste, then walk to Zwicker Wharf and correctly identify all twelve. (This Detour has a Double U-Turn attached.)

arca0108cc	Money Talks	Nova Scotia	Find the next Pit Stop given only a Canadian ten-cent coin as a hint. There is no rest period at this leg's Pit Stop, but everybody arrives in the first episode, with the first team winning a prize and part of the next clue revealed.
arca0109ri	Quidi Vidi Vici	Newfoundland & Labrador	Memorise a quote displayed at the Terry Fox Monument, travel to Quidi Vidi Brewing Company and repeat it verbatim to gain access to a party, then each kiss a cod and drink a shot of rum.
arca0109dt	Tell a Tale or Wag a Tail	Newfoundland & Labrador	Tell a Tale: Travel to Petty Harbour dock and listen to a story told only in local slang, then cross the dock and repeat it verbatim to a group of locals. Wag a Tail: Travel to Harbourside Park and load 12 open milk bottles and 48 eggs on a cart, then work with a Newfoundland dog to deliver them to four addresses on a steep street. If items spill or break before a delivery is complete, they must be restocked before continuing.
arca0109rb	Street Performer	Newfoundland & Labrador	Who needs to get their act together?: Choose at least one item from the available options and set up a busking station on George Street, then earn $50 in tips.
arca0109cc	North; East	Newfoundland & Labrador	Find the Pit Stop at "the most easterly point in North America." Factually inaccurate – some of Alaska's outlier islands are on the other side of the International Date Line and are thus (much, MUCH) farther east. The greeter is accompanied by both a Newfoundland dog and a Labrador. arca0110ri1	Leaf it to Me	Ontario	Upon landing in Toronto, search the area outside the airport for a woman in a maple-leaf baseball cap. Oh, CANADA . arca0110rb1	Face First Rappel	Ontario	Who wants to hang out?: Abseil face-first down a 44-storey skyscraper. To prevent spoilers, a decoy filming permit was made public days earlier, with the task allegedly taking place at Toronto City Hall instead.
arca0110ri2	Non-Copyright-Infringing Golden Candy Item Task	Ontario	Find the factory where a provided bar of chocolate was made, then unwrap hundreds of bars to find one of three "golden" bars. Toronto's really more of a James and the Giant Peach city.
arca0110ri3	Hide and Seek	Ontario	Travel to Toronto Zoo and find a clue somewhere on its grounds. Yes, let's walk to the big exhibit that has signs for it all over the zoo and then not actually enter it to see if the clue is there. That's a great idea, idiots. arca0110rb2	Flags & Flowers	Ontario	Who's got the race all mapped out?: Match cards showing the official flags and flowers for each visited location (shown in clues and worn by greeters, respectively) to the correct locations on a giant map of Canada. Holders, flags, and flowers for unvisited locations are provided as decoys; no notes allowed and no hints if incorrect.

arca0201ri1	Sliding Start	Alberta	Take an elevator to the top of the Calgary Olympic ski jump track, then ride a zipline back down one at a time. Editing here – we see the next clue, to find a totem pole at the airport in Victoria upon landing, but the episode as aired skips it.
arca0201rb1	Skydive Over Victoria	British Columbia	Who's ready to jump into this race?: Tandem skydive with a professional from 12,000 feet.

arca0201rb2	Afternoon Tea Service	British Columbia	Who's ready to get steeped in tradition?: Memorise a menu, then serve afternoon tea to a table of diners with the correct etiquette and terminology.

Shipwreck Survival Lesson #1: SHUT THE FUCKING DOOR. The leg winners get two Express Passes, one to be given away before the end of Leg 5 and both available for use before the end of Leg 8.
arca0202dt	Sharp Knives or Sharp Eyes	British Columbia	Sharp Knives: Cut 30lb of acceptable yellowtail rockfish fillets. Run out of fish and you must switch. Sharp Eyes: Correctly sort 1000lb of rockfish by species into five crates. Both first require driving to Ucluelet Harbour Seafoods.
arca0202ri	Pedal Paddle	British Columbia	Load a surfboard onto a bike and ride to the beach, then have one partner record the other with a video camera while the latter surfs for at least three seconds.
arca0202rb	Sittin' Pretty	British Columbia	Who gets the drift?: Assemble a traditional beach chair out of debris and a net to resemble the finished example.
arca0203ri1	Bless is More	China	Upon landing in Hong Kong, travel to Lantau Island and receive a Buddhist blessing, then climb the stairs to the Tiantan Buddha. The graphics misspell "Buddha".
arca0203dt	Kung Fu Master or Master Chef	China	Kung Fu Master: Travel to Wan Chai Sports Ground, then learn and perform a mock kung fu routine. Master Chef: Grab a shopping list from Bo Innovation, then buy all ten items at Wan Chai Market before returning. The task had some sort of U-Turn attached but it wasn't used or aired. What the episode DID have is a cameo by Masterchef Canada judge Alvin Leung, as judge for the shopping task.
arca0203rb	Traditional Snake Meal	China	Is that a snake in my soup?: Drink a shot of freshly-procured snake bile, then eat a bowl of snake meat soup.
arca0203ri2	Lights, Camera, Action	China	Find the Bruce Lee statue on the Avenue of Stars, then perform a series of action-film-like poses to a director's satisfaction. Isn't this just a lamer version of the kung fu Detour?
arca0204ri1	Fire Away	China	Upon arrival in Macau, find the A Ma Temple and let off a set of firecrackers for good luck.
arca0204rb	Free Fall	China	Who wants a great view of the city?: Bungy jump 764 feet from Macau Tower. Yes. Again. Fifth race to visit Macau, and the fourth with a similar Road Block.
arca0204ri2	Felicidade Navigate	China	Travel to Rua da Felicidade and search the many biscuit stores in the area for a hidden cluebox.
arca0204dt	Stamp It or Stomp It	China	Stamp It: Collect a scroll from St. Paul's Ruins and stamp it at each of six addresses in the nearby area before returning. Stomp It: Travel to Senado Square and learn a complex Macanese dance routine, then perform it in sync with a local dance troupe.
arca0204ri3	A Raw Deal	China	Travel to Grand Lapa Hotel and correctly deal one round of Fan-Tan, using only an ongoing demonstration to work out its rules. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arca0205dt	Ride a Sled or Make Your Bed	Yukon	Ride a Sled: Pick a list of three sled dogs, run 1.5km to Fish Lake and find their leashes in a pile, then attach them and each steer the dogsled around three laps of a course. Make Your Bed: Hike into the woods with supply-filled backpacks and assemble a campsite to match the example, lighting a fire to free a key from a block of ice and open a food chest.
arca0205sb	Trailer Tow	Yukon	Attach a trailer to your car, drive 12.5km to a clearing, then reverse-park the trailer without hitting any markers around the designated area.

arca0205rb	Biathlon	Yukon	Who's got a steady hand?: Ride a mountain bike around a 1km course to earn five bullets, then use a rifle to hit five targets 50m away. Miss any and ride again to earn another set of bullets. Alain: One attempt. Nicole: Twenty-two.
arca0205ri	Canoe Can Do	Yukon	Portage a canoe to the nearby Yukon River, then paddle 1.5km downriver to the Pit Stop.
arca0206cc1	Gold Rush	Manitoba	Upon landing in Winnipeg, find "the Golden Boy".
arca0206ri	A Penny for Your Thoughts	Manitoba	Travel to the Royal Canadian Mint and collect ten coins from other countries, then match each to its country's flag in a grid of twenty. A series of flagpoles nearby can be used for assistance; each team gets a different set of coins. The grid of flags was chosen to be as frustrating as possible – among others, both Australia and New Zealand are among the national flags present.
arca0206cc2	Passing Wind	Manitoba	Find "the windiest intersection" in Canada.
arca0206ff	Find all 7 Ghost Signs	Manitoba	Travel to the Cube and complete a mystery task: searching in a six-block radius for vintage painted billboards with each of seven messages, filling in the blanks on a provided sheet with the right words, then returning to the starting point.
arca0206dt	Puck It or Pinch It	Manitoba	Puck It: Travel to MTS Centre and take turns sliding hockey pucks through a slalom before firing them at five holes in a target, scoring at least once in each. Pinch It: Travel to a Ukrainian Orthodox church and make 74 perogys following an ongoing demonstration. The episode title misspells perogy "pierogi" - the latter is more well-known, but they're basically two regional versions of the same dish.
arca0206rb	Stage Fright	Manitoba	Who has performance issues?: Memorise the lyrics of an 80s-style rock song, then perform it verbatim in front of a bar crowd.
arca0207rb	Dilute Calvados	France	Who's ready to give it 40%: Choose one of several storage barrel numbers, find it in a storage warehouse and extract a sample of calvados, then use provided mathematical formulas to dilute it to 40% alcohol by volume. No calculators; get it wrong and restart the entire task.
arca0207dt	Show It or Tell It	France	Show It: Drive to a farm in Lower Normandy and secure a Percheron horse, then French braid its mane for show. Tell It: Drive to the Bayeux Tapestry museum and use descriptions on nine signs to arrange boards showing parts of the tapestry in the correct order. There are four decoy boards. Titles taken from the explanation; the clue calls them Show Me and Tell Me.
arca0207ri1	Blo Me	France	Drive to Asnelles and each steer a Blokart around ten laps of a beach course.
arca0207ri2	Lest We Forget	France	Drive to Beny-sur-Mer Canadian War Cemetery and briefly pay your respects to the D-Day victims interred within, then collect a card with a poppy and deliver it to a soldier at a monument near Juno Beach before walking to the Pit Stop on the beach itself. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg. (The greeter for this leg is Canadian D-Day veteran Jim Parks.)
arca0208dt	Haute Couture or Plat du Jour	France	Haute Couture: Travel to a fashion school and make a dress by pinning pieces of fabrics to a mannequin, using only a finished example for reference. Plat du Jour: Travel to Marais and find three cafes with marked menu items, buy them and memorise their names, then serve them to a table of diners nearby. (This Detour has a Double U-Turn attached.)
arca0208sb	Play the Accordion	France	Learn to play the traditional French song Au Clair de la Lune on accordions, then perform it in unison for a crowd.

arca0209rb	Precision Driving	Québec	Who can turn on a dime?: Complete two advanced driving stunts – a quarter drift and a reverse 180-degree turn – in a product-placed car.

arca0209ff	Strike a Pose	Québec	Select one of several shown poses, then hold it while an art class sketches you, removing layers of clothing throughout until you are nude for the final section.
arca0209dt	Flamed or Grilled	Québec	Flamed: Travel to a gallery and use traditional techniques to turn coloured glass rods into five beads matching the examples. Grilled: Find a canalside kiosk and memorise ten types of grilled cheese sandwich by sight and taste, then run to a nearby food truck and correctly identify all twelve. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arca0210ri	Jockey for Position	Prince Edward Island	Dress as a horse and jockey, then complete two laps of a racetrack with the jockey sitting on a harness racing carriage pulled by the horse.
arca0210rb	Step Back in Time	Prince Edward Island	Who's your daddy?: Ask costumed extras outside Province House for names and iconic details of ten historical figures at a recreation of Canada's founding inside, then enter and correctly identify all ten people.
arca0210sb	Find Hidden Bottles of Moonshine	Prince Edward Island	Search a large pile of horse manure for three jars of moonshine. Believe it or not? Actually culturally relevant.
arca0210dt	Mussels or Mass	Prince Edward Island	Mussels: Drive to an aqua farm and strip three bins of mussels from their socks, putting them all in empty bins. Mass: Drive to a farm and use a tape measure and calculator to find the total weight of over 10,000,000 potatoes in a warehouse. During the Pit Stop, teams are taken back to Charlottetown.
arca0211ri1	Ice Ice Baby	New Brunswick	Drive to New Brunswick and find a fast food restaurant in Shediac, then ice a cake and serve it and frozen drinks to an Acadian birthday party. Oh, it is SO culturally relevant and not just an egregious excuse for a random product placement.
arca0211dt	By Land or By Sea	New Brunswick	By Land: Collect a GPS from a nearby trailhead, then use it to find ten items hidden within a 2000m ² search area. By Sea: Travel to Hopewell Rocks and memorise seven messages, run down the beach and use a book to find the nautical flag shorthand for each, return and find the correct flags among a set of nearly 100, then hang them in the right order. No notes.
arca0211rb	Rappel Cape Enrage	New Brunswick	Who's ready to rage against the cape?: Abseil down a cliff to the beach below, collecting half a clue on the way, then run to a second cliff and rock climb up it to grab the second half.
arca0211ri2	Buckle Up	New Brunswick	Run to a nearby zipline and have one partner harness the other correctly, with only their own harness for reference, then ride to the Pit Stop.
arca0212ri1	River Deep, Mountain High	Ontario	Collect a kayak from Fleet Street Pumping Station and carry it to a nearby dock, paddle down an Olympic training course to Parliament Hill, then walk to the Centennial Flame.
arca0212ri2	Lost in Time	Ontario	Walk to the House of Commons Speaker's office, pick one of three dates, search Hansard for the historical event debated in Parliament that day, then walk to the Library of Parliament and tell the waiting librarian.
arca0212rb1	Military Search	Ontario	Who's da bomb?: Search the Diefenbunker for three military miniatures hidden in different places. There are five sets of miniatures hidden.
arca0212rb2	Climb Atrium	Ontario	[Hint not revealed]: Use an ascender to climb 60 feet to the top of an atrium, grabbing a suspended clue along the way, then pull yourself along a horizontal rope to a balcony. First requires travelling to the Canadian Museum of Nature.
arca0212ri3	Paintings from the Race	Ontario	Hang 36 paintings showing images from throughout the season on a wall in the correct chronological order. There are decoy paintings to make it harder; the only hint given is that there are three correct paintings per leg. Sounds hard, but it becomes even more so when you realise a different task was implied: clues had outlines of visited locations on them and, with Hong Kong and Macau counted separately as the show did, there was exactly one task with a memory element in each, meaning it would have been logical to expect "match the memory task to the location outline".

China

Go for the Goal: Score one soccer goal from a corner kick, with one player kicking and the other headbutting it into an unguarded net. The graphics omit the “the” from each task title. (Allan also omits the rules when explaining the tasks, instead letting a single pun explain everything.) During the Pit Stop, teams are taken back to Beijing (from the Great Wall).

Face Detention: Write a provided Chinese sentence on a blackboard 50 times without error. Make an error and restart the entire task.
arch0109ri	After Rafter	Sichuan	Whitewater raft down a river to the Pit Stop. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg. (This is the first time there have been three consecutive non-eliminations; based on the reaction it got, it's not surprising it hasn't happened since.)
arch0110rb	Island Golf	Yunnan	Who's ready to tee it up?: Use a golf club to hit tennis balls between a series of five islands in a swamp, landing a ball on each to advance to the next. If all ten balls land in the water, they must be collected by boat before continuing.

There were actually eleven Pit Stop cities but Chengdu is used for both Leg 8 and Leg 9, even though Leg 9 ended in nearby Dujiangyan. arch0112cc	Lost in Translation	Shanghai	Find the finish line given only a clue written entirely in Mandarin. The finish line is the Oriental Pearl Tower; it was also the start line for this version's semi-canon predecessor Shanghai Rush .

arch0201ri1	Red Ahead	Zhejiang	Travel to Wuzhen Wedding Hall Museum and find one of several hidden red envelopes, then deliver it to a bride in a wedding parade on a nearby street.
arch0201dt	Hang Out or Dig In	Zhejiang	Hang Out: Travel to the Foliage dyeing workshop and find calico strips with four different designs in a large pile, then use bamboo poles to each hang two of the strips from overhead drying rails. Dig In: Travel to the Syria Chang Sauces factory and search among 78 vats of bean paste to find a coin like the example. There are decoy coins also hidden.
arch0201ri2	Luck of the Drawer	Zhejiang	Travel to East Wuzhen Pharmacy and search over 100 medicine drawers for four tiles showing different Chinese characters and Romanised equivalents, then arrange them in the right order to reveal the Pit Stop location. A Road Block in between the Detour and this task was edited out as only two out of eleven teams were able to complete it successfully. It involved sitting in a bathtub-sized boat and catching fish by hand.
arch0202ri1	Navigate Winding Village Streets to Find the House	Jiangxi	Travel on foot through the narrow and unmarked alleys to a specific address, then assemble 64 tiles to form an image matching the example shown on a banner hanging from an adjacent house. Odd title, that one. The navigation wasn't even really shown.

arch0203dt	Wheels or Peels	Fujian	Wheels: Pedal an aquabike to a giant floating ball, unclip it from its anchor, then ride back to shore on a banana boat. Peels: Ride a Segway down the beach to a dig site, then find six different buried fruits. In addition to clearly being almost impossible by design, behind the scenes information suggests Peels was even harder because producers hadn't buried most of the fruit before teams started to arrive.
arch0203ri	Pedal Paddle	Fujian	Travel to North Bank Park and steer a paddleboat around its lake to find one of nine floating clues. (This task has a Yield attached, with the sign at the dock.)

Dancing Lions: Walk to the town square and select a lion dancing head, search the village for the costume's tail, then return to the square and perform a short lion dance. (This Detour has a U-Turn attached.) A team quit at the Pit Stop; rumours suggest the leg was to be a non-elimination with an Intersection in Leg 5 (which became impossible with an odd number of teams). Based on the next two legs' design... I'd say about an 85% chance it's true? The next Road Block in particular does feel like a repurposed Speed Bump.
arch0205ri	A Cut Above	Hunan	Travel to Xiang Xi Farmhouse and use hacksaws to cut a bamboo pole filled with aging baijiu into four pieces, draining the baijiu into a vase.
arch0205dt	Name That View or Name That Tune	Hunan	Name That View: Travel to Sand Painting Gallery and correctly match names of ten local mountains with provided photos. There are decoy photos. Name That Tune: Travel to Baofeng Lake and ride a boat to listen to performers sing four songs in an indigenous dialect, memorising the shown titles, then proceed to the far end of the lake and identify which of the four is being sung by a second performer. arch0208cc	Find the Meaning of "4506"	Yunnan	Given only the number 4506, find the next destination. No, I mean given ONLY the number. No additional information, no preamble. Possibly the toughest cryptic clue in the show's history?

arch0209dt	Sun or Bun	Qinghai	Sun: Find a specific home and assemble a solar cooker to match the finished example. Bun: Find a specific home and fold twenty sweet dumplings in an intricate manner, using an ongoing demonstration for reference. Both first require travelling to San Lan Ba Hai Village. That's six food preparation tasks in the past five legs, and the third "make a pastry common among local minorities" task in the past three. I'm beginning to sense a bit of a theme.
arch0209rb	Air Mail	Qinghai	Who can pull their own weight?: Load a basket of supplies into a suspended cart, climb in and pull yourself over the river to the other side, then deliver the basket on foot to a nearby monastery before returning the same way. There is no rest period at this Pit Stop; all teams arrive within the first episode.
arch0210rb	Shadow Puppet Puzzle	Qinghai	Who is the piece maker?: Correctly assemble six Ming Dynasty shadow puppets from their component pieces. "The only thing I got right the first time was the horse, because it had four legs, and that's pretty much the same in every country I think." Except Wales. But Wales totally doesn't count.

Find the Wine: Use four pairs of wineglasses filled with different amounts of wine and representing different digits to solve a code, then work out the digits shown by five other pairs before finding the corresponding numbered wine barrel in a basement and rolling it outside. Both first require travelling to Chateau Junding.
arch0211ri2	For Whom the Bells Toll	Shandong	Travel to San Xian Shan Park and watch a bell performance, then spend ten minutes learning to play the same song before performing it in unison. Fail and receive a fifteen-minute penalty before trying again.

Snap It: Select a photo showing a tourist in a nearby location, then search the area for the tourist, bring them to the location, and recreate the photo exactly. No, Allan. Recreating a photo of you looking like a douche wasn't necessary.
arch0212ri2	Fork Off	Shanghai	Drive to a beer factory and use a forklift to each transfer six pallets of beer from one marked area to another. Break anything and get a fifteen-minute time penalty before trying again.
arch0212rb	Match the Legs	Shanghai	Who's ready for a trip down Memory Lane?: Search a set of giant leg statues for 22 placards showing names and images of the eleven Pit Stop cities, then match them into pairs and put them on signs in the order they were visited. First requires walking to Red Town Sculpture Park.

arch0302sb	A Chip Off the Old Block	Heilongjiang	Use chisels to break through a large block of ice and collect a clue frozen within. I realise this version has never had the production values of the US version, but it's really, really noticeable here.
arch0302dt	Log It or Slog It	Heilongjiang	Log It: Chop 30 logs into halves, then stack them in a fifteen-level tower. Slog It: Search a marked section of forest for a 'singing tree', using only a pair of parabolic microphones, then dig up a buried clue. Both first require travelling to Shuangsen Village.

arch0305sb	A Snail's Pace	Zhejiang	Walk to a nearby antiques store, then each eat 1.5kg of cooked river snails. arch0307dt	Screw This or Scrap That	Jiangsu	Screw This: Use wrenches to attach 87 sections of siding to a high-speed rail track. Scrap That: Use handcarts to transfer fourteen cartons of scrap metal from one side of a giant warehouse to the other, each taking only one carton at a time. Screw this, indeed. arch0307ri	In a Tailspin	Jiangsu	Travel to Nanjing University of Aeronautics and Astronautics and memorise images of ten planes while being spun around in a wheel-like device, then find the correct images in a set of twenty. Fail and spin again before making another guess. (This task has a Yield attached.) Allan claims there are "more than twenty" images, but we're shown a close-up of the board and each image is clearly numbered. The clue specifies the exact neighbourhood, which is basically pointless when none of the teams are from Sydney and they arrive late at night when there is nobody around to ask. It looks as though it's more of a blatant attempt for comedic mispronunciations of "Woolloomooloo".
aris0108ri2	Six of the Best	Australia	Work together to eat six meat pies topped with mashed potato and peas. Teams earn morning departure times based on the order they finish.
aris0108ri3	Oy Vey, Oy Vey, Oy Vey	Australia	Memorise the full version of the "Aussie, Aussie, Aussie" cheer, then climb up the Sydney Harbour Bridge and back down before repeating the cheer.

aris0110ri7	Scenic Backdrop	New Zealand	Perform a 120m canyon swing facing backwards. This was one side of a Detour. Based on the task and these producers tending to copy tasks between the versions of the show they are involved with, it seems likely the alternative was another bungee jump, which was the other choice when this swing was used as a Detour in The Amazing Race Asia 4.
aris0110ri8	Over the Hill	New Zealand	Use three rolling logs to transport a platform with a 250kg globe on it up a hill, then run down the other side to the finish line.

aris0202ri2	A Bunch of Posers	Hungary	Convince five locals to recreate a provided photo of Theodor Herzl by putting on a coat and fake beard, leaning on a fence, and saying his famous quote. Why is the quote part of the challenge when players are taking still photos? aris0209db	Walking on Eggshells	Thailand	Using coconut half-shells connected together by a rope as makeshift shoes, walk across a beach to collect five coconuts each and place them in baskets on your back. First team to collect all ten coconuts and cross the finish line gets the clue.
aris0209dt	Sheqsheq Aotov or Potzetz Aotov	Thailand	Sheqsheq Aotov [Slosh It]: Identify the fruits used in a provided smoothie by taste, then cross the beach in a two-person potato sack and collect oversized prop versions of the three fruits used. No hints are given if errors are made. Potzetz Aotov [Pop It]: Pop a series of colour-coded balloons in a wading pool by sitting on or biting them. One player pops while wearing blackout goggles, the other gives verbal directions. (This Detour has a Must Vote U-Turn attached.)
aris0209rb	Full of Shirt	Thailand	Who doesn't have a weight issue?: Put on a shirt and lay down while an elephant presses on it with its feet and trunk, then stand up and hold a board under the shirt while the elephant paints it with its trunk.
aris0209ri4	Beach to Their Own	Thailand	Travel to Pattaya Beach and collect three phone numbers from bystanders of the opposite sex. One player collects numbers, the other uses a walkie-talkie to tell them what to say.
aris0209ri5	Thai High	Thailand	Travel to Pattaya Park Tower and ride a tandem zipline from the rooftop to the ground below, searching for a giant sign showing the Pit Stop location. Non-elimination; the spared team will get a 30-minute penalty if they do not win the next leg.
aris0210ri1	Sew What	Sri Lanka	Find a literal needle in a haystack, sew an emblem onto two Buddhist robes, then put them on and travel to a nearby temple before receiving a blessing.
aris0210ri2	Mask and Ye Shall Retrieve	Sri Lanka	Travel to a festival and spin a wheel twice to select a mask each, memorising the design before finding the person wearing it. Once both have found their person, collect a clue from a basket with a cobra inside using a wooden claw.
aris0210dt	Sebley Tebleyneym or Khobseyem	Sri Lanka	Sebley Tebleyneym [Spice Porters]: Travel to Kollupitiya Market and stuff a sack each with 25kg of chillies, then carry them to a workstation and use a rolling pin to crush enough chillies to make a ball of chilli paste. Khobseyem [Laundrymen]: Travel to an outdoor laundry and wash a set of 50 sheets, searching for three with words printed on them. aris0210ff	Half-Hearted	Sri Lanka	Travel to Mr. Pierce Studio and complete a mystery task: each getting a tattoo of a designated design.
aris0210ri3	Deuce of Cakes	Sri Lanka	Fill a basket each with cow manure, balance it on your heads and walk to a drying area, then use it to make 100 fuel cakes.
aris0210rb	Mail Call	Sri Lanka	Who can read between the lines?: Search a mail cart filled with 7000 letters for one addressed to your team. First requires travelling to the Sri Lanka Central Mail Exchange depot.

aris0211dt	Zechar or Neqebah	Sri Lanka	Zechar [Male]: Using only your right hands, load a buffalo cart with coconuts and lead the buffalo along a marked course. Neqebah [Female]: Using only your right hands, milk a female buffalo to fill a bucket. Both first require travelling to a coconut plantation on Colombo's outskirts.
aris0211ri	Temple of Doom	Sri Lanka	Travel to Gangaramaya Temple and have one player walk across hot coals, then have the other player lay on a bed of nails for three minutes. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg. (During the Pit Stop, teams are taken to Singapore.)
aris0212ri1	Cash and Carry	Singapore	Wearing high heels, carry prop banknotes representing the winner's prize through the streets to the Fountain of Wealth, then walk around three laps of the fountain and touch the water before placing the money in a briefcase.

aris0212ri3	Mission: Implausible	Singapore	Travel to Art Science Museum and have one player abseil down its atrium to collect fifteen suspended merlion figurines while blindfolded, with the other player using a headset and a CCTV feed from their helmetcam to guide them.
aris0213ri1	Fire Away	Singapore	Travel to Hong San See Taoist Temple and have one player "eat" a fire stick, then have the other breathe fire to burn a sheet of paper to reveal a clue.
aris0213ri2	Take a Seat	Singapore	Travel to the Singapore Flyer observation wheel and board a capsule, then work out which two of the many props inside have markers indicating they will be used in the next task. The next clue will not be given unless the right two props are chosen.
aris0213ri3	Chair Chain	Singapore	Travel to Marina Bay Sands with your chair and megaphone, then convince 58 bystanders to sit in a chain holding team flags, with the first person on the chair and each successive person sitting on the last person's knees.
aris0213ri4	Tight Finish	Singapore	Walk across parallel tightropes suspended between two 55th-floor rooftops, using only each other to balance. Fail and return to the end of the line. I realise Singapore is small, but why have a Pit Stop and three separate tasks (this, the chair task, and the previous leg's magic task) all in the one place? Isn't this show supposed to be about, you know, seeing the world?
Season Three
aris0301ri	The Crate Pyramid	Israel	Use an assortment of props to climb on top of a shipping crate, climb a cable ladder over a gap to a second crate, swing across a rope to a third crate, then climb to collect the clue from on top of a final crate.
aris0301dt	Aley'ezer Vahegzer or Hamfuzer Mekhfer Azar	Israel	Aley'ezer Vahegzer [Chain]: Convince twenty bystanders to donate clothes, then tie them together to make a long rope and pull a giant carrot out of the ground. Hamfuzer Mekhfer Azar [Train]: Transport twelve full sacks across a field, with one player carrying them and the other shuffling behind them on their knees to imitate a train engine.
aris0302db	Air Bed	Israel	Endurance. One player is harnessed above a mattress, face down, and holds the other in the air for as long as possible. Last pair in the air gets the clue.
aris0302cc	Old Money	Israel	Find the next destination given only a historical flyer for assistance, then drive there and pay the doorman the modern equivalent of the stated entry fee.
aris0302ri1	Soup; Song	Israel	Part 1: Find a poet and listen to her read a famous poem, then listen to a song and use it to find the suite where the poem's original author lived. Part 2: Find the suite where Tel Aviv's first mayor lived and taste a soup, then walk to the hotel dining room and search hundreds of bowls for a matching soup. Any bowl tasted must be completely eaten.

aris0302ri2	Model Citizens	Israel	Drive to Mini Israel and search the exhibits for one of ten hidden clues to the first international destination, then check in at the adjacent Pit Stop. The leg winners get a Salvage Pass and can either take a one-hour head start on the next leg or spare the last team from elimination. aris0303rb	A Load of Bull	Spain	Who looks good in pink?: Bullfighting. Hold a cape to one side for the bull to touch, then plant a ribbon anywhere on its body. Teams are given the option to hire drivers for the first half of the leg, but must do all of their own navigation regardless of what they choose. At the time this task was filmed, bullfighting was illegal in Spain. aris0303dt	Flamenco or Macarena	Spain	Flamenco: Drive to Amor de Dios and learn a flamenco routine, then walk to Villa Rosa in full costume and perform it for a panel of judges. Fail and return to Amor de Dios for more practice. Macarena: Drive to Calle de Fuencarral and find a marked storefront, then pose in the window and perform the Macarena whenever a passerby pushes a button until it has been performed fifteen times. (This Detour has a Must Vote U-Turn attached.) aris0303ri1	Flower Power	Spain	Put on Dali-esque fake moustaches and load 50 cauliflowers into your car. Once they are in, you must walk everywhere back-to-back with your arms linked until further notice. aris0303ri2	Hello Dali	Spain	Enter a room filled with items and signs for their Hebrew names, work out that the names are anagrams, then use the letters to form two mystery words. Fail to do so before an hourglass runs out and assemble a surrealist jigsaw as a penalty. The jigsaw can be solved 'normally'; there is no indication it is not intended to be aside from the mystery words (Salvador Dali), which any players who had to solve the puzzle weren't aware of.
aris0303ri3	Fruit Flies	Spain	Put your heads through holes in a box filled with flies and eat a suspended apple covered in honey.
aris0303db	Food Fight	Spain	One player must search a pile of tomatoes for a small placard while the other joins locals to pelt the opponent with tomatoes. First to find it gets the clue. One team was forced to quit the race after an injury sustained during the Road Block; rather than wait around for nobody, the team in second-last was given the usual last-place penalty instead. aris0303ri4	Dul(l) Cine(m)a	Spain	Dressed as Don Quixote and Sancho Panza, perform a series of minitasks based on their characters. Yeah, I'm not even going to bother explaining the minitasks here. The clue mistakenly calls the latter character "Sancho Pancho". aris0303cc	Who am I?	Spain	Find the Pit Stop, given only an ID card showing the person it is named after with their first name and surname redacted from the visible details. Why is a tower named after Picasso so... regular? aris0304ri1	Soap a Dope	Spain	Scrub each other with bars of soap to reveal a small card embedded into the bar. At regular intervals, locals will douse you with ice water.
aris0304ri2	Log Stroll	Spain	Carry two heavy logs through the streets to the Museum of the Inquisition.
aris0304rb	Nobody Ever Expected	Spain	Who wants to put their hand into the Inquisition?: Select a covered jar full of either mice, mealworms, or rotten meat and use your hand to find a tile with a number on it, then wait while your partner holds two buckets of sand above their head for that many minutes. aris0304ri3	When You Wish Upon a Statue	Spain	Part 1: Find the statue of a man shown in a provided Israeli banknote. Part 2: Dance at the statue with a rabbi briefly, then make a wish. Teams are awarded morning departure times based on the order they finish. aris0304ri4	Lifters and Leaners	Spain	Lay on a single bed together and convince locals to carry you through the streets to Seville Cathedral. aris0304ri5	Two Face	Spain	Mimic seven photos of people pulling faces.

aris0304dt	Melkh HaShetyheym or Melkh HeSerenedot	Spain	Melkh HaShetyheym [King of Rugs]: Travel to Plaza de Espana and clean all the dust from a suspended rug, with one player riding the other's shoulders and using a wooden paddle to bat the dust off. Melkh HeSerenedot [King of Serenades]: Travel to Calle de Sierpes and sing a Hebrew serenade for a local with a group of musicians, handing the local a violet every time the word 'violet' is sung. (This Detour has a Must Vote Double U-Turn attached.) The team with the most votes was U-Turned and had the sole right to use the second U-Turn, with its usual rule that there was no affect if the chosen team had already passed.
aris0304ri6	Sausage Feast	Spain	Eat 2kg of chorizo.
aris0304ri7	Soccer To Me	Spain	Travel to Estadio de la Cartuja and score a goal playing soccer against two local defenders, with one player kicking the ball and one shouting the word "Goal" into a decibel meter. If the shouter stops shouting or shouts quieter than the set level, the kicker must restart.
aris0304ri8	Crowd Sourcing	Spain	Search Estadio de la Cartuja's 60,000 seats for one of a small number of clues. Some clues are decoys and simply say to try again.
aris0305cc	A Capital Idea	Spain	Work out the next country given only its national anthem, then fly to the capital city and find a clue outside the airport. After leaving the airport, teams are forbidden from speaking in languages other than Hebrew until further notice. It sure is lucky that (1) a team thought to check they were going to the right place AFTER buying tickets to London and (2) everybody arrived in Paris at Charles de Gaulle rather than Orly.
aris0305ri1	You Know, Charade is a French Word?	France	Travel to Passerelle Debilly and find a mime, then correctly identify a series of mimed actions. The same mime later re-appeared as the greeter for The Amazing Race Canada's leg in Paris.
aris0305ri2	Yes Oui Can Can	France	Learn and perform a cancan routine to the satisfaction of a task judge sitting in a theatre balcony.
aris0305dt	Marie Antoinette or Tzemer Gefen Metoq	France	Marie Antoinette: Travel to Place Marcel-Ayme and eat the raw ingredients of a cake: flour, an egg, oil, sugar, cocoa powder, and the candles. Tzemer Gefen Metoq [Cotton Candy]: Travel to Rue d'Assas and eat a large serving of cotton candy while riding a carousel, finishing before the ride does.
aris0305ri3	Poodles and Doodles	France	Collect a small dog and search the area around Montmartre for a caricaturist who has drawn a picture of you and your dog. The dogs must be kept until further notice and players must brush, feed, and sing to it whenever it barks. (On the other hand, they are no longer restricted to speaking in Hebrew, so... swings and roundabouts?) How did the caricaturists know which dog each team would select?
aris0305db	Turn to the Left	France	Model underwear on a catwalk for two judges. The better pair as determined by the judges gets the clue. Following the task, teams may leave their dogs behind.
aris0305ri4	No Love Locked	France	Who has the key to a locked heart?: Dressed as Quasimodo, use a provided key to open one of the hundreds of locks on the Pont des Arts bridge. For each incorrect lock tried, your partner must ring a handbell.
aris0305ri5	A Boozy Doozy	France	Travel to Pavillon Kleber and build a twelve-level champagne pyramid with one glass on top, then fill it all without breaking any glasses. Every five minutes, drink a glass of champagne. (This task has a Must Vote Yield attached.)

aris0305ri6	Oui or Non	France	Travel to the Arc de Triomphe and find the Pit Stop, then guess what the greeter (covered by a sheet) is dressed as by asking up to 21 yes-or-no questions. Fail to guess the greeter's costume within two minutes of starting and get an immediate fifteen-minute penalty before trying again. Non-elimination; the spared team must spend the next leg – in a warm country (spoiler!) – wearing only their winter clothes.
aris0306ri1	Dancing in the Streets	Brazil	Learn a basic samba routine, then perform it repeatedly while walking to the next destination with a samba instructor. Teams must continue to samba until the end of the Road Block, including while travelling in vehicles but excluding while performing other tasks. aris0306ri2	Beach Bums	Brazil	Complete a 20-minute beach aerobics class.
aris0306ff	Beach Balls	Brazil	Travel to Abrico Beach and complete a mystery task: Playing frescoball (beach tennis) nude with two locals, keeping the ball in the air for 30 hits in a row.
aris0306ri3	Over and Out	Brazil	Who's a floater?: Take a taxi to Pedra Bonita and paraglide back down, then use a surfboard to collect your partner from a buoy in the water.
aris0306dt	Khedoregel or Qefeh	Brazil	Khedoregel [Balls]: Walk to a favela soccer field and have one partner get a ball away from four locals playing keepaway, then have the other score in a narrow goal against a goalkeeper. If the latter misses, both must perform their parts again. Qefeh [Brews]: Walk to a coffeeshop and match five coffee brews to their sources, with one player drinking the coffee and the other tasting only the ground beans. (This Detour has a Must Vote U-Turn attached.)
aris0306ri4	Wax On, Wax Off	Brazil	Have your bodies waxed, then learn and perform a bodybuilding routine for three judges who will score you out of five, earning a total of at least ten points. It's implied the leg ends with a cryptic clue involving finding the Pit Stop at a location between two places mentioned in provided songs (Copacabana and The Girl from Ipanema, naturally), except we're shown the tablets teams use and the names of the songs are shown, eliminating the "challenge" part. aris0307ri1	Where There's Smoke...	Cuba	Watch a cigar-making demonstration then work together to make one, with one player blindfolded and the other giving verbal directions only. For reasons that are completely unrelated to the United States being its main defender, Cuba does not recognise Israel as a country. Just... you know, FYI. aris0307db	Quicker Liquor	Cuba	Using only one hand each, carry a tray loaded with twelve daiquiris to Ernest Hemingway's former hotel. Whichever team spills least before arriving (or arrives first) gets the clue.
aris0307ri2	More or Bless	Cuba	Drive to a Santeria priestess's house and get a traditional Santeria blessing.
aris0307ri3	It's in the Cards	Cuba	Drive to Hospital Street and find a fortune teller, then receive a Tarot reading.
aris0307dt	Mesibah Qubeneyt or Mesperah Qubeneyt	Cuba	Mesibah Qubeneyt [Cuban Party]: Convince 40 locals to put on bandanas and salsa with you simultaneously. Mesperah Qubeneyt [Cuban Barbershop]: Convince two local men to follow you to O'Reilly Street Barbershop, then wash their hair and shave their faces with straight razors. (This Detour has a Must Vote U-Turn attached.) Teams voted after the fortune teller task; this seems odd – it's fairly plausible, especially with self-driving, that the leaders could finish the Detour before the last teams voted. aris0307ri4	Mi Casa es Tu Et Cetera	Cuba	Collect a hitchhiker from a specified location and take them home, then stay for dinner. At the end, the clue will be given along with a care package from home. Non-elimination; the spared team will have their start time on the next leg delayed by 30 minutes. As this version shows most legs over multiple episodes, this one task – pretty dull even by this version's standards – gets an entire episode to itself.

aris0308ri1	Croc and Roll	Cuba	Enter a pen filled with baby crocodiles and use only your hands to catch them, each holding eight crocodiles simultaneously, then enter another pen and work with a handler to catch a fully-grown crocodile.
aris0308db	Horse Course	Cuba	Harness racing. First team across the finish line gets the clue.
aris0308ri2	Message in a Bottle	Cuba	Write a letter to your loved ones for at least 25 minutes, put it in a bottle, and throw it out to sea.
aris0308dt	Shod Beyem or Shod Baveyer	Cuba	Shod Beyem [Sea]: Wade to a rowboat filled with an assortment of items and carry them to shore without getting them wet, then carry a sailor to shore in the same manner. At least one item must be transferred at the same time as the sailor. Shod Baveyer [Air]: Suspended in a net, swing back and forth using ropes to collect a flag and a bag of loot without dropping either. (This Detour has a Must Vote U-Turn attached.) For no reason beyond a sight gag, teams must wear pirate costumes from a route marker directly before this Detour until they arrive at the Pit Stop.
aris0308ri3	Necks in Line	Cuba	One partner buries the other up to the neck in sand, then pours bottles of gunge over them until a pearl is found.
aris0309ri1	Spin Psycho	United States of America	Travel to Fremont Street and find a carnival wheel, then spin to determine what position you'll leave in. If your spin is higher than your arrival position you must serve an additional time penalty to allow later teams a head start.
aris0309ri2	Biker Beer	United States of America	Win an arm-wrestling match against a biker, then drink a large glass of non-alcoholic beer each within two minutes.
aris0309ri3	Goin' to the Chapel	United States of America	Find a couple on the streets willing to get married, take them to City Hall for a marriage licence, then take them to the Little White Wedding Chapel and witness their wedding.
aris0309db	Fear and Clothing in Las Vegas	United States of America	Strip "poker". The game is actually War; whichever team is dealt the lower card takes off one item of clothing. The battle ends when a team is either naked or as naked as they are willing to get; their opponents get the clue. Instead of waiting for their time penalty, the team who loses the last battle must walk on the Vegas strip for its duration wearing only cardboard boxes.
aris0309iri	Beef Up	United States of America	Eat a 2.5kg hamburger. At a route marker before this task, teams must put on a two-person shirt and pants, then travel like this until further notice.
aris0309ri4	Elvis Lives	United States of America	Learn and perform an Elvis Presley song in costume, using a video for reference. Upon arrival, teams are no longer forced to wear their shirt and pants. But they do have to wear their Elvis costumes instead.
aris0309rb1	Revolver	United States of America	Who wants to be a superhero?: Enter a revolving door and change from your Elvis costume into a superhero outfit within 20 seconds, then carry your partner and a cardboard car cutout down the Vegas Strip to find a damsel in distress. Surely producers knew the history of the pink triangle before putting it on one of the superhero costumes, right? Especially on a version produced for a country literally created as a result of the Holocaust?
aris0309rb2	Leap of Faith	United States of America	Who wants to fly like Superman?: Jump from the Stratosphere Tower and be lowered to the ground at high speed. There is no rest period at this leg's Pit Stop; all teams arrive within the leg's final episode. (There is a Must Vote Yield at the Pit Stop.)
aris0310ri1	There's Trouble Hebrewing	United States of America	Work out that the words spoken in a Blair Witch parody video are all titles of American horror films translated into Hebrew. Bonus cameo by the theme song from The X-Files . Twice. Because why not?
aris0310rb	Bury the Evidence	United States of America	Who lives like they're in a film?: Stay in a coffin for ten minutes while it is covered in dirt in a simulated Mafia burial.

aris0310ri2	Trick or Treat	United States of America	Travel to a given address and knock on the door three times, picking either an unknown "Trick" task or an unknown "Treat" task each time. There are two tasks for each option, but the tasks are not known at the time they are chosen. For the record: Trick tasks are kissing a frog each and bobbing for five apples each, while Treat tasks are eating a fist-sized gummy bear and taking a cream pie to the face. aris0310ri3	The Card's in It	United States of America	One player sits above a dunk tank full of gunge; when their partner manages to dunk them, they must search the gunge for a small card. If you haven't realised this is a bizarrely pop-culture-heavy leg yet, you won't care that the cluegiver was randomly dressed as Magenta from Rocky Horror.
aris0310ri4	The Bra Code	United States of America	Score a touchdown against four lingerie football players. America: Land of the free and home of the gratuitous tits.
aris0310ri5	Truck Off	United States of America	Use harnesses and a rope to haul a twelve-ton truck across a parking lot. How nice to see we're now borrowing challenges from The Biggest Loser instead of other Amazing Race franchises. aris0310ri6	Show Us Your Rigs	United States of America	Convince three passersby to pull into a bikini car wash, then wash their cars for the set price of $3 each. America: Still land of the free and home of the gratuitous tits. During the Pit Stop, teams are taken to Flagstaff, Arizona. aris0311ri1	Snow Go	United States of America	Carry a toboggan up a snowhill and use an avalanche beacon to find a buried mannequin, then load it onto the toboggan and slide back down. aris0311db	Sled Ahead	United States of America	Ride a dogsled around a marked course, one at a time in a relay. First team across the finish gets the clue. aris0311dt1	Lasof or Leschob	United States of America	Lasof [Sturdy Stack]: Stack a provided pile of firewood into a two-metre-tall wall. Leschob [Sturdy Back]: Wearing snowshoes, carry a local each around a marked course. (This Detour has a Must Vote Double U-Turn attached.)
aris0311ri2	Dances With Wheels	United States of America	Perform a Native American hoop dance using only an ongoing demonstration for reference, then receive a traditional blessing, including getting a local name which must be used for the rest of the leg. As you would expect from this version, the specific Native American nation involved in this task is never stated. aris0311ri3	On Target	United States of America	One partner uses a bow and arrow to hit a wheel as it rolls along the ground, then the other uses a spear to hit a target thrown in the air. Run out of either arrows or spears and perform a traditional dance in order to get a new supply.
aris0311ri4	No Sweat	United States of America	Enter a sweat lodge for a short period, then roll around in the mud outside and wash it off in a frigid lake before returning to the sweat lodge to heat back up. aris0311ri5	That's Tentertainment	United States of America	Build a fire and a teepee, using only a finished teepee for reference, then spend the night in your teepee.
aris0311ri6	A Horse is a Horse, of Cows, of Cows	United States of America	Ride horses down a trail to a corral, then work on foot to herd three cows in colour-coded bandanas into a smaller adjoining corral. aris0311dt2	Rodeo or Country	United States of America	Rodeo: Each ride a mechanical bull for a continuous 30-second sequence. Country: Learn and perform a local yodelling song in time with the music. aris0311ri7	Pop Quiz	United States of America	Answer three quiz questions about the other teams by using a gun to shoot targets marked with the right answers. For each incorrect answer, a time penalty must be served before continuing. aris0311ri8	Shoe In	United States of America	Search a mock Old West village for one of several hidden horseshoes, then take it to the nearby Pit Stop. aris0312ri1	Swing Song	Taiwan	Sit on a swing set and sing a well-known Hebrew song while the seat is lowered into a water tank and snakes are poured in. Make any lyrical errors and the task must be restarted.

aris0312ri2	Juice...	Taiwan	Sell twelve glasses of fruit juice using a bicycle-powered vendor cart.
aris0312cc	..Blocks	Taiwan	Find the next destination using only a giant piece of pixel art showing its name written in Chinese. The location is the Taipei Confucius Temple, which also had an oversized "translate the Chinese name" cryptic clue when the American version visited.
aris0312ri3	Repeat After Me	Taiwan	One partner memorises a Confucian proverb read over a payphone without taking notes, then recites it to their partner (standing on one leg with a book on their head), who repeats it to a monk. If the proverb is repeated verbatim, the clue is given; fail enough times and the tai chi is replaced with the second player holding a bowl of stinky tofu up to their nose.
aris0312ri4	Market Down	Taiwan	Travel to Raohe Street Night Market and search for a hidden clue.
aris0313ri1	Double Jeopardy	Taiwan	Work together to cross a pair of parallel ropes and grab a flag, using only three planks (one per player and one in the middle to push/pull as needed) for assistance, then return across the ropes the same way.
aris0313ri2	My Two Suns	Taiwan	Find two locals with parasols and convince them to replace the parasols with bottles of sunscreen.
aris0313ri3	Flash in the Pan	Taiwan	Convince ten locals to form a flashmob and dance with you to Gangnam Style , copying the moves made by a dancing robot. You know, notable Taiwanese internet fad Gangnam Style . (South Korea? Never heard of it. YOU LIE.)
aris0313ri4	Up, Down, and All Around	Taiwan	Part 1: One player climbs atop a cable car gondola to grab a hanging clue. Part 2: The other player climbs down a cable ladder beneath the gondola to grab a satchel with a coin inside. Part 3: At the top of the gondola ride, use the coin to collect a clue from a skill tester machine.
aris0313ri5	Back; to the Future	Taiwan	Travel to Huaxi Street Night Market and find something related to the skill tester part of the above task.

arno0101ri1	Unscripted	Norway	Search a grid of 20 flags for the three representing countries where provided forms of lettering (Cyrillic, Arabic, and Chinese) are used. While eighteen of the flags are for sovereign nations, one represents the Isle of Man and one is completely fake.
arno0101ri2	Counter Attack	Norway	Drive to Oslo Airport and search for a clue at one of four specific counters. Each counter has a limited number of clues; there are only ten in total and the team left without is instantly eliminated.
arno0101ri3	Arrivals and Departures	United Arab Emirates	Upon landing in Dubai, search the area outside the arrival terminal for a camel handler named Hassan, then travel with him to the next destination.
arno0101ri4	Hump Day	United Arab Emirates	Lead a camel along a marked course through the sand dunes, with one player riding and one walking alongside.

arph0102iri	Pony Up	Ilocos Sur	Load 60 clay pots onto a horse-drawn cart and lead it through the streets to a marked address on Calle Crisologo. Arrive with fewer than 55 pots intact and receive an immediate one-minute penalty per broken pot.

arph0105ri2	Smash and Grab	Zambales	Travel to the Global Ship Terminal and use provided tools to release a clue from a giant cylinder of concrete. There is no rest period at this leg's Pit Stop; due to this version's airing schedule, with each leg shown over several half-hour episodes, there is no cliffhanger. arph0111ri1	Women's Liberation; Movement	Metro Manila	Upon landing in Manila, travel to Marajo Tower and find out the year in which women were given the right to vote in the Philippines, then enter it into a product-placed printer, exchanging the printout for a clue. Travelling halfway across the country just for this? Granted, Philippines travel is so centralised they would probably have gone through Manila anyway, but still. arph0111ri2	A Tents Situation	Palawan	Assemble a tent on the beach for the night, using a finished tent for reference. Teams earn morning departures based on the order they finish.

arph0111ri3	It's All Just a Little Bit of History Repeating	Palawan	Travel in a boat along the Puerto Princesa Subterranean River and take a photo of a sign showing the year Lt. H. G. Warwick first visited the river. The year is the same as the answer from the above printer task.

(This makes it possible for one player to perform both tasks.) arua0105rb	Balut and Plunder	Philippines	Is this adventure worth a damn? The task is not for the timid.: Eat six balut. I'm assuming the hint is a bit lost in translation. Probably.

arua0112ri3	Wish You Were Here?	Ukraine	Travel to the Central Post Office and collect the postcards mailed after each of the season's previous photography tasks. Still not sure why these tasks were even there. I doubt it was product placement, even if only because the frequent gratuitous shots of the more attractive male teams preparing to race by putting on the sponsor deodorant (and, indeed, the sponsor beer brand's logo being helpfully emblazoned on teams' taxis in this very leg) suggest subtlety wasn't exactly this version's strong point. arus0106cc	All Roads Lead to Rome	Italy	Upon landing in Rome, find the location shown in a provided photograph. The Colosseum? So hard. arus0106dt	Hoof or Foot	Italy	Hoof: Find a statue of a horse given only a partial photo showing its hoof. Foot: Find a well-known statue of a foot given only a photo of it. The implication is that teams who find the horse can travel by taxi to the next destination while those who find the foot will have to walk; it's a decoy and the foot statue opens half an hour earlier to make up for it.

arus0106rb	All Roads Lead Away from Rome	Italy	For someone who likes to take things slowly.: Drive a SmartCar along a ten-mile route to the Pit Stop, using only a map written in Italian for reference. The player not performing the task is taken to the Pit Stop in a sportscar. Non-elimination leg; there is no penalty for the spared team.
arus0107ff	Find Boat in Moat	Italy	Find a castle in Ferrara with only a photo for reference, then use a rowboat to search the moat walls for the Fast Forward.
arus0107dt	Glide or Ride	Italy	Glide: Travel to Ferrara airfield and complete a glider flight, with one player in the glider and one in the tow-plane, then take a taxi to the train station. One team at a time. Ride: Travel to a bike shop in Ferrara and rent a bike each, then ride along a set course to the train station using a map to navigate.
arus0107rb	Hire Rickshaw, Find Shopkeeper	India	For a person with a good sense of direction.: Hire a rickshaw and direct its driver to a specified stall in a crowded marketplace. The last clue is presented as if it was a cryptic clue; in actuality the Pit Stop was named and teams just weren't told it was in a different city.
arus0108ri	Around the Grounds	India	"A route marker is located somewhere on the grounds of the Taj Mahal. Find it."
arus0108dt	Elephant or Row Boat	India	Elephant: Travel to the Amber Fort and ride an elephant up a trail to the fort itself, then search the building for a holy man. Row Boat: Travel to Man Sagar Lake and paddle a rowboat to Jal Mahal, then search the building for a holy man.
arus0108rb	Walk Through Temple of Rats	India	The person who performs this task may want to put on some extra socks.: Take your shoes off and search the rat-infested Shri Karni Mata temple for a hidden canister of clues. Non-elimination leg; there is no penalty for the spared team.
arus0109ff	Money to Urn	Thailand	Upon landing in Bangkok, find "where the Buddha reclines" and complete a mystery task: picking a bowl of coins from a table and putting one coin into each of the 108 urns lining the temple wall. There are 30 bowls available, but only one has the right number of coins.
arus0109dt	Public or Private	Thailand	Public: Travel to a specified bus terminal and take a public bus to Kanchanaburi. Private: Search the surrounding neighbourhood (within a set area) for a car with a specified number plate, then ride in it to Kanchanaburi bus terminal. The end of the task is edited out; teams are instead shown finishing at the site of the next task even though they all arrive in other forms of transportation.
arus0109rb	Along Came a Tiger	Thailand	The one who does this should probably be a cat lover.: Dress as a Buddhist monk and walk across a pit filled with tigers to collect a clue before returning.
arus0110cc	The King Has Arrived	Thailand	"Check in with the King at Raile Beach."
arus0110dt	Hike or Climb	Thailand	Hike: Hike up a steep hill to reach a cliff-top cave with clues inside. Climb: Rock climb up the same cliff to reach the clue-filled cave. The implication is that it's a "fear of heights" versus "what are you, chicken?" task; in either case, teams must abseil down both this cliff and a second cliff to reach boats that will take them to the next destination, defeating the purpose.

arus0110rb	Two for the Price of One	Thailand	Upper body strength is the key to success.: Paddle a two-person kayak (with your partner and both your bags on board) downriver to a cave and search it for a clue with snorkelling gear for use in the next task. Teams must return the kayak at the end of the task; either player may paddle on the way back.
arus0110ri	Dive at Chicken Island	Thailand	Travel to Chicken Island and snorkel near a marked buoy to find one of several clues hidden underwater. Non-elimination leg; there is no penalty for the spared team.
arus0111dt	Volley or Rally	China	Volley: Travel to Chaoyangmen Community Centre and score five points playing table tennis against a local child champion. Only one player at a time competes; switching player is allowed. Rally: Take a Route 101 bus to Hu Jia Lou, then ride in a waiting motorcycle sidecar to Liu Jia Yao, then ride a waiting pedicab to Quan Xin Yuan restaurant.
arus0111ri	Mystery Shopper	China	Collect a shopping list from the entrance of Hongqiao Market, then buy the listed items (given only in Chinese, with quantities in English) from market stalls with the help of a translator. Items: One squid, two chicken feet, and five beetle larvae.
arus0111rb	Have Food Cooked. Eat it All.	China	Who's hungry?: Deliver the food purchased in the above task to a chef, wait for it to be cooked, then eat it all. First requires walking to a nearby dining hall.
arus0112ri1	Take Flight	China	Enter Tiantan Park and use a map to find a group of kite fliers, then pull down one of the kites to grab the attached clue.
arus0112dt	Steep or Flat	China	Steep: Climb up a steep section of the Great Wall to reach a pavilion, leaving your bags at the start. Flat: Hike along a longer, flatter section of the Great Wall to a different pavilion, carrying your bags. All three teams choose Steep; the pavilion used for Flat later reappeared as the first Pit Stop in season ten.
arus0112ri2	Experience Alaskan "Blanket Toss"	United States of America	One player stands on a blanket and jumps to search the surrounding area for a race flag marking the next clue, while a group of locals use the blanket to make them bounce as if on a trampoline. The flag is close enough that the blanket is just filler; still, the blanket tore as the first teams were attempting the task and an actual trampoline was used when the last placed team attempted the task the following day (having fallen so far behind due to missing a task's hours of operation).
arus0112rb	Climb Ice Wall	United States of America	This could be a slippery situation.: Use ice climbing gear to climb up Matanuska Glacier, collecting a clue from the top before abseiling back down. Non-elimination leg; there is no penalty for the spared team. (In theory; they're so far behind by the time they arrive that the leading teams are pretty much at the finish line before they leave the Pit Stop.)
arus0113dt	Dog Power or Horse Power	United States of America	Dog Power: Ride dog sleds along an eleven-mile course. Horse Power: Ride snowmobiles along a thirty-mile course.
arus0113rb	Plunge into Freezing Water	United States of America	[Hint not revealed]: Wearing only a swimsuit, completely submerge yourself in a hole cut out of a frozen lake, then collect a clue from the far end of the hole.

arus0201ri	Kiss Me Once	Brazil	Travel to Paqueta Island and kiss "Fat Maria".
arus0201dt	Mountain or Beach	Brazil	Mountain: Abseil 590 feet down Sugarloaf Mountain, one at a time. Beach: Take a gondola down Sugarloaf Mountain and travel to Ipanema Beach, then find the woman who inspired The Girl from Ipanema , using only a photo for assistance.

arus0202ri	Dancing Queen	Brazil	Travel to a “samba club” and find the dancer wearing a headdress made with feathers matching one given. Due to spoilers making the original planned location unsafe, the “samba club” is actually a dance school.
arus0202ff	Volleyball	Brazil	Travel to Copacabana Beach and score ten points playing beach volleyball against a pair of local professionals who will only use their feet.
arus0202dt	Freak Out or Seek Out	Brazil	Freak Out: Paraglide in tandem with professionals to Sao Conrado Beach, one at a time. Seek Out: Travel by taxi to Sao Conrado Beach, then use a metal detector to find a clue buried somewhere in a 1.5-mile-long section of beach.
arus0202rb	Direct Speedboat Through Rapids and Spot Flag	Brazil	That person should have keen eyes and a good sense of direction.: Use a map to direct a speedboat driver towards Iguacu Falls, find a race flag at a lookout point, and climb it to collect the cluebox before navigating back.
arus0203ri	Prison Break	South Africa	Upon landing in Cape Town, find Nelson Mandela's former jail cell, then search it for a hidden clue.
arus0203dt	Dance or Deliver	South Africa	Dance: Perform with a gumboot dancing troupe, mimicking their dance moves and earning 25 Rand in tips. Collecting tips is only allowed at the end of a song. Deliver: Transport 125kg of fish from a boat to scales at the far end of a dock.
arus0203rb	Find Ndaba Sangoma, Drink Potion	South Africa	That person should have a strong sense of direction and a strong stomach: Buy a roasted sheep head and a box of epsom salts from local vendors, take them to a sangoma and present the sheep head as an offering, then drink a bitter potion made with the epsom salts.
arus0204ri1	Locate Vehicle in Nearby Parking Lot	Namibia	From the top of Swakopmund Lighthouse, scan the surrounding area for a fleet of cars, then proceed to them on foot.
arus0204ff	Literal Train of Thought	Namibia	“Find the spot where the train tracks used to be.” The clue refers to a hotel using an old train station building, and the clue is literally where the tracks ran: in the middle of the pool.
arus0204dt	Slide or Stride	Namibia	Slide: Ride sandboards down the steep side of the Matterhorn Sand Dune. Stride: Hike down the flatter side of the Matterhorn Sand Dune.
arus0204ri2	It's in the Cards	Namibia	Travel to Spitzkoppe General Dealer and ask for the “postcard of the day”.
arus0204rb	Negotiate for Five Woodcarvings	Namibia	That person should know his animals.: Bargain with market vendors to buy woodcarvings of Africa's Big Five animals using whatever money you have in your possession. After collecting an elephant, lion, rhinoceros, buffalo, and leopard, the clue given is tied to a large wooden giraffe carving, which must be taken to the Pit Stop.
arus0205dt	Confusion Now or Confusion Later	Thailand	Confusion Now: Walk to a ferry dock, take a ferry to a bird market, then find a sparrow vendor and release a cage of sparrows. Confusion Later: Travel to Chinatown and buy a (paper) car, then take it to Li Thi Miew Shrine and burn it. Both tasks are traditional good luck rituals. (Essentially it's the same “get to a hard-to-find location and do something easy or go somewhere easy to find and do something hard” Detour seen several times last season, so why this one is more confusing than usual is unknown.)
arus0205rb	Find Clue in Cave	Thailand	That person should be comfortable in a crowd.: Put on protective gear and collect a clue from a cluebox in a dark, bat-filled cave.
arus0206dt	Boat or Beast	Thailand	Boat: Paddle a bamboo raft 1.5 miles downriver, using only a pole for assistance. Beast: Ride an elephant 1.5 miles down the riverbank. arus0206rb	Wash Markings off Elephant	Thailand	That person should enjoy getting wet.: Wade into a lake and wash a series of ceremonial chalk markings off of an elephant. Non-elimination leg; there is no penalty for the spared team.
arus0207cc1	Sky High	China	Upon landing in Hong Kong, travel to the top floor of the city's tallest building. Not only did teams not go to the top floor (they instead went to an observation deck about halfway up), they weren't even in the right building.

arus0207ff	The Library is Open	China	Travel to Wong Tai Sin Temple and find Amelia Chow, then have one player get a face reading and the other get a palm reading.
arus0207cc2	Star Search	China	Use binoculars to search the Hong Kong skyline for the “green and white star”.
arus0207dt	Wishing Tree or Herbal Tea	China	Wishing Tree: Travel 18 miles to Lam Tsuen Wishing Tree, then write a wish on a scroll each and throw it into the tree. Herbal Tea: Walk 2km to Sang Sang Medicine Hall and each drink a “foul-tasting” herbal tea.
arus0207rb	Use Crane to Move Container off of Truck	China	That person should have steady hands, even high above the ground.: Climb to the cabin of a container crane, lift a container from a truck below, wait for the truck to move and lower the container to the ground, then reset the crane. Crotch cam optional.
arus0208ff	Stairway to Heaven	China	Travel to the Po Lin Monastery, then climb up an outdoor staircase to reach the largest Buddha statue in Hong Kong. Presented as a plot point but not claimed.
arus0208dt	Dragon or Lion	China	Dragon: Working alone, paddle a twelve-person dragon boat around a 600m course. Lion: Put on a two-person lion dancing costume then walk along a 2.4km street course.
arus0208rb	Slanging Match	Australia	That person should speak good Australian.: Treasure hunt. Take a bus to Martin Place and walk back to the Sydney Opera House, collecting clues from locals at various landmarks while using only clues written in local slang to identify them. Rather than have a single graphic explaining the task, each slang clue is shown in its own graphic. “The Road Block is not over until you have successfully completed each part and received a clue specifically telling you to return to your partner.” What's so hard? Non-elimination leg; there is no penalty for the spared team.
arus0209ff	Find Harry's Cafe	Australia	Travel to Harry's Cafe de Wheels in Woolloomooloo and each eat a meat pie.
arus0209ri	A Bridge too Far	Australia	Climb the Sydney Harbour Bridge. Phil explains the task as though teams have to find a clue; for safety reasons they are shown a copy of it when they reach the top and get a physical copy once they return to the ground.
arus0209dt	Cool Down or Heat Up	Australia	Cool Down: Drive to the Opal Quest mine, enter an underground cavern, find one of several opals hidden in a large pile of dirt, then bring it to the surface. Heat Up: Drive to Coober Pedy Golf Club and complete any three holes on the course, alternating shots.
arus0209rb	Boomerang Throw	Australia	[Hint not revealed]: Throw a boomerang so that it leaves a throwing circle before returning and landing inside it.
arus0210ff	Shore Thing	New Zealand	Travel to Shotover Jet Boats and ride in a jetboat along the Shotover River to find a race flag somewhere along the riverbed.
arus0210dt	Quick Jump or Long Hike	New Zealand	Quick Jump: Bungy jump in tandem 450 feet from the Nevis Platform. Long Hike: Ride a gondola from the Nevis Platform back to steady ground, then hike to the base of the valley below. Behind the scenes information suggests the bungy task was originally planned so that one team member would be blindfolded as they jumped; for whatever reason (probably safety concerns), this didn't wind up happening. There were four teams left in this episode, and even then one took the Fast Forward. So... why were there six clue envelopes laid out?
arus0210rb	Separate Three Black Sheep into Small Pen	New Zealand	That person should be ready for a wild and woolly time.: Enter a corral filled with nineteen white sheep and three black sheep, then herd the black sheep into a smaller adjoining corral any (safe) way necessary. Once done, both partners can check in at the adjacent Pit Stop. Non-elimination leg; there is no penalty for the spared team.

arus0211ri	Late Welcome	New Zealand	Drive across New Zealand to the Maōri Arts and Crafts Institute in Rotorua, then participate in a traditional Maōri welcoming ceremony.
arus0211ff	Volcano Scree Run	New Zealand	Drive to the summit of Mount Tarawera and hike down a trail made of loose rocks into the dormant volcano's crater.
arus0211dt	Drop or Climb	New Zealand	Drop: Free rappel 350 feet to the base of the Lost World cave one at a time, then walk to a nearby rock. Climb: Climb down a 100-foot ladder into a different part of the Lost World cave, then hike a longer distance to the same rock.
arus0211rb	ATV Trail Ride	New Zealand	That person should be a rough rider.: Drive an ATV along an off-road course to a beach, then collect a clue from a cluebox in the shallow water before returning.
arus0212cc	Father Figure	New Zealand	"Sir John Logan Campbell is known as the Father of Auckland. Find him and you'll find your next clue."
arus0212dt	Bike or Walk	United States of America	Bike: Search a pineapple field on bikes for the only red plastic pineapple. Walk: Search a pineapple field on foot for one of four yellow plastic pineapples. What's to stop you from taking bikes, riding until you find a yellow pineapple, and immediately switching tasks?
arus0212rb	Find Clue Sealed in Underwater Case	United States of America	Sink or swim?: Using a snorkel for assistance, swim to a buoy and dive down to find one of three submerged cases, then unbuckle a series of straps holding it closed to release the clue from inside. Non-elimination leg; there is no penalty for the spared team.
arus0213ri1	Spend Night in Igloo	United States of America	Spend a night camping in an igloo, then put on snowshoes and hike down a trail to the cluebox.
arus0213ri2	Drive Snow Cat Across Frozen Lake	United States of America	Exactly what the title says: Drive a Snow Cat across a frozen lake to the next clue. The clue reading is noticeably absent from the start of this task; given the lack of a Detour in this leg otherwise the decision was probably edited out when teams all chose the same task. (One of the players has also since reported a task with sled dogs was edited out for unrelated reasons.)
arus0213ri3	Tools Ahead	United States of America	Drive to Homesteader's in Big Lake and collect a set of assorted hardware items for use in the next task.
arus0213rb	Retrieve Clue from Inside Ice Globe	United States of America	That person should be able to chip away at a challenge.: Use any or all of the tools collected in the previous task (including a hammer, chisel, saw, blowtorch, and an ice drill) to collect a clue frozen inside a globe ice sculpture.
arus0213cc	A Game of Numbers	United States of America	Upon landing in Oakland, travel across the Golden Gate Bridge to San Francisco, then find Landmark #97.

Season Three

arus0301cc	Find Pablo	Mexico	"There are 21,000,000 people in Mexico City but you need to find only one. His name is Pablo and we've enclosed his picture. Happy hunting!"
arus0301ff	Find Street Typist	Mexico	Travel to Santo Domingo Plaza and work out which of the plaza's street typists has a "special message": the Fast Forward.
arus0301dt	Wings or Wheels	Mexico	Wings: Skydive in tandem with jumpmasters from 11,000 feet. Wheels: Use only a pictographic map to navigate a donkey cart driver (who speaks no English) along a set seven-mile course. None of the five teams who complete Wheels are shown finishing. (With the time it would have taken to get a safety briefing and climb to altitude, it wouldn't surprise me if Wheels was actually faster.)
arus0302ff	Voladores	Mexico	Drive to the Museum of Anthropology in Mexico City and find the Voladores of Papantla, then perform a traditional aerial stunt with the performers.
arus0302dt	Man Power or Horse Power	Mexico	Man Power: Paddle a two-person kayak around a small mangrove lagoon to find a clue hanging from the mangroves. Horse Power: Use a jetski to find a clue on a buoy somewhere within a seven-square-mile lagoon. This is the only Detour ever in which teams get a visual aid to help them decide.

arus0302rb	Find Clue in Dolphin Lagoon	Mexico	That person should be ready for the swim of a lifetime.: Enter a dolphin-filled lagoon and use a snorkel to find one of several clues hidden on the lagoon floor.
arus0303ff	Tank Obstacle Course	England	Travel to Duxford Imperial War Museum in Cambridge and drive an army tank around a figure-eight course within 90 seconds, with one partner steering and the other navigating. The winners are given a limousine ride to the Pit Stop to celebrate. (However, it seems likely they later switched to a regular car.)
arus0303dt	Punt or Bike	England	Punt: Punt one mile downriver to Magdalen Bridge, with one player using a pole and the other using a boat paddle. Bike: Ride a tandem bike along a six-mile course through the streets to Magdalen Bridge, using only race flags to navigate. For both tasks, the clues are dangling from the bridge by ropes; this seems to be solely to disadvantage anybody who chooses Bike.
arus0303rb	Highland Games	Scotland	That person should be feeling a bit gamey.: Complete three accuracy tests from the Highland Games – caber toss, hammer throw, and shotput. Each must be completed successfully before moving on.
arus0304ri	Bottle Feeders	Scotland	Walk to Stonehaven Harbour and find “a message in a bottle”. The “message in a bottle” is actually a message ON a bottle – the address of the next destination is printed on a mock wine label. “Walk to Stonehaven Harbour. It says walk. You can't go any other way.” The first non-clue racer line of the episode, and it's the best piece of foreshadowing in this show's entire history.
arus0304dt	Old School or New School	Portugal	Old School: Load a 90-pound barrel onto a boat, then help its oarsmen paddle across a river before delivering the barrel to a nearby restaurant. New School: Load nine crates of port wine bottles onto a ute and deliver three crates to each of three restaurants around Porto.
arus0304rb	Block One Penalty Kick	Portugal	That person should have long arms and fast feet.: Act as a soccer goalkeeper and block one penalty kick from a teenage player. Due to a train delay the task was held well after midnight; parent complaints about their children being kept up so late on a school night are the main reason Road Blocks started occasionally being held before Detours in legs from the next season onwards.
arus0305cc	Go West	Portugal	“Find the western-most point of continental Europe.”
arus0305dt	Ropes or Slopes	Portugal	Ropes: Ride a jeep to the Ursa Cliffs, then abseil 300 feet to the bottom, one at a time. Slopes: Hike down a series of sloping trails to the base of the Ursa Cliffs.
arus0305rb	Find Clue in Vats	Morocco	That person should have a keen sense of direction and a not-so-keen sense of smell.: Walk to Dar Dbagh tannery, then search 25 vats of “foul-smelling” leather dye to find a submerged clue. Players are not told only three vats have clues.
arus0306ff	Find Carpet with Fast Forward Emblem	Morocco	Upon arrival in Marrakech, travel to a specified carpet shop and search among hundreds of rugs piled in a marked area for the one with the Fast Forward clue symbol woven into its design.
arus0306dt	Now You See It or Now You Don't	Morocco	Now You See It: Ride horses to a nearby race flag, then dig in a marked area to find a tajine with a clue painted on it. Now You Don't: Drive an ATV along a marked course of unknown distance to reach a stone with a clue etched into it, then use crayons and paper to make a rubbing of it.
arus0306cc	Lost in Translation	Morocco	Work out where to go using only a clue where all but one word and the opening hours of the next destination are written in Arabic.
arus0306rb	Sell Five Bowls of Escargot	Morocco	[Hint not revealed]: Help a local food vendor set up a stall, then sell five bowls of snails for a price of five dirham each. Ladies and gentlemen, Flo's only Road Block.
arus0307ff	Surfer	Germany	Travel to the Eisbach River and find a man surfing on a standing wave, then get his attention any way necessary and meet up with him when he returns to land.

arus0307dt	Sled or Skate	Austria	Sled: Travel to the Olympic bobsled track and ride a bobsled down it with two professionals. There are only two sleds available; it takes about twenty minutes to return a bobsled to the top. Skate: Travel to the Olympic short-track speed skating rink and complete a four-man relay with two professionals. Usually it's clear why Detour tasks aren't used, but why on EARTH did nobody go speed skating? Especially with an opening-hours bunch, the teams at the back should have realised how far behind they'd be if they stayed at the sled track. arus0307rb	Descend from Gondola	Austria	That person should welcome the chance to dangle for a while.: Ride a gondola halfway up a hill, then step out and be lowered to the ground on a rescue cable before running back down the hill to the gondola station.
arus0308ri	Find Clue in a Haystack	Germany	Drive to Augustinerhof Farm and find a marked barn, then find one of several clues hidden inside a giant pile of loose hay.
arus0308dt	Count the Money or Run the Numbers	Switzerland	Count the Money: Count the Swiss currency in a goldfish bowl, then enter the six-digit total into an adjacent safe. Run the Numbers: Walk through Zurich with your backpacks to solve three simple puzzles at landmarks up to a mile away, getting a two-digit number at each, then return to the start and use the six digits to open a safe.
arus0308rb	Shoot Apple with Crossbow	Switzerland	That person should be ready to take a shot at success.: Use a crossbow to shoot an apple off a mannequin's head. Non-elimination leg; there is no penalty for the spared team. arus0309ri1	Ain't No Valley Low Enough	Switzerland	Travel to the Gletscherschlucht and hike down its boardwalks to the base of the glacial gorge, searching for "the keys to your next adventure".
arus0309ff	Wheel of Cheese	Switzerland	Drive to a cheese-making cabin near Kandersteg, then select cubes from a diced wheel of cheese and eat them until the Fast Forward clue hidden beneath it is completely uncovered. How would this have been handled if more than one team attempted the task? It's a moot point because only one team was still eligible to claim a Fast Forward, but still. arus0309dt	Extreme Swiss or Very Swiss	Switzerland	Extreme Swiss: Bungy jump 620 feet from the adjacent Red Bridge, one at a time. Very Swiss: Drive eight miles to a farm, then enter a paddock filled with 75 goats and collect one of several keys hanging from bells around their necks. After both tasks, teams get a product-placed phone and can make a call to their loved ones; however, they must finish the call before returning to their cars. arus0309rb	Assemble a Bike	Switzerland	That person should be a nuts-and-bolts kind of person.: Assemble a Swiss Army bike for use in the next task, using only a finished bike for reference.
arus0309ri2	Pedal Paddle	Switzerland	Ride the two bikes from the Road Block (your assembled bike, and the finished example) through the streets to Basset Marina, then take a paddleboat to the Pit Stop anchored on Lake Geneva. Non-elimination leg; there is no penalty for the spared team. arus0310cc1	Jet Flag	Switzerland	Work out the next destination country using only its national flag for assistance. The cryptic element probably would have been harder had they not chosen the country's most famous buildings as the next destination and mentioned them by name in the clue. And yet, only one out of five teams knew where the Petronas Towers were. arus0310ri	Take Picture	Malaysia	Have a local use a product-placed camera to photograph you with the Petronas Towers in the background, then walk to a photography store in a mall one mile away and print the photo. You can't spell "Malaysia" without "mall". Wait. No. Scratch that. arus0310cc2	Flower Power	Singapore	Upon arrival, travel to the National Orchid Garden and find "Margaret Thatcher". "Teams will need to figure out that Margaret Thatcher is an orchid." Also, that 2+2=5 and that we have always been at war with Eastasia. arus0310dt	Dry or Wet	Singapore	Dry: Drive to Choa Chu Kang and find an apartment building at a set address, then find “Singapore's #1 television star” in a specific apartment. All of the roads in the neighbourhood are named Choa Chu Kang, and the elevator will not stop on the right floor. Wet: Drive to Singapore Zoo, find the “mermaids” (manatees), and swim across their habitat to a cluebox. The “television star” is actually a sitcom character; the actor was nearly cast as a player on The Amazing Race Asia 4 but was cut at the last minute. Thank God. Due to spoilers making the planned Road Block unsafe to complete, a substitute Road Block was held that amounted to collecting a clue from the middle of a fountain. Given just how lame the replacement was, it's not surprising that it was shown as another “get clue, leave” destination without the task mentioned. arus0311dt	Easy Buy or Hard Sell	Vietnam	Easy Buy: Ride a sampan into the Cai Be floating markets and find the one boat selling water coconuts, then buy one for any price possible. Hard Sell: Carry a shoulderbasket of fruit through narrow market alleys, selling fruit for any price to earn a total of 40,000 dong. As the usual race flags are similar to the former South Vietnam's national flag, all route markers in Vietnam are yellow only. Replacing flags is standard in Vietnam on all versions (though here and The Amazing Race Asia 3 are the only times it is mentioned)... except for season 22, where the usual flag showed up at a Vietnam War memorial. arus0311rb	Ride Cyclo Bike	Vietnam	That person should have strong legs and a strong back.: Ride a cyclo along a marked course with your partner as a passenger, then walk to the Pit Stop adjacent to the end of the course. The issues teams had finding the task were a production error: the cluebox was at the wrong address. arus0312dt	Basket Boats or Basket Bikes	Vietnam	Basket Boats: Paddle a coracle each to a nearby island and collect a clue, then paddle back. Basket Bikes: Ride a bike loaded with dozens of shrimp baskets each to a cluebox one mile away. The clue (and therefore teams) calls the tasks Boats and Bikes. Behind the scenes information suggests getting local assistance with either was forbidden; all teams broke this rule and got penalties, which were not shown. A miscellaneous “get clue, leave” route marker at the Imperial City was shown as a “search the grounds” task, but teams were clearly told where to go. arus0312rb	Raise Fishing Net	Vietnam	That person should be fishing for a clue.: Use a manual winch to raise a giant fishing net from the water, allowing your partner to collect a clue from it. First requires travelling to a nearby fishing platform. Non-elimination leg; there is no penalty for the spared team.

arus0313ri	The Big Et Cetera	United States of America	Upon landing in Honolulu, drive to Puaena Point and get a traditional blessing from a kahuna. arus0313dt	Quick Drop or Slow Walk	United States of America	Quick Drop: Ride a tandem zipline into a pond 160 feet below, then swim to the edge and walk a short distance to a cluebox behind Wailua Falls. Slow Walk: Hike down a marked, uneven path to the base of Wailua Falls to collect the clue. Flo's “not a choice?!” meltdown makes more sense when you realise there really wasn't one – spoilers resulted in the cluebox being moved, and the new location made it impossible to complete Slow Walk.
arus0313rb	Spin Animal Faces	United States of America	That person should have a good memory.: Spin five rotating rings on a mock totem pole so that the carved animal faces above a slot display the animals used in tasks during the season in the order they appeared. Yes, fans who keep asking for animals to be an end-of-season memory task. Not only has it been done before, it was the very first one.

arus0401ri	Ca Planter Pour Moi	Italy	Search Galleria Vittorio Emmanuele II for one of three hidden boxes containing tickets on charter buses at unknown times. Each box has a limited ticket supply for the same departure time and is hidden near a planter or ashtray; once tickets are taken they cannot be exchanged.
arus0401ff	Snowshoe Hike	Italy	Travel to Passo Giau, find a marked snowhill, and hike up it wearing snowshoes.
arus0401dt	Search or Rescue	Italy	Search: Use an avalanche beacon to find a set of snowmobile keys buried in a 160-acre snowfield, then drive it to the cluebox. Rescue: Cross a cable bridge between two cliffs, then ride a zipline 250 feet to the ground and walk to the cluebox. Only one player on the bridge and one on the zipline at a time. Despite the rule, one player got stuck climbing up off the bridge that the player behind them was sent forward to help push them up.
arus0402ri	Snow Way	Italy	Travel to the base of the Cortina D'Ampezzo Olympic ski jump and ride a van to the top, then slide back down the hill in an inflatable raft. First come first served.
arus0402ff	Join the Commedia Dell'Arte	Italy	Walk to a plaza near the Rialto Bridge and join a group of travelling performers in a street theatre skit, taking part until the Fast Forward clue appears as a prop. Though the Fast Forward is offered at the same time as the Detour below, it isn't attempted until after it, when all eleven teams are bunched waiting for the Road Block to open.
arus0402dt	Waterway or Pathway	Italy	Waterway: Navigate a gondolier through Venice's canals to Campo Querini, using only a provided map. Pathway: Travel on foot through Venice's alleys to Campo Querini, without a map but with the ability to ask locals for assistance.
arus0402rb	Match the Mask to the Photo	Italy	[Hint not revealed]: Take one of four photographs from a doorman and enter a masquerade ball, searching in dim lighting for the guest wearing the mask shown. Only four players allowed in at a time; pick the wrong guess and return to the back of the line.
arus0403ri	Go Fiacre Yourself	Austria	Part 1: Upon arrival in Vienna, travel to a specified intersection and walk along a marked path through the sewers to an exit point. Part 2: Claim a fiacre (horse-drawn cart) and ride to the next destination. Fiacres arrive in three groups in half-hour intervals; pull the ticket from a fiacre's door to claim it.
arus0403ff	Carry Glasses Across Dance Floor	Austria	Upon arrival at Schonbrunn Palace, find a marked ballroom and each carry a tray loaded with full champagne glasses across a dance floor filled with waltzing couples without spilling anything. The clue was given at the end of the sewers, even though if a team wanted to claim it they'd still have to take the fiacre to Schonbrunn Palace.
arus0403dt	Mozart or Beethoven	Austria	Mozart: Deliver a bass fiddle to the well-known house where Mozart wrote The Marriage of Figaro , six miles away. Beethoven: Deliver a portfolio of sheet music to a lesser-known house (among five residences in Vienna) where Beethoven wrote The Heiligenstadt Testament , eleven miles away.
arus0403rb	Bungy Jump off of Danube Tower	Austria	Which of you doesn't mind hanging from their ankles?: Bungy jump 460 feet from the Donauturm.
arus0404rb	That Other Amazing Race	France	The person who performs this task will need to fit into a tight space.: Roll four tyres from their starting points to a waiting race car, change the tyres, then ride in the car as a driver completes one lap of the Le Mans race track. This is the first time a Road Block appeared in a leg before a Detour; attention isn't really drawn to the fact (though it is mentioned), and yet it's easily the most successful twist in the show's history.
arus0404ff	Assemble Painting to form Chateau des Alpilles	France	Drive to the Musee des Tapisseries and assemble a pile of twenty giant puzzle tiles on a wall to form an image of the Pit Stop without any reference. As the team who tried the task decided to do it after getting lost finding the Detour, the task was revealed as others were already headed to the Pit Stop.

arus0404dt	Ropes or Slopes	France	Ropes: Abseil 230 feet down a cliff, one at a time. Slopes: Hike down a trail to the base of the same cliff. One team completes Ropes, misses the cluebox at the bottom and continues hiking farther down the trail than intended, decides to hike back to the top, misses the cluebox again on the way, then essentially completes Slopes as well. And still? Not the biggest mistake they make during the race. Oh? You thought the haybale thing was the first time they shamelessly recycled a task? Not even close, dear. Was southern France that hard up for task ideas? arus0405ff	Ride Molen Van Sloten Windmill	Netherlands	Travel to the Van Sloten windmill in North Amsterdam, then each get strapped to one of its sails and ride it as it spins for ten full revolutions. Oddly, the show repeatedly calls the country "Holland" in this episode. It's a bad enough mistake at the best of times, but one of the show's creators is Dutch. arus0405dt	500 Kilograms or 15 Feet	Netherlands	500 Kilograms: Drive to an outdoor market 30 miles away, then put on clogs and use a two-person carrier to transport exactly 500kg of cheese from one end of the market to a set of scales at the other. 15 Feet: Drive to a farm twelve miles away and search barehanded for one of several clues hidden inside a fifteen-foot-tall pile of cow manure. arus0405rb	The Big Squeeze	Netherlands	Which one of you has a firm grip and likes seafood?: Use only your hands to transfer 25 live eels from a boat deck into an adjacent storage container.
arus0406ri	Production Cycle	India	Ride bikes across the Film City studio complex to find Studio 10, then find a clue hidden somewhere on a Bollywood film set as a dance routine takes place. arus0406dt	Suds or Duds	India	Suds: Travel to an outdoor laundromat and choose a marked bag of laundry, then wash it by hand to find the garment with a clue written on it. Duds: Travel to P. Amarlal sari shop and search the stock for one of several saris with a clue printed on it. For both tasks, teams can only travel on foot or by public transportation. This is the only time we get a recap explaining which teams are doing each task. (It would have been more necessary had more than one team picked Duds.)
arus0406rb	Find 20 Palai Fish in Fish Market	India	Who feels like the catch of the day?: Memorise a specific local fish (palai), carry a large basket through a fish market to a marked vendor and find twenty matching fish, then carry them back to the starting point.
arus0407ri	Give Me a Sign	India	Upon arrival at Ernakulam Junction, travel south along Highway 47 and search the roadside for a marked billboard. arus0407rb	Bull Racing	India	Who can put up with a lot of bull?: Hold onto a towrope as a pair of bulls drag you along a muddy track the length of a football field. Fail and return to the back of the line. What Phil doesn't mention is that while bull racing is indeed a sport invented over a hundred years ago, no woman had ever competed in it until this task. Even then, both co-ed teams left in the race had the male do the Road Block. arus0407dt	Baskets or Trunks	India	Baskets: Catch ten live chickens in a pen and load them into baskets on the back of a flatbed tricycle, then use only a simple map provided to deliver them to a nearby farm. Trunks: Load two bundles of coir onto an elephant, then climb on and ride it through the streets to a fabric store. arus0408ri	Bless is More	Malaysia	Upon arrival in Kota Kinabalu, travel to Monsopiad Cultural Village and receive a traditional blessing for good luck. arus0408dt	Net or Trap	Malaysia	Net: Travel to a fishing platform and use butterfly nets to catch fifteen fish in a small breeding pen, storing them in an adjacent basket. Trap: Travel to a group of lobster boats, board one, and haul up a weighted lobster trap. arus0408rb	Hit Three Targets	Malaysia	Who's skills are the most on target?: Hit targets at three stations using different traditional weapons – bow and arrow, blowpipe, and spear. Succeed at each before moving on; after hitting the third target, run to the adjacent Pit Stop. Non-elimination leg; there is no penalty for the spared team.

arus0409ff	Feed Fruit to the Wild Orangutan	Malaysia	Drive to Sepilok Orangutan Sanctuary and collect four pieces of fruit, then carry them down a trail to a feeding station and feed them to wild orangutans.
arus0409dt	Chop or Haul	Malaysia	Chop: Use traditional tools to chop down bunches of palm nuts with attached clue envelopes. Only one of every four clue envelopes has a clue inside. Haul: Use a wheelbarrow to transport 25 bunches of palm nuts to a waiting truck, then throw them over the side of the truck into the open-top trailer. I get that this is culturally relevant and all, but it's bizarre that this is a Detour in the same episode as a task involving orangutans, since harvesting palm oil is the reason orangutans are endangered in the first place.
arus0409rb	Rattan Ladder Climb	Malaysia	It's time for the ladder part of the race.: Climb 50 feet up a ladder to reach a second horizontal ladder, then crawl along it to the end and use the attached rope to pull up a basket with a clue inside.
arus0410ri	Search for Enlightenment	Malaysia	Drive to Puu Jih Shih Temple and search among thousands of miniature Buddha statues on several columns for one marked with your names, then take a key from behind it and unlock the next clue.
arus0410rb	Swim Under the Ice	South Korea	Which of you has the colder personality?: Strip to your underwear, jump into a hole carved into a frozen river, then swim under the ice to an exit hole a short distance away before warming back up to your usual body temperature.
arus0410dt	Strong Hands or Strong Stomach	South Korea	Strong Hands: Walk to a nearby martial arts school and learn a short series of taekwondo moves, then punch through three stacks of boards each. Strong Stomach: Walk to a nearby restaurant and each eat a serving of an unknown local delicacy – chopped live octopus. Non-elimination leg; there is no penalty for the spared team.
arus0411ri	Night Kite Flight	South Korea	Travel to Hangang Park and find a marked table with a flying kite attached, then pull on the string until a clue attached to the kite is released.
arus0411ff	Australian Surf Rescue	Australia	Travel to Caloundra Beach and paddle a lifeguard rescue board each to a buoy, load a waiting “victim” onto the boards, and bring her back to shore. With three of the four remaining teams having not claimed a Fast Forward so far, even though more were taken this season than ever (seven, compared to six in season two and five in seasons one and three), this is the first time a team has reached the finale without claiming one.
arus0411dt	Face First or Foot First	Australia	Face First: Abseil face-first 200 feet down the side of a hotel, one at a time. Foot First: Scan the surrounding skyline for a building with a race flag on it, then walk down twenty flights of stairs back to ground level, across to the building, and up thirty flights of stairs to its rooftop. Why is one swear word muted and another just two lines later bleeped?
arus0411rb	Find Underwater Treasure Chest	Australia	Just when you thought it was safe to go back in the water...: SCUBA dive in an aquarium tank to collect a clue from a treasure chest on the tank floor.
arus0412ri1	Baa Humbug	Australia	Drive to the Australian Woolshed in Ferny Hills and search a giant pile of wool for a hidden clue. Each team has a different pile to search.
arus0412ri2	Proceed to Croc Pen and Feed Sultan	Australia	Take a product-placed camera across Wild World Zoo to a crocodile enclosure, have one player feed Sultan the crocodile while the other takes a photo, then walk to the zoo's gift shop and print the photo. Idiot-proof photograph printing device, meet idiot. More than one of you is going to come out looking substantially less clever than you did five minutes ago.
arus0412dt	Saddle or Paddle	Australia	Saddle: Ride horses along a 1.5-mile stretch of beach to find any of four race flags, then get off and search within 25 feet of the flag for a set of clue envelopes. Only one of the four sets contains correct clues. Paddle: Use a handpump to blow up an inflatable two-person kayak, then paddle to a buoy.
arus0412rb	Drive Race Buggy	Australia	Who's up for a wild ride?: Drive a race buggy along a seven-mile off-road course. Non-elimination leg; there is no penalty for the spared team.

arus0413ri	Hello Goodbye	Australia	Drive to Tjapukai Aboriginal Cultural Park and participate in a traditional welcoming ceremony.
arus0413dt	Wing It or Wander It	Australia	Wing It: Skydive in tandem with jumpmasters from 10,000 feet. Wander It: Drive to a mangrove forest, search the boardwalks for a dock, then drive a motorboat out of the forest and to the skydive landing site. Gee, I wonder which one they wanted teams to pick. Do you think putting the cluebox at the airport gave teams a hint about which task would be better?
arus0413rb	Retrieve Rock from Ocean Floor	United States of America	Who is a strong swimmer and good with a hammer?: Swim to a tiki head buoy, dive down to collect a rock from the seafloor, bring it back to shore any way necessary, then use a hammer and chisel to release a clue from inside.
arus0413cc	Solve Stadium Riddle	United States of America	“Happy Valentine's Day + White + White.” More specifically, translate each part of the riddle into a number, then use them to find a specific section, row, and seat in Sun Devil Stadium where the final clue is waiting. The first part isn't just a cryptic way to get the number 214: it's an in-joke about the task being filmed on Valentine's Day.

arus0501ri1	Log Off	Uruguay	Search among almost 100 trees in a marked area for clue envelopes marked with times representing morning ferry departures. There are three different times available; once a team pulls off a time marker they cannot switch.
arus0501ri2	Where's the Beef?	Uruguay	Carry a 55-pound side of beef half a mile through the streets to La Rosada Carniceria. (This task has a Yield attached.) The route appears to be a fairly straight line; the Yield appears halfway along said route rather than at the start of the task. (This season the Yield appears in each of the first eleven legs, replacing the Fast Forward as an optional power; as it is only used once – at the very last chance – it is usually edited out and from next season it is cut to a limited number as the Fast Forward was this season.
arus0501dt	Zips or Chips	Uruguay	Zips: Travel to a casino rooftop and use a pulley to haul yourself across a cable between two wings, then ride a zipline into the pool eighteen floors below. Both parts are one player at a time. Chips: Enter the casino and find a marked table, then use 20 chips to play roulette, putting up to five chips on different numbers. Win and get the clue; run out of chips and you must switch. The greeter for this leg is Miss Uruguay Natalia Rodriguez Lassiy.
arus0502ri	Shake; Your Booty	Uruguay	Drive to Shake Mega Disco in Montevideo and search the crowded dance floor for an inflatable globe containing a clue while foam rains down from above. Not every globe contains a clue.
arus0502cc	Don't Lie to Me Argentina	Argentina	Find Eva Peron's grave. The clue – and Phil – mistakenly call her Evita Peron. Evita was just a nickname.
arus0502dt	Perro or Tango	Argentina	Perro: Walk eight dogs along a one-mile course to La Flor, using only a map to navigate. Cards with Spanish dog training commands must be collected from three checkpoints along the way. Tango: Travel to a theatre a mile and a half away, collect a program, then find the pictured man amongst a group of dancers performing the tango on stage. Fail and get a new picture before trying again.
arus0502rb	Ribbon Roping	Argentina	The person who performs this task should have quick hands and quick feet.: Enter a cattle corral and remove a bandana from around the neck of a calf. No tackling the calves. Yes. You might have to stick your hand in a cow's ass, Charla and Mirna . Why the hell would that even be in your top twenty guesses, let alone first?
arus0503rb	Find White Chocolate Centre	Argentina	That person should have a sweet tooth.: Search among nearly 11,000 pieces of chocolate for one of twenty with a white nougat centre. You must bite them one at a time, but do not have to eat any.

arus0503dt	Smooth Sailing or Rough Riding	Argentina	Smooth Sailing: Paraglide in tandem with professionals from 5000 feet. Rough Riding: Ride mountain bikes along a six-mile offroad course to the paraglide landing site.
arus0504dt	Block 5 Shots or Drink 1 Shot	Russia	Block 5 Shots: Travel to a nearby ice hockey rink and defend a goal net together against five slap shots from local players. Drink 1 Shot: Travel to Anichkov Palace and each balance a shotglass of vodka on a sabre, then drink it without dropping or touching the glass.
arus0504rb	Eat Caviar	Russia	Who's got a taste for the good life?: Eat one kilogram of Russian caviar.
arus0505ri	One in Three Million	Russia	Travel to the Hermitage and find Rembrandt's Return of the Prodigal Son .
arus0505ff	Carry Sarcophagus to Temple	Egypt	Travel to the Dr. Ragab Pharaonic Village and collect a sarcophagus from outside the entrance, then carry it across the village to a priest. From this season on (and continuing into all other franchises), Fast Forwards are limited to select legs rather than being omnipresent. The same rules apply regarding its usage, essentially changing it from a potential saving grace for a trailing team to an automatic lead extender for a leading team. However, the tasks are now usually more extreme than usual to make up for this failing.
arus0505rb	Climb Down Osiris Shaft	Egypt	Who's up for going down?: Climb down a series of ladders to a chamber 140 feet beneath the Pyramids, collect a satchel of puzzle pieces from a pool, then bring them back up the ladders to the surface.
arus0505cc	Rock Around the Block	Egypt	Assemble the puzzle pieces from your satchel over an outline on a provided map, leaving a small hole representing the next destination.
arus0505dt	Rock & Roll or Hump & Ride	Egypt	Rock & Roll: Use three logs as rollers to transport a sled loaded with 600 pounds of rocks across a 100-yard clearing. Hump & Ride: Riding horses, lead two camels loaded with carpets along a one-mile course. Non-elimination; the spared team has their savings confiscated and will not get any at the start of the next leg.
arus0506dt	Herd It or Haul It	Egypt	Herd It: Travel five miles to Banana Island and load ten waiting sheep onto a waiting boat, then sail across the Nile to deliver them to a shepherd. Haul It: Travel three miles to Pigeon House Farm and fill an urn with water from the Nile, then deliver it to a farmhouse with one player holding it while riding a donkey and the other leading it, repeating until a larger urn is full.
arus0506rb	Dig for Stone Scarab	Egypt	This task requires and a lot of patience.: Use any or all of the provided archaeology tools to find a stone scarab buried somewhere in a marked plot of sand. Each player has a different plot.
arus0507dt	Buzzing or Busy	Tanzania	Buzzing: Ride a tandem bike to a honey farm, then harvest two kilograms of honey from hives. Busy: Walk to Katongo Furniture, load two chairs onto a cart, then deliver them through the streets to a specific address before returning. The leg starts with teams flying to Nairobi and finding a charter airline in the airport terminal; despite being a forced part of the route, Kenya is not included as a visited country at the end of the season the way Spain was in season three. (More surprising? Kenya hasn't ever been visited otherwise.)
arus0507rb	Eat an Ostrich Egg	Tanzania	Who's really hungry?: Crack open an ostrich egg and fill a bowl with its contents, then cook it and eat it all.
arus0507ri	On the Line	Tanzania	Walk to the edge of a gorge and ride a tandem zipline across the 230ft-deep valley to the Pit Stop on the other side. There's literally no reason for this other than continuing the running joke so far of having teams reach each Pit Stop in a different way – taxi in Leg 1, horse cart in Leg 2, self-driving in Leg 3, carriage in Leg 4, walking in Leg 5, water taxi in Leg 6, then a zipline in Leg 7 and camels in Leg 8. (After Leg 8, however, the only new form of transport is kayaks in Leg 12. Way to continue a theme, guys.)
arus0508dt	Off Plane or Off Road	United Arab Emirates	Off Plane: Travel to Umm al-Quwain Aeroclub and skydive in tandem with jumpmasters from 10,000 feet. One team at a time; 45 minutes between flights. Off Road: Travel to the Margham Red Dunes and drive an off-road vehicle along a six mile course to the skydive landing site.

arus0509ri	My Humps	United Arab Emirates	Board a camel and use a GPS to navigate its handler to lead you to the Pit Stop. Non-elimination; the spared team has their savings confiscated and will not get any at the start of the next leg. Wondering why the leg is so empty? It was a replacement leg after Istanbul became unsafe during filming of the Russia leg... and then the Road Block was edited out anyway, with a veiled reference to it existing made in the next leg. arus0509ri	Sliders	United Arab Emirates	Ride the Jumeirah Sceirah waterslide, one at a time. Are waterslides a notably Emirati tradition? Because they've turned up so many times in the country and yet NEVER anywhere else. arus0509ff	Shave Heads	India	Travel to a Hindu temple seven miles away and complete an unknown ritual: having both your heads shaved. The location where the Fast Forward is given has a Yield in front of it; it is the only time a Yield appears at a cluebox not containing a Detour or a Road Block. (However, it has appeared mid-task three times, and the Israeli version's Must Vote Yields are revealed at the Pit Stops of their legs.)
arus0509rb	Make 20 Mud Bricks	India	Who's ready to get down and dirty?: Use mud and a traditional wooden mould to make twenty bricks. arus0509dt	Heavy but Short or Light but Long	India	Heavy but Short: Travel ten miles to a specific street in Landsdowne and select a marked taxi, then transport it half a mile to Panditji's Garage. Teams are not told the taxis have no motors. Light but Long: Travel to Mullickghat Flower Market and find a marked stall, collect a floral garland, then take it to the nearby Ganges River and release it for good luck. Non-elimination; the spared team has their savings confiscated and will not get any at the start of the next leg. arus0510dt	Clean or Dirty	New Zealand	Clean: Drive to Okere Falls and ride sledges down a one-mile whitewater course. Dirty: Drive to Hell's Gate and search a specified mud pool for one of several submerged clues. (This Detour has a Yield attached.) arus0510rb	Ride in Zorb	New Zealand	Who's ready for a wild ride?: Inflate a zorb, climb inside and roll down a hill, push it across a marked line, then climb out and walk to the adjacent Pit Stop. arus0511rb	Climb Auckland Harbour Bridge	New Zealand	The person who performs this task should have strong arms, strong legs, and no fear of heights.: Climb a 75-foot cable ladder to the girders beneath the Auckland Harbour Bridge, then walk across a girder to collect the clue before jumping off and being lowered back down. First requires travelling by boat to the waters directly beneath said bridge. arus0511ri	Pimp My Ride	Philippines	Use provided tools to attach a series of waiting decorations to a jeepney, which will then be used to travel to the next task. (This task has a Yield attached.) arus0511dt	Plow or Fowl	Philippines	Plow: Use an ox plow to till a muddy field, searching for one of several hidden ropes with clues attached. Fowl: Herd 1000 ducks from a pen on one side of a waterlogged field to a pen on the other side, 50 yards away. Not that "My ox is broken!" isn't an iconic moment or anything, but didn't we do "find a buried clue in this muddy area" in last week's Detour? Non-elimination; the spared team has their savings confiscated and will not get any at the start of the next leg. (The greeter for this leg is Luli Arroyo, daughter of then-President Gloria Arroyo.) arus0512ri1	Find Philippine Flag	Philippines	Use a pair of binoculars to find three nearby islands with large flags visible on their beaches, then direct your boat driver to the island with the flag of the Philippines. Travel time between islands after errors is about twenty minutes; no asking the boat driver for help. The wrong flags are those for the Czech Republic and Equatorial Guinea. (The former first appeared on this version exactly ten seasons later; the latter has yet to be visited.)

arus0512ri2	Clam Up	Philippines	Travel around the shoreline to a marked beach, then use snorkels to search in a set area of the water for one of four mock giant clams with clues inside.
arus0512rb	Ascend 150 Feet	Philippines	Have vertigo? Don't go.: Use an ascender to climb 150 feet up Lagen Wall, collect a clue, then free rappel back down to the platform at the bottom. This is the first time four teams have made it to Leg 12; as a result, it is the first time the leg ends in an elimination.
arus0513dt	Slide or Ride	Canada	Slide: Complete a two-man luge down the Calgary Olympic track in 34 seconds or less. Ride: Ride mountain bikes down a slalom course, both crossing the finish line at the bottom in three minutes or less.
arus0513ri	A Maze: In, Race	United States of America	Take a key from a board into a maze, find the box it opens and collect a photo from inside, then bring it back to the start before repeating the process. After three photos have been collected and returned, find and unlock a fourth box with another key inside, then return to the entrance and unlock the final clue. The photos represented places visited – the Hand in the Sand statue in Uruguay, the Great Pyramid in Egypt, and the Olympic Cauldron in Canada – yet the task is edited so teams are only shown collecting the cauldron photo before finding the key. (It's especially odd when insert shots show the task was always intended to be broadcast this way.)

Season Six

arus0601ri	An Ice Night	Iceland	Ride snowmobiles across a glacier to a campsite, then claim a departure time from one of the boards outside each tent. Four different departure times are available and are randomly distributed; once you take a time you cannot switch.
arus0601dt	Ice Climb or Ice Search	Iceland	Ice Climb: Drive 35 miles to a glacier and hike down a trail, then use picks to climb a steep ice wall, one at a time. Ice Search: Drive a much shorter distance to a glacial lagoon and navigate a boat driver around a seven-square-mile search area to find a buoy with clues attached.
arus0602rb	Ride Zip Line	Norway	Who's ready to perform an Olympian feat?: Climb the Holmenkollen ski jump tower, then ride a 1000-foot zipline back to the bottom. You know, the ancient Olympic sport of ziplining. (1 kid, mostly – the season has “the Olympics” as a recurring motif – but it is an odd hint. And ungrammatical.)
arus0602ri	Norse Race	Norway	Working as a group with four other teams, paddle a traditional viking longboat across a fjord to a finishing dock.
arus0602dt	Endurance or Accuracy	Norway	Endurance: Rollerski around a 1.75 mile course. Accuracy: Complete three Viking skill tests – throwing Kubb sticks to knock over eight smaller pegs before knocking over the king in the centre, throwing an axe into a log so it sticks, and hitting a target with a bow and arrow. Players alternate turns in the Kubb part, then one player performs the axe throw and the other does the archery.
arus0603ri1	Ice Ice Baby	Sweden	Slide a shotglass across the Icebar bar so that it stops on a small target circle. Only one partner needs to succeed; fail and return to the back of the line.
arus0603ri2	What's in Store	Sweden	Travel to the world's largest Ikea and search its aisles for a hidden cluebox.
arus0603dt	Count It or Build It	Sweden	Count It: Count the number of pots, pans, and plush toys in three storage bins. Guess wrongly and you must count again. Build It: Assemble a flatpack desk. Naturally, two teams have since reported their flatpack kits were missing pieces.
arus0603rb	Hay Bale Roll	Sweden	Who has hay fever?: Enter a field containing 270 haybales and unroll them one at a time to find one of twenty clues hidden inside selected haybales. (This task has a Yield attached.)
arus0604cc	Find Senghor's Grave	Senegal	Find out who wrote a provided poem called Femme Noir , then find his grave.
arus0604dt	Stack 'Em Up or Pull 'Em Up	Senegal	Stack 'Em Up: Carry baskets of fish to a nearby table and lay the fish out to cover the table's surface completely. Pull 'Em Up: Ride a boat to a fertile fishing area, then use traditional lines to catch four fish.

arus0604rb	Salt Harvest	Senegal	Who wants to bathe in rose water?: Wade to a group of boats in Lac Rose, then use traditional tools to harvest salt from the lake floor and bring it back to shore, pouring it into a 25-gallon bucket and repeating until the bucket is full. Non-elimination; the spared team has their savings confiscated and will not get any at the start of the next leg.
arus0605ri	Never Forget	Senegal	Enter the Slave House and briefly pay your respects before laying a rose as a memorial at the Gate of No Return.
arus0605dt	Beer or Brats	Germany	Beer: Travel to Brauhaus Spandau and search the bar tables for five coasters with your team photo on them, exchanging two full steins of beer for each. Brats: Travel to the Citadel and use a manual sausage maker to make a chain of five bratwurst links, each at least seven inches long.
arus0605rb	Soap Box Derby	Germany	Who feels the need for speed?: Hike up a hill and ride a soap box derby car back down, crossing the finish line within 37 seconds or less.
arus0606rb	Hot Rocket Bungy	Germany	Who's ready to be stretched to their limits?: Complete a reverse bungy jump, being flung nearly 200 feet into the air. It's noted in the episode that this Road Block is attempted only by women; this is the first of only four instances on this version where this is the case. (For the record, the others are the limbo task in season seven, the coffee bean task in season eight, and the airplane drop task in season 23.)
arus0606dt	Catapult Crash or Cannonball Run	Hungary	Catapult Crash: Use a trebuchet to hit a target 150 feet away with a watermelon. Cannonball Run: Push a cannon up a hill to a courtyard, then carry 55 four-pound cannonballs up the same hill and stack them in a five-level pyramid.
arus0606ri	See the Future	Hungary	Upon arrival back in Budapest, travel to Net Klub Internet Cafe and use provided login details to view a video clue. There is no Pit Stop for this leg; the episode ends with six teams waiting for the cafe to open and the seventh at the train station waiting for a morning train. (The twist was needed once producers realised begging – the usual way to deal with the non-elimination penalty – was illegal. Ironically, with an overnight hotel rest to pay for and no extra money, begging became MORE likely.)
arus0607ff	Drink Blood	Hungary	Travel to Budavari Labirintus and search it for a marked room, then complete a mystery task: drinking a goblet of pig blood each. No escaping the gross food challenge for you , contestants.
arus0607dt	Swim or Paddle	Hungary	Swim: Enter an adjacent swimming pool and score a goal playing water polo against a professional local player. Paddle: Walk to the shore, use a handpump to inflate a raft, then paddle across the Danube.
arus0607rb	Eat Spicy Soup	Hungary	Who's ready to spice up their life?: Eat a 24-ounce bowl of traditional but “extraordinarily spicy” Hungarian soup, using only a teaspoon.
arus0608cc	Find Napoleon's Birth House	France	Upon landing in Ajaccio, Corsica, find the house where Napoleon Bonaparte was born, then search for the exact room.
arus0608ff	Walk the Ocean Floor	France	Travel to Ajaccio Harbour and each use an antique diving suit to reach the Fast Forward clue inside a lobster trap on the seafloor a short distance from the dock. The winners are given a Cessna ride across Corsica to a town closer to the Pit Stop, then must drive the rest of the way.
arus0608dt	Climb Up or Fly Behind	France	Climb Up: Use an ascender to climb a 45-foot wall, collect a medal from a nearby terrace, then abseil 75 feet back down. Both the ascender and abseil are one at a time. Fly Behind: Travel to a set of 25 buoys in the water, with one player riding in a boat and the other toed behind on a raft, then search them for one of twelve clues beneath selected buoys.
arus0608rb	Stomp Grapes	France	Who's ready to have a barrel of fun?: Use your feet to crush grapes in a barrel so the juice flows out of a tap into a wine bottle, switching the bottles when full until five are filled, then drink a glass of juice. Non-elimination; the spared team has their savings confiscated and will not get any at the start of the next leg.

arus0609dt	Raise the Roof or Mud the Hut	Ethiopia	Raise the Roof: Work with seven locals to carry a thatched roof to a house two thirds of a mile away, then lift it into place and place a jug on top. Mud the Hut: Collect a load of mud plaster from a shallow pit, carry it to an adjacent house, and cover one wall with it, repeating the collection as many times as needed.
arus0609ri	Haul Ass	Ethiopia	Collect two donkeys from an adjacent farm and lead them on foot to a church shown in a provided photo. Learned: Correctly count the number of asses in your travelling party.
arus0609rb	Match Pendant	Ethiopia	Who has an eye for detail?: Follow a marked path into St. George's Church and get a cross necklace from the priest, then search 100 worshippers outside the building for the one wearing a matching cross. (This task has a Yield attached.) For unknown reasons, the usual Pit Stop mat is replaced by a grayscale local rug.
arus0610ri1	Run Relay Race	Ethiopia	Choose a pair of local runners and work with them to complete a 4x400m relay.
arus0610dt	Tree Trunks or Elephant Trunks	Sri Lanka	Tree Trunks: Travel to a coconut plantation, then climb a 50-foot tree, cross a two-rope traverse to collect a jug of sap, and return to the ground, one at a time. Elephant Trunks: Travel to an elephant polo field and each dribble a polo ball along one lap of the field and back to score a goal, one at a time.
arus0610ri2	Make an Offer	Sri Lanka	Upon arrival in Kandy, travel to the Kandyan Art Association and purchase an offering, then deliver it to a Buddhist monk at the adjacent Temple of the Tooth.
arus0610rb	Ascend Lion Rock	Sri Lanka	Who's got strong legs and keen eyes?: Climb up over 1000 stairs to the summit of Lion Rock, use binoculars to search the surrounding area for a giant race flag marking the Pit Stop, then walk back down to collect your partner before directing a tuktuk driver to the Pit Stop. The Pit Stop is at a hotel, next to the pool; for no reason beyond continuing the Olympic theme, teams must swim across the pool to the mat.
arus0611ri1	Around the Grounds	China	Upon arrival in Shanghai, travel to Yuyuan Gardens and search the grounds for a hidden cluebox.
arus0611rb	Wash Windows	China	Hua Xia Bank Tower is 40 storeys high... but someone has to wash it.: Lower yourself in a window-washing chair to a marked window, clean it with provided items to reveal a mystery word, then lower yourself to the ground. (This task has a Yield attached.) First requires travelling to said tower.
arus0611ri2	Master Find	China	Travel to the Monument to the People's Heroes, then find a group of tai chi performers and search among them for one of four "masters". Each master has only one clue.
arus0611dt	Bricks or Ice	China	Bricks: Use yokes to transport a total of 300 bricks from a docked barge to an nearby pallet. Ice: Load two 220-pound ice blocks onto a flatbed tricycle, deliver them to a stall at a fish market four blocks away, and break the blocks into smaller pieces for use. Non-elimination; the spared team has their savings confiscated and will not get any at the start of the next leg.
arus0612dt	Spray or Scroll	China	Spray: Travel to a car factory and use spray guns to completely cover the shell of a local car with paint. Scroll: Travel to a textile factory and use a light table to find two Chinese characters printed in different places on ten provided bolts of white fabric, then cut them out.
arus0612rb	Lock & Key	China	Which one of you is more methodical?: Find which lock among over 3000 can be opened with a provided key. Break the key and walk to a nearby hotel to collect a replacement before continuing. The task closes at 7pm; fail to find the lock by the time it does and you get a four-hour quitting penalty.
arus0613dt	Outfits or Outriggers	United States of America	Outfits: Drive ten miles to the Hilo Hattie clothing distributors, select a pair of mannequins, and find the matching shirt and dress on racks loaded with over 165,000 garments. Outriggers: Drive six miles to Lokahi Canoe Club and paddle an outrigger canoe two and a half miles down the Alu Wai canal.

arus0613rb	Skydive to Sandbar	United States of America	Who's ready for an ocean dive?: Skydive in tandem with a jumpmaster from over 11,000 feet, landing on a sandbar in Kaneohe Bay.
arus0613ri	The Last Cut is the Deepest	United States of America	Travel to Gino's East Pizzeria and each eat two slices of a deep-dish pizza. Yes. The last of what has otherwise been a very good set of tasks is eating pizza . And it's not even a big one.
arus0701ri1	High and Low	Peru	Travel to Playa Hermosa and dig in three giant sandpiles for sets of airline tickets leaving in the morning. Each pile represents a different time and has a limited number of tickets; no switching once you find a pair.
arus0701ri2	Zip Zag	Peru	Travel to the top of a nearby gorge, ride a zipline across to the other side, then ride a second zipline 1400 feet to the gorge's base. Both parts are one at a time.
arus0701dt	Rope a Llama or Rope a Basket	Peru	Rope a Llama: Use ropes to catch two llamas in a clearing, then lead them up a trail to a holding pen. Rope a Basket: Use ropes to pick up a basket filled with 35 pounds of alfalfa each, then carry them to a store two thirds of a mile away.
arus0701ri3	Truck Off	Peru	Travel to Pisac market, then search the stalls for a hidden cluebox. For whatever reason, the flag on the cluebox appears to be a different colour. (It may be related that this Pit Stop is the last with the race flag on the location sign: it is there when teams start Leg 2, but is gone by the time teams finish the leg.)
arus0702rb	Shine Shoes	Peru	Who loves shoes?: Take a portable shoeshine kit onto the streets and shine five pairs of shoes for a price of one sol each, then bring the kit back. The first five to finish receive tickets on an earlier flight to the next destination with the next clue; the last five to finish get tickets for a slower flight.
arus0702dt	Shop or Schlep	Chile	Shop: Travel to Donde Augusto restaurant and collect a list of five ingredients, then walk to Mercado Central and buy them all before returning. Schlep: Travel to a bookstore and load 180 books onto a delivery trolley, then deliver them to the Library of Congress eight blocks away.
arus0703dt	Paddle or Pedal	Argentina	Paddle: Whitewater raft down a seven-mile course. Pedal: Ride mountain bikes along a seven-mile course. (This Detour has a Yield attached.)
arus0703rb	Argentine Feast	Argentina	Who's not a vegetarian?: Eat a four-pound serve of traditional barbecued meats.
arus0704rb	Gaicho Challenge	Argentina	Who's ready to horse around?: Ride a horse slalom-style along a row of barrels, then gallop back to the start and use a stick to grab a hanging ring, finishing the course within 40 seconds.
arus0704dt	Shipwreck or Island	Argentina	Shipwreck: Find a particular shipwreck in a seven-square-mile boat graveyard, using only a 30-year-old photo of the pre-wreckage boat for reference. Island: Navigate a boat four miles through the San Antonio delta to an island shown on a provided map. So it's a choice between "tedious boat search" and "tedious boat search"? Worst. Detour. EVER. I wouldn't normally mention a "find the costumed cluegiver" non-task, but why does Buenos Aires have an English Clock Tower? Even if it was a gift, Falklands .
arus0705ff	Orlando Cooling Station	South Africa	Drive to Orlando Cooling Station and each walk across a narrow wooden bridge suspended from one side of a cooling tower to the other, 30 storeys high.
arus0705dt	Tunnels or Tribes	South Africa	Tunnels: Drive to Wild Caves and spelunk along a marked course to collect a hidden clue, then continue along the path to return to the surface. Tribes: Drive to Lesedi Cultural Village and select a set of six tribal items, then deliver five of them to the correct tribal camps around the village. Only one item can be carried at a time, and no hints are provided.
arus0705rb	Baragwanath Market	South Africa	Who likes to shop?: Purchase a provided list of supplies for a nearby orphanage from stalls in Baragwanath Market. Players are shown buying five items, but a close-up of the list says they need ten.

arus0705ri	Supply On Demand	South Africa	Deliver the items bought in the Road Block to the Orlando Children's Home. Non-elimination; the spared team has their savings and possessions (all except clothes worn upon Pit Stop arrival and passports) confiscated and will not get any at the start of the next leg.
arus0706ri	Feed the Lions	South Africa	Sign up for one of two shuttle jeeps to a lion habitat, then throw meat from the jeep to feed the "wild" lions.
arus0706rb	Spear Throwing	Botswana	Who's got good aim?: Throw a spear to hit a sandbag pendulum swinging twenty feet away. Naturally, the player who'd already been on Survivor twice finished dead last.
arus0706dt	Food or Water	Botswana	Food: Use two poles to grind a bowl of corn into powder, until the powder fills a second basket to a marker. Water: Use reed straws to suck up water from an underground spring, fill twelve ostrich eggs, then bury them in a shallow pit.
arus0707dt	Carry It or Milk It	Botswana	Carry It: Deliver three items each (a tray of corn, a bucket of water, and a bundle of sticks) to a cooking area 70 yards away, balancing each on your head. No using your hands. Milk It: Select a goat from a pen, secure it, and milk it to fill a ten-ounce cup.
arus0707rb	Move Logs	Botswana	Who's ready for a real roadblock?: Drive your car through a river, select one of six paths and use the car to remove two logs blocking the path, then drive to a clue waiting on the roadside.
arus0708rb	Search Boxes	India	Who has a lot of patience?: Search over 600 tin boxes of different sizes for one of ten hidden clues. (This task has a Yield attached.) Why does a "steel emporium" like the one used here have so many tin boxes?
arus0708dt	Solid or Liquid	India	Solid: Travel one mile to a coal depot and fill two sacks with 175 pounds of coal, then deliver them by flatbed tricycle to a store four blocks away. Liquid: Collect a teacart from a store three miles away, push it 100 yards to an office building, then serve cups of tea to any five workers from a list of ten before returning the cart to the depot. There is no rest period at this leg's Pit Stop and the episode ends with the first team arriving.
arus0709ff	Shave Heads	India	Travel over ten miles to a lakeside temple and complete a mystery task: having both your heads shaved.
arus0709dt	Trunk or Dunk	India	Trunk: Travel to the Old City and find a lifesize wooden elephant on wheels, then push it half a mile to a temple. Dunk: Travel to a nearby neighbourhood and use traditional techniques to tie-dye 25 sheets, searching for the one sheet that will show the clue when unfurled.
arus0709rb	Race Camel Carts	India	Who's ready to steer their team in the right direction?: Steer a camel-drawn cart around two full laps of a dirt track.
arus0710ri	Find Gnome	Turkey	Before heading to the next destination, search a small island for one of four product-placed gnomes, which must be carried for the rest of the leg. Teams are not told the gnomes have different images on their bases; rather than the leg winners getting a prize, whoever has the plane on their gnome does.
arus0710dt	Columns or Kilos	Turkey	Columns: Travel to Binbirdirek Cistern, use a map to find numbers on four of 224 support columns, then pull up a box from a well and use the digits in some order to open its combination lock. Kilos: Travel to Yeni Camii and collect a set of bathroom scales, then weigh bystanders to reach a total of at least 2500kg.
arus0710rb	Storm the Fortress	Turkey	Is climbing your forte?: Climb a 25-foot rope ladder to the battlements of Rumeli Hisari, walk to the roof and find a key, then abseil back to the ground and use the key to open a book with the clue printed inside. In this context, "forte" is pronounced "fort". Stealth pun! Non-elimination; the spared team has their savings and possessions (all except clothes worn upon Pit Stop arrival and passports) confiscated and will not get any at the start of the next leg.

arus0711cc	Walk this Way	England	Upon landing in London, find the zebra crossing seen on a Beatles album cover. Gretchen, they can't have made the clue about Mel Torme instead. Mel Torme never put the Abbey Road zebra crossing on an album cover.
arus0711ri	Eyes Down	England	Travel to the London Eye and ride it while scanning the surrounding skyline for a race flag, then walk to it upon returning to the ground.
arus0711dt	Brains or Brawn	England	Brains: Complete a treasure hunt on the Underground, collecting items from three train stations before taking them to the Sherlock Holmes Museum. Brawn: Travel to Battersea Park and use a trolley to transfer five rowboats from a lake to a gazebo 500 yards away, stacking them on top of each other.
arus0711rb	Drive a Bus	England	Who's got the drive to win?: Drive a double-decker bus through an obstacle course without hitting any traffic cones. Fail at any point and the entire course must be repeated.
arus0712rb	Dance the Limbo	Jamaica	How low can you go?: Limbo under a bar representing one of five times. Eight tries are given, and you earn whatever you have after your last attempt, with lower heights earning earlier times. Where this leg and the next aired as a double episode, the next task is edited out and the results are shown as morning departure times; where the legs aired as separate episodes, the times represent entry times at the next task and teams could leave at any time after 6am. (Oddly, the missing task wasn't included on the DVD released shortly after the season.)
arus0712ri	Hot and Cold	Jamaica	Search a school's classrooms for one of three hidden clues while the students chant hints about how 'hot' (near) or 'cold' (far) away you are from a clue.
arus0712dt	Raft It or Build It	Jamaica	Raft It: Use only a pole to steer a bamboo raft eight miles downriver. Build It: Assemble a bamboo raft using only a finished raft for reference, then use a pole to paddle across the river and collect a clue before paddling back. Non-elimination; the spared team has their savings and possessions (all except clothes worn upon Pit Stop arrival and passports) confiscated and will not get any at the start of the next leg. (The Pit Stop for this leg is at the Round Hill resort, used a year earlier as the cast accommodation for season six of The Real World/Road Rules Challenge .)
arus0713ri	Jerk Off	Jamaica	Collect a sack of onions from a beachside shack, take them to a jerk restaurant, and dice the onions to a chef's satisfaction.
arus0713dt	Pony Up or Tee It Up	Jamaica	Pony Up: Ride horses into the water until they start to swim, then slide off and hold its tail as it swims around two buoys and back to shore. Tee It Up: Take turns hitting golf balls from a tee until one hits a small green 140 yards away. How do the horses know which way to swim? And doesn't pulling their tail count as animal cruelty? I mean, it doesn't matter when the golf was so clearly faster they had to mention changing into uniforms as part of the task, but still. Inquiring minds.
arus0713rb	Jump Off Bridge	Puerto Rico	Who's ready to take the plunge?: Jump 30 feet from a bridge into the water below, then swim 90 yard to a buoy with clues attached before riding a boat back to shore.
arus0713cc	King of the World	United States of America	Travel to Little Havana and find a cigar store with a Spanish name, given only an English translation of the name with no hint that it must be translated back.

Season Eight: Family Edition

arus0801ri1	Grab and Go	New York	Drive to Eastern Mountain Sports in SoHo and collect a set of camping supplies for use in a later task.
arus0801ri2	Cross the Delaware River	Pennsylvania	Paddle a rowboat across the Delaware River into New Jersey, collect a thirteen-star flag, then paddle back across the river to Pennsylvania and witness a flag-folding ceremony. An extra part of this task is not shown; it involves delivering the folded flag to a flag store in Philadelphia.

arus0801ri3	Future Tents	Pennsylvania	Drive to Belmont Plateau and set up your tent for the night. Morning departure times are awarded based on the order in which you finish. The clue we are shown specifically ends with the line "Yes. Drive there."
arus0801dt	Build It or Buggy It	Pennsylvania	Build It: Assemble a miniature, working water mill, using a finished example for reference. Buggy It: Transport an Amish buggy along a one and a half mile course, with two players inside the buggy and two pushing. Switching places is allowed but the buggy cannot move while doing so.
arus0802ri	Find Limousine and Briefcase	District of Columbia	Travel to Third Street and find a parked limousine, then collect a briefcase and bring it with you to the next destination.
arus0802rb	Find the Spy	District of Columbia	Who's ready for a covert operation?: Carry your briefcase around the Tidal Basin and use a provided code to find which of 50 patrolling people with matching cases is a spy who will exchange your case for theirs, which has a clue inside. Because this season has four-player teams, there are two changes to Road Block rules – rather than being limited to six Road Blocks each member must perform at least one during the race, and some Road Blocks are performed by two team members working together.
arus0802dt	Heat of the Battle or Heat of the Night	Virginia	Heat of the Battle: Enter a Civil War reenactment and use a stretcher to collect five injured soldiers, carrying each to a nearby first aid tent. Heat of the Night: Roll a barrel of oil to a workstation, fill twenty oil lamps, then carry them to a table and light them all. Instead of a clue, both tasks end with teams given a flag, which they must carry down a trail to the Pit Stop.
arus0803dt	Forrest Gump or Muddy Waters	South Carolina	Forrest Gump: Drive seven miles to Wando Shrimp and board a boat, then dehead 200 pounds of shrimp by hand while the boat travels to a dock near the next destination. Muddy Waters: Drive 37 miles to the Ridgeville Mud Run and drive a jeep around one lap of a 400-foot mud bog without getting stuck. What possible reason is there to even consider the jeep task?
arus0803rb	Centrifuge	Alabama	Who wants to pull more than 3Gs?: Ride a NASA training centrifuge until it reaches a force equal to 3.2 times the force of Earth's gravity. Two players per team; one team at a time.
arus0803ri	Space Case	Alabama	Walk to Rocket Park and enter the Space Museum, then use a waiting laptop to view a product-placed video clue. The Pit Stop for this leg is beneath the Pathfinder space shuttle; the greeter is astronaut Colonel Bob Springer, who flew on Atlantis I.
arus0804ri1	On Your Bike	Alabama	Walk to Talladega Super Speedway and ride a party bike around one lap of the 2.6-mile track.
arus0804cc	Southern...	Mississippi	Upon arriving in Hattiesburg, find the "Southern Colonel".
arus0804ri	...Comfort	Mississippi	Search among 37 trailer homes for hidden boards showing one of three morning departure times. Once you claim a time, you cannot switch; the home it is found in becomes your accommodation for the night.
arus0804dt	Work or Play	Louisiana	Work: Use a two-handed saw to cut four slices of wood from a twelve-inch-wide log, with two players working at a time. Play: Paddle a canoe to a riverboat, then win three hands of blackjack against a dealer. To win a hand, the dealer must bust or all four players must beat them with their hands simultaneously. The greeter for this leg is Richard Matthews, leader of the Olympia Brass Band (who are performing inside a building teams run through to reach the mat).
arus0805ff	Tandem Bungy Jump	Panama	Travel to the Panama Canal and find Pier 14, then split into pairs and perform two tandem bungy jumps from a crane.
arus0805dt	Rhythm or Coos	Panama	Rhythm: Travel to Casco Viejo and find musical instruments at four different locations, then deliver them on foot to a nearby jazz club. Coos: Travel to Parque Metropolitano and use binoculars to find five wooden birds in the surrounding trees, circling the matching birds on a sheet filled with dozens of decoys.

arus0805rb	Get a Base Hit or Home Run	Panama	Who can hit in a pinch?: Baseball. Try to hit balls pitched by a teenage player until you can make it to first base safely. Fail to do so within three pitches and return to the back of the line. Non-elimination; the spared team has their savings and possessions (all except clothes worn upon Pit Stop arrival and passports) confiscated and will not get any at the start of the next leg.
arus0806rb	Find Red Coffee Bean	Costa Rica	[Hint not revealed]: Search among 800 pounds of coffee beans for the one and only red bean hidden amongst them, using a rake for assistance. (This task has a Yield attached.)
arus0806dt	Relic or Ripe	Costa Rica	Relic: Drive to Rainmaker Rainforest Reserve and hike along a marked path, collecting four mock Mayan relics along the way. Ripe: Drive to Frutas Selectas del Tropicico banana plantation and load fifteen bushels of bananas onto a pulley system, then haul them to a nearby processing facility.
arus0807ri	Offshore Holdings	Costa Rica	Walk to Playa Maracas, then have one team member swim to collect a clue from a buoy offshore. How sad that “a buoy just off the Costa Rican shoreline” is the closest the race got to leaving North America this season.
arus0807dt	Brush or Barrel	Costa Rica	Brush: Travel to an oxcart factory and choose two partially-painted wheels, then use the painted sections as an example to finish painting the rest of the wheels. Barrel: Travel to a sugarcane plantation and load one ton of sugarcane stalks onto a trailer, then ride to a rum factory six miles away and find a marked rum barrel in a warehouse.
arus0807rb	Complete 50 Laps	Arizona	Who's ready to start their engines?: Drive a go-kart around 50 laps of a track. A mandatory break must be taken after 25 laps, though other breaks are allowed. Non-elimination; the spared team has their savings and possessions (all except clothes worn upon Pit Stop arrival and passports) confiscated and will not get any at the start of the next leg.
arus0808rb	Fighter Plane Aerobatics	Arizona	Who's feeling the need for speed?: Ride in a fighter jet with a professional pilot as it takes off, then take the controls and complete a 360-degree vertical loop.
arus0808dt	Bearing or Bailing	Arizona	Bearing: Select a colour-coded card and use a compass to navigate to the listed co-ordinates, collecting a card of the same colour and repeating the process with the directions on this card until three locations have been found. Bailing: Use small buckets to empty a waterlogged boat, then carry it across an adjacent line. Both first require travelling to Horseshoe Bend.
arus0809dt	Drop Down or Ride Down	Utah	Drop Down: Complete a two-stage rappel 270 feet to the base of Bull Canyon, then walk a short distance to the cluebox. Both rappels are one at a time. Ride Down: Ride mountain bikes along a six-mile course to the base of Bull Canyon. For this leg and the next two, teams have caravans attached to their cars as an added hindrance.
arus0809rb	Ski Jump	Utah	Who's ready to jump into the unknown?: Ski down a 60-foot moguls training ramp and jump into the pool at its base. (This task has a Yield attached.) Yes. Moguls. Not actually ski jump. Just, you know, for the record. A miscellaneous route marker before this task involved finding “Bart the Bear” and was presented as a cryptic clue; details of this leg's tasks, revealing teams actually got the full address and eliminating the “task” part of the task, were spoiled after Phil and his crew accidentally left production notes in a diner. Non-elimination; the spared team has their savings and possessions (all except clothes worn upon Pit Stop arrival and passports) confiscated and will not get any at the start of the next leg. (The greeter for this leg is Jessica Garcia, Miss Latin Utah.)
arus0810ri	Up, Up, and Away	Utah	Travel to a hot-air balloon site and help a crew inflate a balloon, then ride in it to the next destination.

arus0901dt	Motor Head or Rotor Head	Brazil	Motorhead: Travel one mile to Caverna Moto Peças and assemble a motorbike, using only a finished motorbike for reference. Rotorhead: Travel three miles to Campo de Marte Airport and find one of three local buildings in a helicopter flight directory, then fly there and search a set area for a hidden clue. Buildings are different distances away and a limited number of helicopters will fly to each. Does this episode sound kind of sparse for a two-hour opening? Spare a thought for Australians, who had the episode split into two separate one-hour episodes, then had the second half aired two weeks after the first to boot. This after not having season eight broadcast at all (though it did eventually air months later). arus0901ri	Just Pray When	Brazil	Travel to a specified address in Santa Cecilia and participate in a traditional Candomble ceremony. An extra part of this task, buying a white candle for use in the ceremony, was edited out. arus0902rb	Fire Drill	Brazil	Who's ready for a fire drill?: Climb up the stairs of a fire escape, then abseil almost 400 feet back down. There are three fire escapes available, but only one abseiling line at each; all are first come first served. arus0902dt	Press It or Climb It	Brazil	Press It: Drive to Camping Bela Vista and use a manual grinder to crush stalks of sugarcane, then distill the juice formed to make half a litre of ethanol. Climb It: Drive to Usina Jacaré and hike to a waterfall, then use ascenders to climb 90 feet to the top, one at a time. arus0903ri	Zipline	Brazil	Drive to a farm three miles away, then ride a 300-foot zipline across a valley, one at a time. arus0903rb	Plunge 10 Metres	Russia	Who wants to take the plunge?: Change into a swimsuit and jump off a ten-metre diving board into the pool below, then swim to a lane rope and dive down to collect a submerged clue. Dear show: Metres are a measurement; meters take measurements. arus0903dt	Scrub or Scour	Russia	Scrub: Travel to a trolley depot and completely clean the inside and outside of a trolleybus. Scour: Travel to Dubrovka Theatre and search over 1500 sets of nesting dolls on stage for one of ten miniature clues hidden inside select dolls. Fail to find a clue in a set and it must be reassembled before continuing. There is no rest period at this leg's Pit Stop and the episode ends with the first team arriving.
arus0904ri	Wall of Death	Germany	Ride in a car as a professional driver completes a lap of the Mercedes test track.
arus0904rb	Find Roaming Gnome	Germany	Who's ready to reap a reward?: Search among 150 covers placed throughout a field for one of eleven product-placed gnomes hidden in shallow holes. arus0904dt	Break It or Slap It	Germany	Break It: Take turns breaking stunt bottles on each others' heads, searching for the German word for cheers printed on the back of a bottle's label. One smash per chime of a cuckoo clock. Slap It: Learn and perform a folk dance routine. It's hard to believe that, nine seasons in, this is the first "learn a dance" task. arus0905dt	Foundry or Laundry	Italy	Foundry: Walk to a nearby foundry and collect a 110-pound bell, load it into a waiting car and drive to an outdoor staircase, then carry the bell up them to the church at the top. Laundry: Walk to a nearby alley and search from the adjacent balconies for one of sixteen marked garments among 2400 pieces of laundry hanging overhead. arus0905rb	Assemble Greek Statue	Italy	Who's good at piecing things together?: Assemble a lifesize Greek-style statue. Players are not told there are two decoy pieces. (This task has a Yield attached.) A Greek task in Italy? When the next country visited is Greece? arus0906ri	Head Count	Italy	Count the number of miniature heads on the fenceposts around Anfiteatro Romano, then enter and tell the total to a man somewhere on its grounds.

arus0906dt	Big Fish or Little Fish	Italy	Big Fish: Walk to Via Alessi and collect a 32-pound swordfish each, then carry them to Mercato Storico la Pescheria and deliver them to a specified vendor. Little Fish: Walk to Mercato Storico la Perscheria and find a marked stall, then sell four kilograms of triglia to locals. Interesting that most teams thought it would be too hard to sell fish in the morning. That's actually the best possible time to be selling. arus0906rb	Play Kayak Polo	Italy	Who's well-balanced?: Enter an ongoing kayak polo match and collect the ball, then score one goal against a local goalkeeper.
arus0907ff	Break Plates	Greece	Walk to Stamatopolous Taverna and break a series of plates stacked on a table one at a time, searching for a paper race flag baked into only one of the hundreds of plates. There's an additional side trip to Rome for no reason other than plugging a film (not set in Italy), but it's just running around. Instead of the leg winners getting a prize, the first to arrive with props collected in this sidetrip wins the prize: a trip to the film's premiere. (They didn't end up attending.)
arus0907rb	Bungy Jump	Greece	Who wants to hear the sound of their own screams?: Bungy jump 240 feet above the Corinth Canal. First requires walking to said canal. arus0907dt	Herculean Effort or It's All Greek to Me	Greece	Herculean Effort: Complete three Ancient Olympic events – throwing a javelin and a spear past marked lines, then wrestling a local out of a ring. One player does each throwing task; the team then works together in the wrestling. It's All Greek to Me: Collect nine pieces of pottery marked with Greek letters, have them translated into English letters, then identify a town on a provided map spelled with those nine letters. Both first require driving to the ancient stadium at Nemea. arus0908dt	Camel or Watch Tower	Oman	Camel: Use a pulley system to load a camel into a ute tray, then use a simple map to deliver it to a Bedouin camp one mile away. Watch Tower: Collect a message box from one of three nearby watch towers, then deliver it to a silversmith one mile away. One tower is empty; the other two have limited numbers of boxes. arus0908rb	Dig for Shuwa	Oman	Who is willing to work for food?: Dig in 117 sand mounds to find one of six buried meals cooking in underground “ovens”. Teams must bring the meal to the Pit Stop; it is the only food they will be given for dinner that evening. Non-elimination; the spared team has their savings and possessions (all except clothes worn upon Pit Stop arrival and passports) confiscated and will not get any at the start of the next leg. arus0909dt	Sand or Sea	Australia	Sand: Select a pile of 40 large tree branches and drag them 126 yards down the beach to a sand dune. Sea: Snorkel in an area containing 50 lobster traps on the ocean floor for one of several containing live lobsters, collecting one lobster each and bringing it back to shore. Both first require travelling to Salmon Bay. 126 yards is equal to 115.2 metres, so the distance is odd even in the metric system (as used in Australia).
arus0909rb	Search Tunnel System	Australia	Who's ready for a great escape?: Search the cells in one section of Fremantle Prison for product-placed batteries and a torch, take them to the entrance of the tunnels beneath the prison, then use it to search the tunnels for one of several hidden clues.
arus0910ri	Croc Value	Australia	Upon landing in Darwin, drive to Crocodylus Park and wade into a crocodile pen to collect a dangling clue.
arus0910rb	Skydive	Australia	Who's ready to take the fall for their team?: Tandem skydive with a jumpmaster from 12,000 feet. (This task has a Yield attached.)

arus0910dt	Wet or Dry	Australia	Wet: Drive six miles to Buley Rockhole and hike one mile through a riverbed to a cluebox. Dry: Drive twelve miles to the Lost City and pick a painted didgeridoo, find a man playing a matching didgeridoo nearby, then each perform one note. Non-elimination; the spared team has their savings and possessions (all except clothes worn upon Pit Stop arrival and passports) confiscated and will not get any at the start of the next leg. arus0911ff	Eat Crickets & Grasshoppers	Thailand	Travel to a restaurant two miles away and complete a mystery task: Eating a large bowl of stir-fried crickets and grasshoppers each.
arus0911rb	Prepare Monkey Feast	Thailand	Who's ready for some monkey business?: Prepare a ceremonial feast for a group of monkeys, matching a finished example feast exactly, then work with locals to carry it to a feeding area. With the clue envelope containing both the Road Block and the Fast Forward, teams get a third envelope which must stay sealed until the Pit Stop; rather than the leg winners getting the prize, the team who picked the clue with a golden gnome card inside the sealed envelope gets it. (Note the two times an alternate prizing system is used are the two legs with Fast Forwards.) arus0911dt	Move It or Altar It	Thailand	Move It: Walk to Jom Jam Pottery Factory and use only a wooden board each to carry clay pots through the alleys to a boat, repeating until 70 pots are delivered unbroken. Altar It: Walk to Wat Chimpfli Temple and assemble a shrine using a finished example for reference, then gold-leaf a Buddha statue centrepiece.
arus0912ri1	Night Lights	Japan	Upon landing in Tokyo, travel to Shibuya Crossing and search the electronic billboards for directions leading to a cluegiver.
arus0912dt	Maiden or Messenger	Japan	Maiden: Travel to a tea garden seven miles away, then carry a palanquin with a woman inside a third of a mile to a tea ceremony. Messenger: Walk to a parking lot and assemble two folding bikes, then deliver parcels to two listed addresses before returning.
arus0912rb	Locate Clue from Thrill Rides	Japan	Who's ready to coast through their day?: Ride three specified thrill rides in a theme park, searching for a man holding a sign marked with a mystery phrase who will be visible from one ride. Fail to find him and repeat all three rides. Yes, they do use a riff on Turning Japanese for a task that starts with riding a carousel-like rollercoaster. Why do you ask? arus0912ri2	Swanning Around	Japan	Drive to Lake Yamanaka, then use a paddleboat to cross the lake to the Pit Stop. Non-elimination; the spared team has their savings and possessions (all except clothes worn upon Pit Stop arrival and passports) confiscated and will not get any at the start of the next leg. arus0913dt	Drill It or Deliver It	United States of America	Drill It: Walk across a frozen lake and use an augur to drill ten ice-fishing holes at marked points, then push an ice-fishing shack across the ice until it covers at least two of the holes. Deliver It: Load a set of medical supplies onto a bush plane, then ride 75 miles in the plane to Girdwood Airport and unload them. Deliver It also requires a 75-mile trip back to the starting point; the point is moot as inclement weather makes it unsafe to fly and forces all teams to Drill It. (Girdwood Airport did later appear on the show though – it was the finish line in season twelve.) arus0913ri	Lost in Time	United States of America	Upon landing in Denver, travel to Clear Creek History Park and search the grounds for one of three hidden clues.
arus0913rb	Flag Hags	United States of America	Who remembers most about the places you've been?: Find the flags for each visited country in a field containing 285 from various countries, arranging them in the correct order in a workstation. A placard showing the nine unlabelled flags with three decoys is provided; the partner not chosen can give advice only. Once done, both players can run to the finish line. During Phil's explanation, he stands in front of flags not only for his home country of New Zealand, but for Canada and Antigua & Barbuda, where he has lived in the past. (Also, the New Zealand flag is backwards when it is shown.)

arus1001rb	Eat Fish Eyes	China	Who's hungry to stay in the race?: Use chopsticks to collect eight eyeballs in a wok filled with fish heads and broth, then eat them all. Following this task teams must travel to the Forbidden City and sign up for a morning departure time; there are only eleven times available and the last team to arrive is immediately eliminated.
arus1001dt	Labor or Leisure	China	Labor: Travel one mile to Rundeli Market and pave a 45-square-foot section of pavement in a set pattern, using only a finished example for reference. Leisure: Travel two miles to Beihai Park and learn and perform a taiji bailong routine.
arus1001ri	The Great Gate	China	Travel to the Juyong Pass section of the Great Wall and climb a rope to the landing using footholds for assistance, one at a time, then walk to the adjacent Pit Stop.
arus1002ri	Show and Tell	Mongolia	Upon arrival in Ulaanbaatar, travel to Choijin Lama Temple and observe a traditional Buddhist performance.
arus1002dt	Take it Down or Fill It Up	Mongolia	Take it Down: Disassemble a ger, fold up its component pieces, and load them onto a camel for transport. Fill it Up: Load four empty urns onto a yak cart, lead the yak 500 yards to a river and fill the urns before returning, repeating until a barrel at the start is full to a marked line.
arus1002rb	Shoot Flaming Arrow	Mongolia	Who's ready to aim high?: Use a bow to fire a flaming arrow over a fence so that it lands in a cauldron 160 feet away. Once done, run to the adjacent Pit Stop.
arus1003ri	Fighter Flight	Vietnam	Enter the Hanoi Hilton and search its grounds for former prisoner of war John McCain's flight suit.
arus1003rb	Sell Flowers	Vietnam	Who's ready to peddle some goods?: Select a bicycle loaded with flowers and sell enough flowers to locals to make 80,000 dong.
arus1003dt	Fuel or Fowl	Vietnam	Fuel: Walk to a local house and collect wet coal from a pile, then use a traditional press to make 30 fuel bricks. Fowl: Walk to the local church and assemble a bamboo birdcage, using only a finished example for reference.
arus1004cc	Sound Off	Vietnam	Travel to Ly Thai To Garden and "listen for the next clue". At the start of this leg teams got their money in local currency; aside from being easier for them to use there's a logistical reason for it – local law bans tourists from leaving Vietnam if they have more money in their possession than when they arrived.
arus1004rb	Ascend Cliff	Vietnam	Who's got strong arms and legs?: Use an ascender to climb up 90 feet to the top of an offshore rock formation, collect a clue, then free rappel back down before opening it. Three ascenders available; first come first served.
arus1004dt	Over or Under	Vietnam	Over: Row a sampan to a supply boat, collect a set of supplies, then continue rowing to a floating village and deliver the supplies to two addresses before returning to the supply boat. Under: Row a sampan to a pearl farm, then haul up 30 oyster baskets before delivering them to the nearby pearl farmer.
arus1005dt	Wild Things or Wild Rice	India	Wild Things: Travel nine miles to Madras Crocodile Bank and work with two wranglers to catch a crocodile before transferring it to a new enclosure. Wild Rice: Walk 200 yards to Sthala Sayana Perumal Temple and use coloured rice to fill a mandala outline on the ground so that it matches a provided illustration.
arus1005rb	Driving School	India	Who's the driving force behind this team?: Complete a short driver's ed class, then pass an Indian driving license test. Once done, teams must drive across Chennai to the Pit Stop. For safety reasons, they are accompanied by their instructors. Non-elimination; the spared team will get a 30-minute penalty if they do not win the next leg.
arus1006cc1	Kuwait and See	Kuwait	Upon landing in Kuwait City, find the location shown in a provided video clue.

arus1006ff	Confront Oil Well Fire	Kuwait	Drive to an oil field eighteen miles away, then collect a clue from a cluebox near a simulated oil well fire.
arus1006rb	Climb Kuwait Tower	Kuwait	Who's strong in both mind and body?: Climb a service ladder around the Kuwait Tower's minaret to collect a satchel of puzzle pieces, 610 feet above the ground, then return to the ground and use the pieces along with extra pieces waiting in a chest to assemble a puzzle showing the clue.
arus1006cc2	Lost in Translation	Kuwait	Work out where to go from the clue assembled in the above task, written wholly in Arabic.
arus1006dt	Manual or Automatic	Kuwait	Manual: Drive to a feed lot and fill ten 110-pound bags of camel feed, then stack them on a pallet 100 yards away. Automatic: Drive to the Kuwait Camel Racing Club and attach a robotic jockey to a camel, then use its voice operated controls to get the camel to run along a 140-yard track.
arus1007cc	Anchors; Away	Mauritius	Find the next destination – a boat – using only a model of it for assistance.
arus1007dt	Salt or Sea	Mauritius	Salt: Drive two miles to a salt pan, then search among three giant piles of salt for a salt shaker containing the next clue. Sea: Walk to a dock and ride to an island two thirds of a mile offshore, use a treasure map to find a mast and sail, then bring them back to the boat and attach them. Both tasks have hidden complications – the salt piles have decoy shakers filled with pepper; the sail task has a shallow covered pit right before the sails. Non-elimination; the spared team will get a 30-minute penalty if they do not win the next leg.
arus1008iff	Eat Cow Lips	Madagascar	Travel two and a half miles to Analakely Market and find a marked stall, then each eat a serving of cow lips.
arus1008idt	Long Sleep or Short Letter	Madagascar	Long Sleep: Travel to a market and wrap eight foam mattresses in covers, then take them on foot to a specified address one mile away. Short Letter: Travel to a paper-making workshop and use traditional methods to make and decorate 28 sheets of paper.
arus1008rb	Find Stamps	Madagascar	Who can cut through the red tape?: Search among dozens of rubber stamp vendors on outdoor staircases in the surrounding area for four stamps matching the plane, train, boat, and car images shown on the clue. Once done, travel to the Pit Stop alone and reunite with your partner before checking in.
arus1009ri1	A Race to Call Home	Finland	Upon landing in Helsinki, travel to Kappeli Cafe and use a waiting laptop to view a product-placed video message from your loved ones. Due to uncertain flight availability, teams are provided flight tickets from Antananarivo to Paris, but are free to seek better or alternate flights if they wish.
arus1009dt	Swamp This or Swamp That	Finland	Swamp This: Cross-country ski along a muddy one-mile course. Swamp That: Complete an obstacle course in a mud bog. The skiing includes an obstacle component too, essentially making this the least interesting choice ever. Just in case the unimaginative titles didn't give it away.
arus1009rb	Retrieve Limestone	Finland	Who's ready for a miner inconvenience?: Ride a bike more than a mile down a steep hill into a cavern, collect a limestone rock, transport it back up the hill, and smash it open to release a clue from inside.
arus1009ri2	Don't Look Et Cetera	Finland	Take an elevator to the top of the Olympic Tower, then complete a mystery task: abseiling face-first 236 feet back to the ground, one at a time. There is no Pit Stop for this leg; the episode ends with the first team finishing this task and getting a clue telling them to keep racing. Unlike previous To Be Continued legs, teams receive more money for the second half this time.
arus1010cc1	Delayed Reaction	Finland	Work out the next destination, told only that it is the capital city of the country where the Chernobyl disaster happened. The destination is Kyiv, the capital of Ukraine... but since it was part of the Soviet Union when the disaster happened, Moscow is the clue answer. (Phil even points out the Soviet connection in his exposition. He also says “nuclear” though, so...)

arus1010cc2	Found in Translation	Ukraine	Work out where to go from a clue written entirely in Ukrainian Cyrillic.
arus1010rb	Drive Tanks	Ukraine	Who's ready to take command?: Drive a Soviet-era army tank along a 1.2-mile military training course. One tank, graphics people. They drive one tank.
arus1010dt	Make the Music or Find the Music	Ukraine	Make the Music: Travel to the Dance & Groove hiphop club and write a rap using the names of each country visited so far in its lyrics, then perform it for a crowd. Find the Music: Travel to the National Music Academy and search thousands of pieces of sheet music on a table for a specific song, then search 120 practice rooms for one of six pianists and listen to them play the song.
arus1011rb	Race Chariots	Morocco	Who wants to be a gladiator?: Ride a chariot around a racetrack, collecting two colour-coded banners along the way. (This task has a Yield attached.) Again: Singular.
arus1011dt	Throw It or Grind It	Morocco	Throw It: Drive to a pottery workshop and use a kickwheel to make a clay pot each. Grind It: Drive to an olive farm and use an olive mill to crush 77 pounds of black olives, filling a set of plastic bags with the crushed mixture. Both detours have only three stations available and are first come, first served. Non-elimination; the spared team will get a 30-minute penalty if they do not win the next leg. (Rather than the leg winners getting the prize, teams collected an ornamental necklace each at the start of the leg, and whichever team picked the necklace matching the greeter's won it.)
arus1012rb	Eat Camel Meat	Morocco	Who's got a taste for the unusual?: Find a marked market stall and collect half a kilogram of camel meat, take it to Cafe 11 and prepare it for cooking following a traditional recipe, then have it cooked and eat it all.
arus1012ri	A Maze; In, Race	Spain	Upon landing in Barcelona, travel to Parc del Laberint d'Horta and find a cluebox in the centre of a hedge maze.
arus1012dt	Lug It or Lob It	Spain	Lug It: Travel four miles to Las Ramblas and collect a giant costume each from Meremagnum Bridge, then walk over a mile to Placa de Sant Felip Neri. Lob It: Travel nine miles to a town square and search a giant pile of tomatoes for one of several hidden clues while locals throw tomatoes at you.
arus1013cc1	Working Hard or Hardly Working?	Spain	"Barcelona has a church that has been under construction for 124 years. Find it." The clue is actually in the park behind Sagrada Familia.
arus1013cc2	On Tour	Spain	Find the next destination given only a photo of it. Remember how back in season one I commented that the statue clue was easy because it was the Eiffel Tower? Making it a photo doesn't make it any harder.
arus1013rb	Tandem Skydive	France	Who's ready to storm the beach?: Tandem skydive with a jumpmaster from 13,000 feet, landing on Omaha Beach, then ride a waiting vehicle to the local train station and reunite with your partner. Players not performing the task also ride in the planes; for no reason beyond shock value, the planes do nosedive stunts once the skydivers have left.
arus1013dt	Art or Fashion	France	Art: Collect a large painting from an art gallery and carry it through the streets to a painter waiting on the Seine riverbank. Fashion: Walk to Anatomy Fashion School and cut, pin, and fit a jacket so it fits a mannequin, using a finished model for reference. Art is kind of rushed over since nobody did it, but based on the footage it seems as though the painter is about a half-hour walk away at the best of times. Still, I'm not seeing why it's so unpreferable by comparison.
arus1013cc3	Twice is Nice	United States of America	Find the next destination, given only a photo of it and instructions to walk to the East Village. Yeah, the entire US section of the finale is literally "land, go here, now find this place, now go to the finish line". Sigh.

Season Eleven: All-Stars

arus1101dt	Wrangle It or Recover It	Ecuador	Wrangle It: Wait for a local cowboy to catch a wild horse, then trim its hooves, mane, and tail to safe lengths. Recover It: With one partner wearing a military uniform, search a high-altitude field on foot for the three missing items: a sword, an epaulet, and a button.
arus1102rb	Boardroom Puzzle	Chile	Who has an eye for detail?: Enter a boardroom and search for a series of letters hidden in plain sight, then use most of them to form a mystery word, working out that it is one of the ten mining sites shown on plaques.
arus1102dt	By Hand or By Machine	Chile	By Hand: Attach a series of bolts and washers correctly to secure a two-ton tyre to a mining truck. By Machine: Taking turns, use a bulldozer to pick up gravel and transfer it to a pole, dumping it until the pile reaches a marked line.
arus1103rb	Fish Farming	Chile	Who can handle a slippery situation?: Empty an 1800-gallon fish farm tank by catching the 80 flatfish inside and transferring them in crates to a holding tank at the far end of the farm, then read the clue on the bottom of the tank.
arus1103dt	Vertical Limit or River Wild	Chile	Vertical Limit: Walk 200 yards to La Roca and rock-climb up it to collect halves of a clue hanging 40 feet above the ground, one at a time. River Wild: Drive two miles to Rio Petrohue, then complete a two-and-a-half-mile whitewater rafting course with two guides.
arus1104dt	Navigate It or Sign It	Argentina	Navigate It: Use a provided map to find the town plaza on foot, collect a compass from a waiting sailor, then walk due south to the Nautilus salvage business. Sign It: Carry a pole and painting supplies uphill to a map of Magellan's voyage, then paint 14 signs with the names of his destinations and nail them to the pole in the right order and with correct spelling. "The cities must be spelled correctly." Over a shot of a sign reading "Philippines". Oy vey, Phil. You've been there. arus1104rb	Find Team Letter	Argentina	Who's good at sorting things out?: Sort through a bag filled with 1600 letters to find one of two addressed to your team, then read it aloud. Letters were written by members of teams not cast; the two letters for each team were written by different people.
arus1105ri	Snow Way	Argentina	Travel to the summit of Martial Glacier and collect an avalanche beacon, then hike half a mile to a snowfield and look for a buried transmitter.
arus1105rb	Minesweeper	Mozambique	Who smells a rat?: Use a mine-detecting rat on a harness to search a marked area for a race flag buried above a deactivated landmine.
arus1105dt	Pamper or Porter	Mozambique	Pamper: Travel half a mile to Mercado Central and collect a nail-painting kit, then find customers and paint their nails to earn 30 metical. Porter: Travel two miles to Mercado Janet, fill ten sacks with 45lb of coal and sew them shut, then carry one sack of coal to a nearby address. Non-elimination; the spared team will get a 30-minute penalty if they do not win the next leg.
arus1106dt	Solve It or Schlep It	Tanzania	Solve It: Travel a third of a mile to Baytal Chai Hotel and fit 62 double-sided puzzle pieces into a frame to form a tingatinga design matching the example. Schlep It: Travel one mile to Kijangwani Lumberyard, load two logs onto a handcart, then deliver the logs to a shipyard over one mile away. arus1106rb	Toss Rungu	Tanzania	Who's on target?: Throw a rungungu to smash a clay target 65 feet away. Sound familiar? Rungungus were first used in a challenge on Survivor: Africa .
arus1107dt	Perfect Pitch or Perfect Angle	Poland	Perfect Pitch: Travel three-quarters of a mile to Prymas Palace and identify which key on a grand piano is out of tune, then tune it to a pianist's satisfaction. Perfect Angle: Travel half a mile to Escada Boutique, collect a mannequin and carry it 400 yards to Panoramik Laboratory, then use an X-ray machine to read a clue written inside their mannequin. The Amazing Race: The only reality show where X-rays aren't the result of a challenge gone horribly wrong. But even then.

arus1107cc	Polish; Statue	Poland	Work out that the Polish words on the clue refer to a statue and its location, then travel there. Non-elimination; the spared team will get a 30-minute penalty if they do not win the next leg. (If this leg seems short, it's worth noting the Road Block – similar in concept to the one edited out of last season's Mauritius leg – was edited out to allow for a ridiculously complex flight sequence.)
arus1108ri	Never Forget	Poland	Upon arrival at Auschwitz, take a moment to pay your respects before lighting a memorial candle at the concentration camp's infamous train tracks.
arus1108iff	Count Steps	Poland	Travel to Market Square and find two specific towers, counting the stairs while climbing up both, then add your answers together to get the correct total. The group who wins is never officially split back up; they check-in at the Pit Stop together and must decide which team will be given the prize. (As they won the Fast Forward as a four-person group, they are also allowed to claim the later Fast Forward on their own, breaking the usual "one per team" rule.)
arus1108idt	Eat it Up or Roll it Out	Poland	Eat it Up: Travel a mile and a half to Zapraszamy do Srodka market and use a sausagemaker to each make a three-inch link of kielbasa, then eat a two-foot length of kielbasa. Roll it Out: Travel a mile and a half to J. Mazurek bakery in the Jewish Quarter, roll dough to form 20 bagels, then deliver a basket of bagels to Klezmer-Hois restaurant a quarter of a mile away.
arus1108rb	Knight in Armour	Poland	Who wants to be a knight in shining armour?: Put on a suit of armour and lead a horse half a mile down a trail to the Pit Stop.
arus1109dt	Artistic Expression or Cookie Confection	Malaysia	Artistic Expression: Travel a third of a mile to Dewan Lama, then use a wax stencil to apply batik designs to a 45-foot-long sheet of cloth before dyeing it. Cookie Confection: Walk half a mile to Chow Kit Bomba and find a marked stall, then choose a table loaded with cookies and bite through one at a time to find the only cookie with a licorice centre. (This Detour has a Yield attached.)
arus1109rb	Part-Time Job	Malaysia	Who's ready for a part-time job?: Ride a bike with a sidecar around a suburban neighbourhood and collect old newspapers from locals for recycling, bringing them to a newspaper truck to make a stack eight hands high.
arus1110ff	High-Speed Movie Stunt	China	Travel to Old Kai Tak Airport and ride in a car with a stunt driver as he performs a series of typical action film stunts.
arus1110dt	Kung Fu Fighting or Lost in Translation	China	Kung Fu Fighting: Travel five miles to Tonkin Street and find a marked building, then climb up an eleven-storey bamboo scaffold while avoiding a group of kung fu performers. Lost in Translation: Travel four miles to Nga Tsin Wai Road and find a specific store, using only a photo of its sign (written entirely in Chinese) for assistance. Turns out "similar-looking signs" just means "signs with Chinese characters that may actually look completely different".
arus1110rb	Kick Down Doors	China	Who's ready to break down barriers?: Search an abandoned building for one of several hidden clues, kicking down every door used.
arus1110ri	Gnome Home	China	Drive to Victoria Park and find a pond with several product-placed gnomes waiting on model junks, then use a string to pull one across the pond without the gnome falling off. Non-elimination; the spared team will get a 30-minute penalty if they do not win the next leg.
arus1111cc	Sky High	China	Find "the tallest structure in Macau".
arus1111rb	Sky Jump	China	[Hint not revealed]: Walk around the outside of Macau Tower's observation deck, then jump off the tower and be lowered to the ground at high speed. (This task has a Yield attached.) Oddly, teams pull numbers for the task before taking the elevator up, where the Yield has a new set of numbers. A Macau Tower fear of heights task? Every cliché has to start somewhere.

arus1111dt	Noodle or Dragon	China	Noodle: Travel two miles to a restaurant, then use traditional methods to flatten and cut dough, making two bundles of noodles. Dragon: Travel one mile to a warehouse, collect a drum and a wooden dragon head, and deliver them on foot to a dragon boat at a dock three quarters of a mile away. Non-elimination; the spared team will get a 30-minute penalty if they do not win the next leg.
arus1112dt	Care Package or Engine Care	Guam	Care Package: Fill a supply drop crate with 500lb of supplies, then ride in a US Air Force plane as it is dropped to a nearby island. Engine Care: Use provided items to wash and dry one engine and sail of a military bomber.
arus1112rb	Search and Rescue	Guam	Who's ready to search far and wide?: Use a GPS to find one of four soldiers hiding in the surrounding area, then follow a new set of directions to a clearing, then signal for a helicopter "rescue".
arus1113ri1	Aloha, Aloha	United States	Upon landing in Honolulu, travel to Kamaka Air and sign up for one of three helicopters to Lanai.
arus1113dt	Under or Over	United States	Under: Travel by boat to the entrance of an underwater cave, then swim inside and untie a submerged clue. Over: Travel by boat to a buoy, then each use a stand-up paddleboard to reach a second buoy with attached clues.
arus1113ri2	Kayak and Back	United States	Paddle a waiting kayak through the rough waters towards a shipwreck, grabbing a clue from an adjacent buoy before paddling back.
arus1113ri3	I Second That Emotion	United States	One at a time, answer four questions about your perceptions of the other teams. The first player uses their answers to set a safe combination; the second must then unlock it by matching the answers. Ten-minute time limit; fail and the clue is given automatically.

Season Twelve

arus1201rb	High-Wire Bike	Ireland	Who's ready to pedal for their partner?: Ride a high-wire bike along a wire suspended across a 200-foot-high ravine, while your partner sits on a perch below as a counterbalance.
arus1201ri	Donkey Walk	Ireland	Choose a waiting donkey and fill the baskets strapped to it with fifteen pieces of peat each, then lead it down a trail back to your car.
arus1202dt	Hoist It or Hunt It	Netherlands	Hoist It: Walk to a nearby building and use a rope-and-pulley to hoist five items into the top-floor window, with one partner on the ground and one inside the building. Hunt It: Walk to a bicycle parking lot several blocks away and search for two bikes marked with the given symbol, then ride them along a five-mile course through the streets.
arus1202rb	Ditch Vault	Netherlands	Which of you is the acrobat?: Use a pole to cleanly vault across a twelve-foot ditch, then collect a clue and return across the ditch any way necessary.
arus1203rb	Milk a Camel	Burkina Faso	Who's ready to work up a thirst?: Milk a camel to fill a bowl to the marked line, then drink it all. If your camel runs out of milk, wait for other teams to finish before using one of theirs.
arus1203ri	Four of a Kind	Burkina Faso	Collect four camels and lead them along a marked trail to a group of Tuareg.
arus1203dt	Teach It or Learn It	Burkina Faso	Teach It: Choose a local child and use flashcards to teach them ten English words so that they can recall all ten when tested by a teacher. Learn It: Choose a local child and have them teach you ten More words, then recall all ten when tested.
arus1204ri	No Chicken, No Check-In	Burkina Faso	Follow a marked path to the tribal chief, then catch one of several chickens in a pen. The chicken must be carried throughout the leg.
arus1204dt	Shake Your Pan or Shake Your Booty	Burkina Faso	Shake Your Pan: Choose a gold-panning site and use local methods to pan for one ounce of gold. Shake Your Booty: Learn a traditional local dance and perform it in front of a three-judge panel, adding freestyle moves. If the judges disapprove, a ten-minute penalty must be served before receiving the clue. (This Detour has a U-Turn attached.)
arus1204rb	Deliver Supplies on Bicycle	Burkina Faso	Who's ready for a juggling act?: Load a large assortment of supplies (including a goat) onto a bike, then ride it to a nearby market and deliver everything to a marked vendor.

arus1205rb	Deliver Items	Lithuania	Who's a good listener?: Collect a package from a nearby woman, deliver it on foot through the Old Quarter to Vilnius University, then deliver a package from its recipient to a second person in one of four locations. Delivery addresses are only given verbally.
arus1205ri	No Place Like Gnome	Lithuania	Search a folk museum village for a gnome matching a provided photo among dozens of decoy gnomes, then take it to the village church. Lithuania is not the "land of gnomes", Phil.
arus1205dt	Count Down or Step Up	Lithuania	Count Down: Walk to a midsummer festival and count the number of pickets on a marked fence while the locals try to distract you. Step Up: Stiltwalk along a marked course without falling.

arus1206ri	Take Flight	Croatia	Walk to the Fort of St. Lawrence's rooftop, then ride a tandem zipline across the harbour to the roof of Fort Bokar.
arus1206dt	Short & Long or Long & Short	Croatia	Short & Long: Abseil down Fort Bokar one at a time, walk to the City Wall, then use a rope ladder to scale the wall before walking a long distance to Tig Oruzja. Long & Short: Ride a tandem zipline from Fort Bokar into the harbour, swim to a pontoon, row a boat around the City Wall to a dock, then walk a short distance to Tig Oruzja. The clue lists the tasks as "Short & Long?" or "Long & Short?". This is the first (and to date only) Detour in which it is physically impossible to switch either task once it has been started.
arus1207ff	Get Tattoo	Italy	Drive to Fabio Studios and complete a mystery task: getting a tattoo each. Both partners must get the set design. The design is two F's (for "Fast Forward")... in the same font as the F written on a shirt worn by one member of the last-placed team throughout the leg.
arus1207rb	Search from Ultralight	Italy	Who's feeling ultra light of heart?: Ride in an Ultralight and search the area within a six-mile radius for a large sign on the ground showing a mystery word, directing the pilot. The Ultralight must return to refuel every 30 minutes.
arus1207dt	Invention or Tradition	Italy	Invention: Walk to a courtyard and assemble a crane invented by Da Vinci, using only a finished example for reference, then lift up a stone and use a mirror to read a clue on its base. Tradition: Travel to Piazza Guido Masi, then learn and perform a flag-throwing routine. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg. (It's a deliberate choice to introduce the twist here - with Italy this leg and India next, it's a callback to the very first non-elimination in season one.)
arus1208ri	News of the World	India	Upon arrival in Mumbai, travel to the M.R. Naik newspaper stall and buy a copy of The Times of India, then search it for a clue disguised as an advertisement.
arus1208sb	Perform Yoga	India	Travel to Daria Mahal and find a yogi, then follow his examples to replicate a series of yoga poses.
arus1208dt	Paste 'Em or Thread 'Em	India	Paste 'Em: Travel to Dadar West Bridge and paste a six-panel Bollywood film poster on its underpass correctly. Thread 'Em: Travel to a marked stall at Dadar Flower Market, thread 108 flowers onto a traditional wedding garland, then follow the sound of music to a nearby wedding and give it to the groom. (This Detour has a U-Turn attached.)
arus1208rb	Deliver Propane Gas	India	Who's got a strong back and good navigational skills?: Load six tanks of propane onto a flatbed bicycle, ride to two addresses, and deliver three tanks to each before returning. Teams have the same addresses, but deliveries must be made to different floors.
arus1209ri1	Lost and Fort	Japan	Upon landing in Osaka, travel to Kishiwada Castle and search the grounds for the next clue.

arus1209rb	Drive a Taxi	Japan	Who's the backseat driver?: Drive a taxi through Osaka to deliver a couple to an address five miles away, then return to the start with the clue before reading it. No following locals; the couple will not help navigate.
arus1209dt	Sense of Touch or Sense of Smell	Japan	Sense of Touch: Walk to the Shimojima Building and use phones to control a soccer-playing robot, scoring one goal each against two robotic defenders. Sense of Smell: Walk to Seara Flower Shop and use only your nose to find a real flower hidden among thousands of fake flowers in the two-level building. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arus1210cc	Hole in One	Japan	Find "the building with a hole in it", then search the Floating Garden for a clue.
arus1210rb	Take a Tricky Ride	Taiwan	Who's ready to go for a tricky ride?: Ride in a stuntcar as it is driven on and off a giant seesaw 25 feet in the air, then switch to an amphibious jeep and hold your breath as it is driven across the bottom of a pool.
arus1210sb	Run Through Fireworks	Taiwan	Travel one mile to a field, put on safety gear, then run through a gauntlet of fireworks before being doused with ice water. In keeping with the weird placements of early Yields, this Speed Bump is placed after the Road Block was performed but before the next clue was given.
arus1210ri	Bottoms Up	Taiwan	Travel to GK Teahouse in Taipei and each drink a cup of tea to reveal a clue on the base of the cups.
arus1210cc	Clowning Around	Taiwan	Have the clue from the above task translated from Chinese, then follow its instructions: travelling to Gong Guan Night Market and finding a happy clown. Yes, Jennifer. You search a happy cow. Take all the time you need.
arus1210dt	Fire or Earth	Taiwan	Fire: Travel to Zhongzheng Park and write messages on paper lanterns, then light them and release them into the night sky. Earth: Travel to Youth Park, then walk barefoot along a 220-foot path of pointy rocks and back.
arus1211ri1	Supply & Demand	United States	Upon landing in Anchorage, travel to 6th Avenue Outfitters and collect a bag of supplies for use in the next task.
arus1211dt	Cut the Cod or Grab the Crab	United States	Cut the Cod: Choose a pile of cod and cut through the fish to find a capsule with a clue inside. Only one fish in the pile has a capsule. Grab the Crab: Enter a boat hold filled with 500 live crabs and search for the one marked with a small flag.
arus1211ri2	The Big Freeze	United States	Travel by taxi and boat to the base of 20-Mile Glacier, then climb up the ice wall to reach the next clue.
arus1211rb	Final Road Block	United States	Who wants to relive your experience on the race? Memory and logic are key.: Select ten objects from fifteen seen during the race and place them on stage to fit a list of conditions. No notes; no hints are given after wrong guesses. Requirements: One item per prior leg; three animals or by-products; one U-Turn; two items at or taken to a Pit Stop; two wheeled forms of transport, one used in a Detour; and one form of transport shaped like a stick. While the puzzle is exceedingly complex, even by final task standards, if you take the steps in the right order it's possible to solve the puzzle without referencing the requirements for either Detour bikes or stick-shaped transports.
arus1211cc	Peeping James	United States	Find "a Cook's-eye view of the Sleeping Lady".
Season Thirteen
arus1301ri	Hot Stuff Coming Through	Brazil	Wheel a local coffee cart loaded with supplies through the streets to Praça da Se, picking up anything which drops along the way.
arus1301dt	Hard Way Up or Soft Way Down	Brazil	Hard Way Up: Travel to Escadaria do Passo and climb the staircase on all fours, then correctly answer a mystery question (the number of stairs) at the top. Fail and walk around the block to the base of the stairs before trying again. Soft Way Down: Travel to Elevador Lacerda and climb down a 240-foot cargo net to the street below. Only three teams can be on the net at a time. This is the last time this version has a Detour in the first leg of the season.

arus1302dt	Beach It or Docket	Brazil	Beach It: Drive a dune buggy to Pecém Beach, then use rolling logs to transport a 440lb boat across the beach into an inlet 100 yards away. Docket: Drive a dune buggy to the Port of Pecém and use a computer to find a seven-digit number in a database, matching it to a shipping company, then search the relevant area of the port for the container with the number.
arus1302rb	In Plain Sight	Brazil	[Hint not revealed]: Search a 600-foot wall covered in Portuguese-language advertisement paintings for the name of the Pit Stop. Among the other “advertisements” is the usual “Hurry! The last team to check in may be eliminated!” clue message translated into Portuguese.
arus1303ri1	Ads Entertainment	Bolivia	Upon arrival in La Paz, travel to the statue of Simon Bolivar and wait for a stack of newspapers to be delivered in the morning, then take one and search the classifieds for a hidden clue written in English.
arus1303ri2	Hold on to Your Hat	Bolivia	Travel to Narvaez Hat Shop and buy a cholita hat for use later in the leg.
arus1303dt	Musical March or Bumpy Ride	Bolivia	Musical March: Travel on foot to collect marching band members from three plazas, then lead them through the streets to Plaza Abaroa. Bumpy Ride: Walk to Mercado de las Brujas, then each ride a wooden bike down the cobblestone streets to Plaza Abaroa. (This Detour has a U-Turn attached.) Phil's explanation only says there are two plazas in Musical March, but the clue clearly lists three.
arus1303rb	Fighting Cholitas	Bolivia	Who's ready to pick a fight?: Select a Fighting Cholita and give her your hat, then work with her to learn a six-stage wrestling routine before performing it with her in front of a crowd. “In this Road Block, that person has to set aside all decorum and fight a girl.” Oh, Phil. You know wrestling's not real, right?
arus1304ri1	Untie the Knot	New Zealand	Upon landing in Auckland, drive to Gulf Harbour and find a Gordian knot on the docks, then untie it to release a clue.
arus1304ff	Climb Auckland Sky Tower	New Zealand	Drive to the SkyTower and climb up the maintenance ladders from the SkyDeck to the top of the spire, collect a product-placed gnome, and come back down. The winners are taken to the Pit Stop in a helicopter to celebrate. (Phil's dad is the greeter, but more importantly: the helicopter leaves Auckland from Ardmore Airfield, one of the Pit Stops from season two's visit to New Zealand.)
arus1304rb	Match Maōri Tattoo	New Zealand	Who's got an eye for detail?: Collect a card showing a Maōri facial tattoo, then search a group of haka-performing Maōri for the one with the matching tattoo. Fail and collect a new card with a different image before trying again.
arus1304ri2	Spot Gnome	New Zealand	Use binoculars to find one of eight product-placed gnomes hidden throughout the buildings and parks in the surrounding area, then collect it. The CityLife hotel, where this task was staged, was also used for the contestant residence on New Zealand's version of The Apprentice . arus1304dt	Matter of Time or Matter of Skill	New Zealand	Matter of Time: Drive to a nearby orchard and climb into a tank of kiwifruit, working barefoot to crush them on rocks at the bottom and fill a tank with twelve quarts of juice, then each drink a glass of the juice. Matter of Skill: Drive to Blokart Heaven and each assemble a Blokart, then steer yourself around three laps of a track.
arus1305ri	Fill Gas Tank	Cambodia	Use a hand pump to fill a truck's fuel tank with 25 litres of diesel.
arus1305dt	Village Life or Village Work	Cambodia	Village Life: Travel by boat around a floating village to collect three items, using the collected basketball to score a goal each before leaving, then deliver them to the dock. Village Work: Travel by boat to a fishing area and wade through the waist-deep water to find two baskets filled with fish, then deliver them to the dock. Not every basket contains fish.
arus1305rb	Search Temple	Cambodia	Who has a better sense of direction?: Search the grounds of Angkor Wat for a small vestibule known as the Chamber of Echoes, then thump your chest so it echoes before picking up a clue.

arus1306rb	Go Green	India	Who's got an eye for artistic flair?: Cover the windows and canopy of a tuktuk with newspaper, then spraypaint the black section of the shell green.
arus1306dt	Launder Money or Launder Clothes	India	Launder Money: Travel to a banquet hall and collect a necklace shell, finish it by adding ten notes of Indian currency equalling exactly 780 rupees (exchanging your own money as needed), then return and give it to one of the grooms in a communal wedding. Launder Clothes: Travel to an outdoor laundry and use charcoal-heated irons to press twenty pieces of clothing. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arus1307rb	Holi Festival	India	Who's ready for a colourful experience?: Enter a recreation of the Holi Festival and climb a ladder to search among hundreds of clue envelopes for one of six marked with the show's name, while powdered dye is pelted at you.
arus1307ri	The Birds	India	Travel to the Charity Birds Hospital in Old Delhi, then search the building's cages for a hidden clue.
arus1307sb	Serve Holy Water	India	Travel to Gurudwars Sis Ganj Sahib Sikh temple and serve cups of holy water to a crowd of worshippers until everyone is satiated. The sign for this task is at the bird hospital and the task must be completed before searching the cages.
arus1307dt	Bleary Eyed or Teary Eyed	India	Bleary Eyed: Travel to Nai Sarak Street and walk along it while memorising a list of numbers on small tags attached to the overhead power lines, then give the full list to a waiting man who will direct you to the cluegiver. Teary Eyed: Travel to Ram Bhandar spice store and collect a sack of dried chillies each, carry them a quarter of a mile to Shwan Kumar and Sons, then use mortars and pestles to grind them into powder until a container is full to the marked line.
arus1308ff	Eat Local Delicacy	Kazakhstan	Travel to Alasha Restaurant and complete a mystery task: eating a serving of korduk (a local dish made with the fat from a sheep rump) each.
arus1308rb	Search for Golden Egg	Kazakhstan	Who's feeling peckish?: Enter a warehouse filled with over 30,000 chickens and search for one of seven golden eggs on the ground.
arus1308ri	Warriors Gate	Kazakhstan	Navigate a waiting truck to Kok Tobe Arch and hike down a trail to a group of warriors, then wait for a falcon to deliver the next clue.
arus1308dt	Play Like Mad or Act Like Fools	Kazakhstan	Play Like Mad: Travel to the Museum of Folk Musical Instruments and learn to play a traditional tune on two local instruments, then perform in a park to earn the equivalent of $1.50 in tips. Act Like Fools: Travel to the Almaty State Puppet Theatre and dress as a panto cow, walk through the streets to a milk stand and drink a glass of milk, then walk to the place marked on the empty glass. "We're sorry about Borat. Here, let us promote your country by making people run through the streets dressed as cows!"
arus1309ri	Clues by Candlelight	Russia	Upon landing in Moscow, travel to Krutitsy Monastery and light a candle inside its cathedral.
arus1309dt	Boots or Borscht	Russia	Boots: Learn a traditional Russian parade march, then march one lap of the parade grounds in sync with a group of soldiers. Borscht: Walk to a mess tent and serve a bowl of borscht to each of 75 waiting soldiers. Borscht is a Ukrainian dish. And also doesn't look nearly as transparent.
arus1309rb	Deliver Bags of Flour	Russia	Who has a strong back?: Transfer fifty 55lb sacks of flour from a delivery truck into an adjacent bakery, stacking them correctly and without any items to help carry them. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arus1310ri1	Cold War	Russia	Travel to Severnoye Tushino Park and find a waiting submarine, then search it for an actor who appeared in The Hunt for Red October .
arus1310rb	Solve Clues	Russia	Who's good at solving mysteries, literally?: Count the Lenin and Stalin statues in Park Iskusstv, travel to a bookstore and give the totals (as a two-digit number) to the owner to get a book, then use the text on that page number to find a cluebox at the author's apartment. Give the wrong answers and wait ten minutes before trying again.

arus1310ri2	Big Park, Small Horse	Russia	Travel to Sokolniki Park and find a lady with a Shetland pony. The graphics misspell "Sokolniki".
arus1310sb	Perform Russian Dance	Russia	Walk to a group of Russian dancers and perform with them for one song, mimicking their moves to their instructor's satisfaction. arus1310dt	Ride the Rails or Ride the Lines	Russia	Ride the Rails: Take a train to Ulitsa 1905 station, collect a samsa from a marked kiosk, then take it by train to Kitay-Gorod station and deliver it to a lady waiting at a nearby statue. Ride the Lines: Take a trolleybus to Krasnoselskaya train station and collect a key from a keymaker, then take it by trolleybus to Rizhskaya train station and open a storage locker. I've simplified it slightly - after finishing both, teams must continue on their chosen form of transport to VDNKh Park train station and search for the clue. arus1311dt	High & Dry or Low & Wet	United States	High & Dry: One at a time, climb a 30-foot tree, walk across a 40-foot horizontal log, then jump to grab half of a clue from a trapeze. Low & Wet: Walk 850 feet across a bridge of floating logs to a cluebox. With the safety briefing High & Dry would have had, Low & Wet is clearly the easier and faster option, which makes it shocking nobody picked it.
arus1311ri1	Jump Off a Bridge	United States	Travel to the Bridge of the Gods and each ride a 2000-foot zipline to an island in the waters below.
arus1311ri2	Elementary, My Dear Keoghan	United States	Season memory. Working one leg at a time, uncover a symbol representing part of the leg (route marker, Detour, Road Block, or Pit Stop) and search a field of 150 clueboxes for one containing a photo representing it. Get it right to move on; get all ten right and run to a nearby bridge with a clue on it.
arus1311ri3	Step Back in Time	United States	"Near the Portland Building there's a green dinosaur. Find it."
arus1311ri4	Cart Blanche	United States	Walk to the Alder Street cart pod and find a food cart selling food from the last country visited during the race.
arus1311ri5	Oh Ho Ho It's Magic	United States	"Travel on foot to the place where the magic is in the hole."

Season Fourteen

arus1401cc	Lost in the Mail	Switzerland	Find the next destination given only a postcard showing a photo of it. arus1401rb	70-Storey Bungy Jump	Switzerland	Who has nerves of steel?: Bungy jump 70 storeys from Verzasca Dam. The graphics misspell both "storey" and "bungy".
arus1401ri1	Transport Cheese	Switzerland	Carry an "antique" wooden carrier each up a steep hill, load two large wheels of cheese onto them, then walk back down to deliver the cheese to the bottom.
arus1401ri2	The Hills are Alive	Switzerland	Upon arrival in Stechelberg, follow the sound of yodellers to the Pit Stop, where they are the greeters.
arus1402rb	Paraglide	Germany	Who's ready to fly like an eagle?: Tandem paraglide with a professional from 6000 feet. If wind conditions are unsafe, either wait or take a "one-hour" hike on a marked trail to the same landing site. Two odd things: This is basically an old-style "heights or hike" Detour recycled as a Road Block (the only time paragliding was used in the past, the alternative was a long bike ride), and Phil's explanation omits the usual spiel about what a Road Block is but acts as if it hadn't, with a "that member must..." beginning.
arus1402dt	Balancing Dolly or Austrian Folly	Germany	Balancing Dolly: Ride a Segway each along a two-mile trail with several small obstacles. Austrian Folly: Take turns throwing traditional Austrian cakes at each other's faces, searching for one with a cherry filling. I haven't been able to confirm or deny, but apparently there's a reason for the Austrian-task-in-Germany thing - it was planned for an Austrian town but was moved at the last minute when it was realised it was where Hitler was born. (This could also explain the otherwise random Pit Stop in Salzburg, especially odd when teams were forced back through Germany at the start of the next leg.)

arus1402ri	Cutaway	Germany	Collect a log from an unspecified location, then take it to the Holzsaeger and wait for a coin-operated woodcutter display to saw a slice from the log. The log delivery half is not mentioned, and is only known because a team got lost while carrying their log. arus1403rb	Perform Gymnastics	Romania	Who's ready to access their inner Nadia?: Watch gymnasts perform gymnastics moves, then replicate them on the appropriate apparatuses (beam, parallel bars, and floor) to the coach's satisfaction. Nine moves, one at a time; no skipping. "Nadia" as in "Comaneci"; the task was filmed at the gym where she once trained. Despite being corrected, the show deliberately chose to mispronounce her name because it wasn't how Americans pronounced it. arus1403dt	Gypsy Moves or Vampire Remains	Romania	Gypsy Moves: Travel to a Roma camp and load a variety of items onto a horse-drawn cart, then steer 300 yards to a new campsite and unload it, all with the Roma assisting. Vampire Remains: Travel to a forest and drag a chained coffin to a clearing, unlock the chains, and impale the wooden boxes inside on stakes until a flag is released from one of them.
arus1404ri	Cash In	Russia	Upon landing in Krasnoyarsk, travel to the location shown on a provided ten-rouble note.
arus1404dt	Stack or Construct	Russia	Stack: Travel to the riverbank and use traditional methods to stack a large pile of firewood to match the example. Construct: Walk to a workshed and build a set of wooden shutters to match the example, then carry them to a nearby house and install them. (This Detour has a Blind U-Turn attached.) arus1404rb	Bobsled	Russia	Who's ready to speed read?: Bobsled down a three-mile course in four minutes or less, memorising seven letters on signs along the way. If they are all found, walk to a nearby clearing and arrange tiles with those letters to spell the name of a famous Russian playwright. Hardest part: Knowing about the existence of Chekhov. (Even the editors show two C's instead of two H's in the task explanation footage.) arus1405dt	Russian Bride or Russian Snowplow	Russia	Russian Bride: Drive to a Soviet-era apartment block and find an apartment with a bride waiting inside, then drive her across town to her wedding. Russian Snowplow: Drive to Spartak Stadium and each steer an industrial snowplow through a marked course, one at a time. Russia = Mail order brides! (Not helped by all the grooms being men in military uniform, or by Phil calling it "an unavoidable part" of local life.) arus1405rb	Run Winter Marathon	Russia	Who has stamina and absolutely no shame?: Complete a ten-minute warmup with a pair of locals, then strip to your underwear and run 1.4 miles through the streets of Novosibirsk to the Pit Stop. If this is as traditional as claimed, why is it such a spectacle to the locals? Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arus1406ri	Tree Rings	India	Upon landing in Jaipur, find the Peepli ka Pedh tree near Dhula, then work out that the clue must be obtained by calling a number marked on a waiting phone. arus1406rb	Care for Camel	India	Who wants to be a Maharajah's caregiver?: Use provided items to transfer water and camel feed across a clearing, filling a trough until the water spills out a hole and stacking the feed around a pole until it reaches a marker.
arus1406sb	Decorate Elephant	India	Travel to Kala Hanuman Temple and paint a waiting elephant's trunk and ears for a festival. arus1406dt	Movers or Shakers	India	Movers: Collect cycle rickshaws loaded with barrels of hay from one side of the Old City, ride a mile and a half to the other side, then search the hay for a small metal elephant. Shakers: Travel to a busy intersection and dress in traditional outfits, then dance for locals to earn 100 rupees in tips. Yes, begging for money on the streets of India. And it was clearly the desired task when the other option involved stamina, navigation, and luck and was directly after a Road Block designed to drain players' energy. arus1407cc	On the Hunt	Thailand	Upon landing in Phuket, find the gorilla in a provided photo. It was just a statue. (Sigh.) And gorillas aren't native to Asia. Just FYI.

arus1407ri1	Dolittle	Thailand	Pose for a photo with a tiger, then lay on the ground as an elephant walks and squats over you before getting the photo, which has the clue on it. Shorter explanation: Yay, performing animals! (It may not be coincidental that the tiger keeper has only one arm.)
arus1407ri2	Luck of the Drawer	Thailand	Travel to Nguan Choon Tong Herbs Shop, then take turns with any other present teams to have the owner open one of 99 herb drawers in search of a clue. One clue per correct drawer.
arus1407dt	100 Barrels or 2 Miles	Thailand	100 Barrels: Load 100 barrels onto a fishing boat, with 53 empty barrels on the roof and filling 47 with water on the deck. 2 Miles: Collect a rickshaw from a temple and travel two miles on foot to King Rama IX Park, with one partner pulling the other. Switching is allowed; no following taxis. A rickshaw challenge in Asia. With cone hats as costumes. In a country where neither is that traditional. Remember when this show used to, you know, try?
arus1408rb	Attach Propeller	Thailand	Who's ready to propel their team forward?: Attach a propeller to a longboat, using only a finished version for reference. In the show's 173rd leg, this is the first time teams took commercial domestic flights in an Asian country. (At the time of writing it's only happened twice more since, but it's much more common in other franchises.)
arus1408dt	Broken Teeth or Broken Record	Thailand	Broken Teeth: Find the "Street of Happy Smiles" and search among 50 dentures in bowls for the dentures belonging to five waiting locals. Broken Record: Travel to a parking lot in China town and ride along a five-mile roundtrip course with a group of locals, using a karaoke machine to sing along with a Thai pop song the entire time. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arus1409sb	Wash and Dry Hair	China	Shampoo, wash, and dry the hair of two waiting locals. That's it. They don't even have to go anywhere, since the clue was already at the salon used. (And what does it have to do with China?)
arus1409rb	Cormorant Fishing	China	Who's ready for some fowl play?: Ride on a raft into the river with a fisherman and a cormorant, then throw ten fish into the nearby water for the cormorant to collect, one at a time.
arus1409dt	Choreography or Calligraphy	China	Choreography: Walk to a dance class on a nearby island, then learn and correctly perform a ballroom routine to the teacher's satisfaction. Calligraphy: Walk to a calligraphy station and follow a demonstration to write a set of Chinese symbols correctly, then use them to find the next station, repeating until the fourth set of symbols is copied.
arus1409cc	Drawn Out	China	Travel on foot to the location where a provided sketch of the nearby Sun and Moon Pagodas was made.
arus1410rb	Get Foot Massage	China	Who's feeling manipulative?: Drink a cup of herbal tea, receive a painful ten-minute foot massage without having the masseurs stop, then drink another cup.
arus1410dt	Sync or Swim	China	Sync: Dive off parallel 3m springboards, landing in a pool simultaneously and earning maximum scores of 5 from each of two judges. Swim: Put on bodysuits like those worn in the Beijing Olympics and swim 400m in relay, switching after every 100m. Even players don't get why Michael Phelps's 400m freestyle time is part of the task. (This also makes the choice of Pit Stop odd - the US volleyball team's coach was murdered at the Drum Tower while attending the games.) There is no rest period at this leg's Pit Stop and the episode ends with the first team arriving. (The format has been adapted slightly from the last time the twist was used - they are now explicitly two separate legs, and the first team to arrive at this Pit Stop still gets a prize.)

arus1411ri	Find Roaming Gnome	China	Search Beihai Street Mall on foot for one of four product-placed gnomes hidden in shops. The gnomes are hidden in different shops.
arus1411dt	Beijing Opera or Chinese Waiter	China	Beijing Opera: Travel to an opera theatre and put Chinese opera makeup on each other to match the examples, then dress in costumes. Chinese Waiter: Travel to a restaurant and take a table of orders in Mandarin, then recite them perfectly to the chef before serving the dishes correctly. (This Detour has a U-Turn attached.) "Two local Beijing professions famous throughout the world". Bit of a stretch there, Phil.
arus1411rb	Eat Street Food	China	Who's got a taste for adventure?: Eat servings of fried grasshoppers, scorpions, and beetle larvae, and a whole fried starfish. It's never mentioned as such, but the marked where this task is held also held a similar Road Block in season one. (Arguably this precedes the twist of recycling a task at its original location, introduced in the next season, but since that twist has been modified to just recycling a task the honor of being first would surely have to go to the Ropes/Slopes Detour used in different places in seasons three and four?)
arus1412ri1	Hamming it Up	United States	Travel to a beachside clearing, coat a 145lb pig in herbs, then use a pole to carry it 200 yards to a luau before covering it for cooking in a traditional manner, with only a finished example for reference. This was one half of a Detour – even without behind-the-scenes knowledge, the clue for the task has a yellow back – but all teams chose it and the other option is edited out. (This is the last time this version has a Detour in the final leg.)
arus1412ri2	Sharks and/or Jets	United States	Travel to McGregor Point and drive a jetski to a group of 100 buoys anchored a mile offshore, then search for one of three with attached clues.
arus1412rb	Surfboard Fence	United States	Who's ready to build something from memory?: Search a pile of surfboards with images on them to find images representing each of the first eleven legs, leaning them on a frame in chronological order. Between images that are hard to identify (stylised cormorants), those which are tenuous links at best (a reflexology diagram for the foot massage), and those that were never actually seen (a generic religious image for Leg 1's church), only about half of the right surfboards make sense.

Season Fifteen

arus1501ri1	Fencing Match	United States	Search among over 1000 license plates hanging from a fence for one of eleven from the first destination, a region in Tokyo and bring it to Phil to earn flight tickets. The kanji symbols for the region's name are provided in the clue; the last team searching is immediately eliminated.
arus1501rb	Wheel of Misfortune	Japan	[Hint not revealed]: As a roulette wheel loaded with ten pieces of sushi and two "wasabi bombs" (wasabi temaki) spins, eat whatever stops in front of you. Finish a wasabi bomb within two minutes. Not only is the hint not revealed, nobody is even shown collecting the clue for the task, which only starts once everyone has arrived. (Part of it is probably due to at least one route marker and an overnight stay being edited out, but still.) arus1501ri2	Konichi Tour	Japan	Collect twenty audience members wearing visors of the same colour, then lead them on foot to the Pit Stop, travelling via the Shibuya Scramble Crossing. Shibuya a pointless detour on the route, AND the editing of this episode wrongly implied the Road Block took place clear on the other side of Tokyo. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arus1502sb	Serve Soup	Vietnam	Walk to a nearby soup stand and order the ingredients for pho, then return to the start and serve the soup to a waiting dockmaster.
arus1502ri	Root Info	Vietnam	Travel by sampan to a nearby orchard, then use buckets to transfer mud from a docked sampan to a tree, filling the marked area around it to reach a marker.

arus1502rb	Duck Herding	Vietnam	Who's feeling just ducky?: Use two flags on poles to herd 150 ducks from a small corral across a bridge, then back over and into the corral. Three players can try at a time; fail to finish within ten minutes and return to the back of the line. During the Pit Stop, teams are taken to My Tho, but are not told where they are.
arus1503ri	Dragon Dance	Vietnam	Travel to the Golden Dragon Water Puppet Theatre, then grab a clue from the mouth of a water dragon puppet without entering its pool.
arus1503cc	Mail Away	Vietnam	Find the next destination, given only a postage stamp showing a photo of it.
arus1503dt	Child's Play or Word Play	Vietnam	Child's Play: Travel to Tao Dan Park and select a cement zoo animal statue from a kiosk, then wheel it across the park to a playground, collecting five balloons along the way. Word Play: Travel to Hotel A Dong and go to the roof, then search for six Vietnamese letters visible on moving vehicles in a crowded roundabout before asking locals to rearrange them into a common Vietnamese word.
arus1503rb	Chop Shop	Vietnam	Who's ready for a complete breakdown?: Use provided tools to disassemble two VCRs, sorting their component pieces into adjacent piles.
arus1504ri1	Give Me Assign	Cambodia	Upon landing in Phnom Penh, travel to the Foreign Correspondents' Club and find the assignment editor, then ask for the "next assignment".
arus1504cc	Photographic Memory	Cambodia	Identify the woman shown in a provided photo and find the hotel with a suite named after her, then search the hotel for a larger version of the photo. Surprisingly hard for Americans to identify Jacqueline freaking Kennedy .
arus1504dt	Cover or Wrap	Cambodia	Cover: Travel to a motorcycle helmet and sell a set of four helmets to two adults and two children for US$10. Wrap: Find a specific stall in the Russian Market and collect a silk scarf, then search the market for a woman in a matching scarf and bring her back. I'm sure motorbike helmets are needed in Cambodia, but that's at least two or three coincidences too many (family of four, with that specific composition, who fit in the helmets, who are willing to buy them, and who have American currency in their possession) to suspend disbelief that the task isn't totally staged.
arus1504rb	Perform Monkey Act	Cambodia	Who's ready to go bananas?: Dressed in a monkey mask, learn and perform three traditional Khmer monkey dance elements on a balance beam. Season 13: Wrestling at high altitude. Season 14: Gymnastics with a Romanian coach. Season 15: Cross a ground-level log three times. Not that this race is notably easier than usual or anything.
arus1505cc	Sky High	United Arab Emirates	Fly to "the Persian Gulf" and find "the world's tallest building". It wasn't officially the tallest until it was complete; at the time it was Taipei 101.
arus1505ff	Drive Autodrome	United Arab Emirates	Drive to Dubai Autodrome and have one partner complete a lap of the track in an F3 racecar, finishing within 45 seconds or less. The winners are taken to the Pit Stop in a Maserati to celebrate.
arus1505rb	Find Water	United Arab Emirates	Who thinks they can beat the desert heat?: Search a set of sand dunes on foot for buried, water-filled urns, using a ladle to scoop water into a traditional satchel. Not every urn contains water.
arus1505dt	Build a Snowman or Find a Snowman	United Arab Emirates	Build a Snowman: Transport artificial snow from Ski Dubai to a marked area outside, then build a snowman with it and provided props. Find a Snowman: Take a chairlift to the top of an indoor ski hill and sled back down, then search a giant pile of artificial snow for a small toy snowman.
arus1506rb	Crack the Code	United Arab Emirates	Who wants to row, row, row their boat?: Row and inflatable boat to a yacht anchored offshore, collect a watch, then return to shore and use it to open a locked briefcase. It's supposed to be a "puzzle" to figure out the time on the watch is the briefcase combination, but... what other purpose could the watch serve in this context? This is the third time this task has been tried; in both previous instances (season ten in Mauritius and season eleven in Poland) it was edited out for being lame.

arus1506dt	Gold or Glass	United Arab Emirates	Gold: Travel to Deepu Jewellers and use a precision scale to measure $500,000 of gold, using the shown exchange rate to work out how much is needed. Glass: Travel to Deira Spice Market and assemble twelve hookahs in three styles, using examples of each style for reference and finding the pieces in a large crate.
arus1506ri	Slides of March	United Arab Emirates	Travel to the Aquaventure theme park and find the Leap of Faith waterslide, then slide down it one at a time.
arus1507rb	Counting Bells	Netherlands	Who's got strong legs and keen eyes?: Climb to the Martinitoren bell tower and correctly count the number of bells. The hint is a deliberate callback to the very first aired Road Block, which involved climbing the Eiffel Tower. (It was also used for the Sri Lanka Road Block in season six.)
arus1507dt	Farmer's Game or Farmer's Dance	Netherlands	Farmers' Game: Cycle to a creek, strip to your underwear and swim across, then complete each three farmersgolf holes in eight strokes or less, alternating shots. Farmers' Dance: Cycle to a local "festival" and hit the bell on a high striker, then learn and correctly perform a Dutch folk dance, then each eat a soused herring. The high striker and herring were clearly added to make it less obvious the latter task was much easier. (Ironically, it didn't end up being easier at all.)
arus1508ri2	Coneheads	Sweden	Ring toss. A set of cones are presented as targets, some of which have product-placed gnomes beneath; get a ring around a gnome's cone to get the clue.
arus1508dt	Nobel Dynamite or Viking Alphabet	Sweden	Nobel Dynamite: Travel to a quarry and fill and stack enough sandbags to make a safety bunker, then set off an explosion to unearth a buried box with a clue inside. Viking Alphabet: Travel to a Viking camp and use translation runes to decode a message, then follow its instructions to find a cluegiver nearby. Seriously, the Viking one is so much quicker. Why didn't anyone pick it? Oh, right. Big dynamite go boom. Never mind.
arus1508rb	Switchback Hay Bales	Sweden	Who thinks they can spot a needle in a haystack?: Select one of 186 haybales in a field and unroll it, looking for one of seven flags, then run to the nearby Pit Stop. Presented as though it's recycled from season six, this one actually has worse odds than the original (where there were 20 clues in 270 bales), even before you note the flags are harder to see than clue envelopes. (Since the route was heavily reworked because of the swine flu outbreak shortly before filming, it's likely this leg was a last-minute replacement, justifying the recycled task.) Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arus1509ri	Through the Keyhole	Estonia	Upon arrival in Tallinn, travel to Mustpeade Maja and work out how to open the door using a provided ring of keys.
arus1509sb	Take a Sauna	Estonia	Find a saunabuss parked nearby and sit in a sauna with locals for five minutes.
arus1509rb	Solve Secret Message	Estonia	Who can solve a Medieval mystery?: Collect a candelabra with a room number attached from the basement, search the building for that room, and use the candelabra to read a clue written on a scroll in invisible ink.
arus1509dt	Serve or Sling	Estonia	Serve: Score five points playing volleyball against a pair of locals in a waist-deep bog. Sling: Walk across a bog and use slingshots to hit a round target with vegetables, causing a pile of cabbages to drop and reveal the clue. Both tasks first require travelling to Keava Raba. Matching inexplicable crotch pixellation optional.
arus1510dt	Fast & Furious or Slow & Steady	Czech Republic	Fast and Furious: Paddle a two-person inflatable canoe down a whitewater course to collect a ribbon hanging overhead. Slow & Steady: Pull yourselves along a rope suspended directly above the canoe course, collecting a ribbon each at the far end. The clue teams get calls the tasks "Fast" and "Slow".

arus1510cc	Czech it Out	Czech Republic	Use only the Czech words written on the ribbons from the Detour to find the next destination.
arus1510rb	Find Mandolin	Czech Republic	Who can remain composed under pressure?: Search the seating sections of the Estates Theatre for a miniature mandolin, then bring it on stage. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arus1511sb	Drink Absinthe	Czech Republic	Travel to M1 Lounge, then each prepare and drink a shot of absinthe.
arus1511rb	Kafka-Esque	Czech Republic	In order to obtain the impossible, one must attempt the absurd.: Search a room full of ringing phones for five with a person on the other end and obtain a letter from each, then fill out a survey and correctly arrange the five letters to spell a mystery word. No notes. You wouldn't think "Franz" (Kafka's first name) would be hard to unscramble. But then again, this has been that kind of season.
arus1511ri	Cold Comfort	Czech Republic	Change into swimsuits and spend two minutes in a cryotherapy chamber. Terrible task, and not just because the "do this for X minutes" format is directly opposed to the basic concept of the show. Here, the cameras couldn't even get a clear shot with all of the mist in the chamber fogging up the door.
arus1511dt	Legend or Lager	Czech Republic	Legend: Completely cover a wooden dummy with clay to make a golem, then use a handcart to deliver it to the Old-New Synagogue. Lager: Travel to U Fleku brewery and load trays with 30 glasses of beer, then carry them across the Old Town to Kozicka Restaurant. What kind of bar – especially one in a country where beer-drinking habits are apparently noteworthy – needs people to carry individual glasses of beer across town to serve customers?
arus1512rb	Face-First Rappel	United States	Who's ready to climb down the mountain?: Abseil face-first 600 feet down the side of the Mandalay Bay casino.
arus1512ri1	All You Need is Flowers	United States	Work together to collect a suspended bunch of flowers, with one player attached to bungee cords and the other pulling them back by the feet to launch them like a slingshot. The entire bouquet must be collected.
arus1512cc	The Full Monte	United States	Find "the most famous casino in the country of Monaco". Monte Carlo, people. Not the Venetian. GOD.
arus1512ri2	Chip Counting	United States	Choose a table covered in 8400 casino chips worth four different values, then give a waiting dealer chips equal to exactly one million dollars. Allegedly, one of the dealers miscounted a correct guess, which would have put the affected team in first place.

Season Sixteen

arus1601rb	Walk Cable	Chile	Who has the balance of a cat and the courage of a lion?: Complete a 100-yard two-rope traverse suspended 120 feet above the ground. Aren't lions already cats?
arus1601ri	Paint Misbehavin'	Chile	Carry a set of painting supplies up Paseo Templeman to find a house matching the chosen paint colour, then paint the incomplete section of its facade.
arus1602dt	Llama Adoration or Condor Consternation	Chile	Llama Adoration: Walk to a llama pen and select a llama, then put a blanket and scarf on it for a local festival. Condor Consternation: Put on a two-person bird costume and jump from a pier into the water below, then swim to a buoy. I can't imagine why the former wasn't called Llama Adornation, given it makes the rhyme fit better, it's what the task involves, and Phil even makes a point of using the word "adorned" when explaining it. (Graphics simply call them "Llama" and "Condor", so it's probably a moot point.)

arus1602rb	Collect Ingredients	Chile	It's time to make the kuchen.: Travel around a farm collecting five ingredients (including freshly-squeezed milk) for a cake commonly made by local German immigrants, then bring them to the kitchen. Look, it's not that this leg was by far the easiest leg ever, beating even any from the Family Edition, it's that Phil specifically said last episode that this was "one of the most difficult and demanding races ever". Total false advertising.
arus1603ri	Gnome is Where the Card Is	Argentina	Upon arrival in San Carlos de Bariloche, drive to Boliche Viejo and win a game of five-card stud poker against a product-placed gnome to receive said gnome, which has a clue on its base.
arus1603rb	Steer Roping	Argentina	Who's ready to get roped into something?: Use a lasso to snag a haybale eighteen feet away (with horns attached for assistance), then pull it towards you.
arus1603dt	Horse Sense or Horse Power	Argentina	Horse Sense: Orienteering. Collect a set of coordinates, then use a stationary compass to follow all four and find a rope with a buried bag of coins attached. Each set of coordinates is different, and there are decoy bags. Horse Power: Score a polo goal by hitting a ball across a field in nine swings or less, alternating turns and carrying a wooden practice horse as needed.
arus1604irb	Bungy Jump	Germany	Who's ready to reach new heights?: Travel by train and on foot to Hamburg Harbour, then perform a tandem 150-foot bungy jump. Upon returning to the non-participating partners, the Intersection is over. So basically, there is literally no reason for the Intersection. One member from each team must still perform the two-person Road Block, but doing so makes what would have been a decent individual task (navigating public transport in an unfamiliar city plus heights plus navigating back) kind of lame. arus1604dt	Soccer or Sauerkraut	Germany	Soccer: Travel to Adolf-Jäger-Kampfbahn Stadium and take turns firing penalty kicks into a soccer goal, aiming to hit five suspended targets. Sauerkraut: Travel to Alt Hamburger Bürgerhaus and work together to eat a plate of sauerkraut while a band plays the Sauerkraut Polka, finishing before they do. arus1604ri	To Beer or Not To Beer...	Germany	"Share" a boot-shaped pitcher of beer, exchanging the empty boot for the clue. Both Phil's explanation and the clue for the task – on a sign, and thus clearly without additional information – go to great lengths to avoid saying you have to drink any of it. You can theoretically share it all with the bar's other patrons and still be following the rules of the task to the letter. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg. (During the Pit Stop, teams are taken to Les Monthairons, France, but are not told where they are.) arus1605ri1	Use Your Bread	France	Drive to Ste. Menehould and find Boulangerie Defontaine, then order a fresh baguette and work out that the next clue is baked inside.
arus1605sb	Reinforce Trench	France	Use provided branches to reinforce a trench wall. Zzzzzz. arus1605dt	In the Trenches or Under Fire	France	In the Trenches: Translate a six-word Morse code message. Under Fire: Crawl 100 yards beneath barbed wire to a machine gun nest, collect a message, and return to the start. (This Detour has a Blind U-Turn attached.) Both tasks, and the above Speed Bump, take place in a World War I recreation. Because CLASSY. (Not coincidentally, submitting this episode was the first time the show lost the "Outstanding Reality-Competition Program" Emmy.) arus1605ri2	Cycle to Pit Stop	France	Put on cycling uniforms similar to those worn in the first Tour de France, then ride an antique bike each four miles to the Pit Stop. arus1606cc	Arc of Infinity	France	Drive to Reims and find "the only outdoor statue of Joan of Arc". The clue also includes a "listen to what you saw" hint to a musical saw player, but... honestly, the statue is the hard part. Nobody else is around the statue, and she's kind of noisy anyway.

arus1606rb	Rappel and Search	France	Who's ready to cave in?: Perform a 100-foot free rappel into a wine storage cavern, search thousands of wine bottles for one of several marked with a small race flag, then return to the surface and use a sabre to pop the cork.
arus1606dt	Tower or Terra	France	Tower: Use 680 wine glasses to build a fifteen-level tower with one glass on top, then fill it with a magnum of champagne without breaking any glasses. Terra: Search a one-square-kilometre area of a vineyard for a bunch of grapes marked with a small race flag.
arus1607dt	Turtle Toddle or Ox Trot	Seychelles	Turtle Toddle: Use one banana to coax a giant tortoise across a marked course, then carry a bushel of bananas each to a fruit seller a mile and a half away. Ox Trot: Haul a cart to a loading area and fill it with a large pile of coconuts, have an ox attached, then ride to the same fruit seller and unload every coconut.
arus1607rb	7 Bottles Up	Seychelles	It's time to take a deep breath...: Swim to a nearby buoy, dive down to a case of submerged bottles and untie one, then return to your boat with it before riding to shore. The bottle contains puzzle pieces, which must be assembled to form a map to the Pit Stop. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arus1608dt	Buddhist Tradition or Chinese Custom	Malaysia	Buddhist Tradition: Travel to Tien Kong Than temple and carry twelve giant incense sticks up 150 stairs to a burner, then insert and light them all. Chinese Custom: Travel to Padang Kota Lama park and balance 32-foot flagpoles on your foreheads, then cross a 40-yard course without touching or dropping them.
arus1608sb	Serve Tea	Malaysia	Travel to the Tropical Spice Garden and find a woman crushing tea, smell it and guess which of three teapots contains tea made from the same mixture, then deliver the correct teapot to a nearby guru.
arus1608rb	Smash Coconuts	Malaysia	Whose life could use a splash of colour?: Smash coconuts from a pile until one of several with a brightly-coloured inside is found, then use it and provided materials to make a traditional Hindu offering and bring it to a guru.
arus1609ff	Traverse Singapore Flyer	Singapore	Travel to the Singapore Flyer observation wheel and complete a mystery task: riding to the top then climbing out of one capsule and traversing the metal support frame to the next capsule, one partner at a time. The cluegiver who gives teams the clue for this task (and the below Detour) is Allan Wu, host of The Amazing Race Asia and The Amazing Race: China Rush (and former Fear Factor contestant).
arus1609dt	Pounding the Drums or Pounding the Pavement	Singapore	Pounding the Drums: Travel to Speaker's Corner, then learn a traditional drum routine to the satisfaction of the teacher before performing it in time with a local group of drummers. Pounding the Pavement: Collect supplies from a truck in Rochor Road and carry them to a nearby ice-cream cart, then make and sell 25 local ice-cream sandwiches for $1 each. (This Detour has a U-Turn attached.) Graphics call the tasks "Pounding Drums" and "Pounding Pavement".
arus1609cc	Back to the Future	Singapore	Find "the intersection of your last Pit Stop city and Orchard Road". Penang isn't a city. It's the name of the island. Georgetown is the city. (Two seasons ago, they made this same mistake with the Hawaiian island of Maui.)
arus1609rb	Count Chain Links	Singapore	Who's ready to add some stress to their day?: Count the number of links in a giant anchor chain while irrelevant numbers are read out over a PA system.
arus1609ri2	Zip Line	Singapore	In tandem, ride a giant zipline over 1400 feet long over the forest. Yeah. A leg that had as much promise as this one did, ending with a tedious first come, first served task. Sigh.
arus1610rb1	Make Noodles	China	Who wants to get their hands on some extra dough?: Turn a mound of dough into 1kg of noodles by hand, with only an ongoing demonstration for assistance. Cameo by world's shortest man He Pingping; the episode is dedicated to him as he died before its broadcast.

arus1610ri	Dress Model	China	Pick a model with a fashion sketch, then search a boutique for the matching items and have her change into them. All items must be correctly matched. The four models used later pull double duty as the episode's greeters.
arus1610rb2	Assemble Puzzle	China	[Hint not revealed]: Assemble 96 square cards correctly to form the image on a provided piece of paper, hand them to a crowd and have them flip it over to reveal a stadium seat number, then find that seat. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arus1611sb	Coin Toss	China	Throw one coin each into a narrow hole on the top of a giant incense burner.
arus1611rb	Count Statues	China	Who thinks they can sum up Buddha?: Correctly count the number of golden statues in a hall. Get the wrong total and wait ten minutes before guessing again. Bit of a trick here to punish misreading the clue – there are 521 Buddhas and two other golden statues, and 521 was coincidentally the same total from the chain Road Block in Singapore two legs ago.
arus1611dt	Pork Chops or Pork Dumplings	China	Pork Chops: Travel to Art Stone and search hundreds of stone stamps for those showing a pig and each of your names. Pork Dumplings: Travel to Nanxiang Steamed Bun Restaurant and collect ten steamers of dumplings, then deliver them on foot to the far end of a crowded market. The greeter for this leg is Bo Xishun, the world's tallest man.
arus1612cc1	Riddle Me This	United States	“Solve this riddle: I was built in 1933. I'm 210 feet tall. My insides are lined with murals painted by 26 different artists. What am I? When you know, go to me to [sic] and search for your next clue.”
arus1612rb	Climb Coit Tower	United States	[Hint not revealed]: Use an ascender to climb 120 feet and collect a clue from Coit Tower's archways.
arus1612ri1	Navigate Virtual World	United States	Complete two levels in a virtual reality game to find a clue, with one partner walking around a soundstage in a motion-capture suit and the other directing them while watching their avatar in the virtual world. The clue spins around at high speed; to read it, the director must realise the mover must also spin so it doesn't appear to be moving as fast.
arus1612ri2	Hall Haul	United States	Carry a large trunk (for use in the next task) to the destination marked on its lid.
arus1612ri3	Step Back in Time	United States	Open the trunk and hang the posters inside on a frame to list the eliminated teams and non-elimination legs in order. The posters for the non-eliminations include a paragraph of text as part of their designs... with the paragraph being a speech Phil read over season one's credits.
arus1612cc2	Final Clue	United States	“Jack be nimble, Jack be quick, to find the finish line, jump over to ____.”

Season Seventeen

arus1701cc	Back to Front	England	Find “the castle that is the opposite of nor'easter”. Wouldn't the opposite be sou'wester, not Eastnor?
arus1701ri	Storm the Castle	England	Climb a ladder to the battlements of Eastnor Castle while locals pour water on you, collect a flag, then walk to a “moat” and use a coracle to cross it without sinking to deliver the flag to a knight in shining armour. Eastnor Castle has no moat; teams are actually crossing an adjacent lake.
arus1701rb	Defeat the Warrior	England	Who's ready to go into battle with a knight in shining armour?: Using a giant slingshot, fire watermelons to smash a suit of armour 50 feet away. Yes, yes. Watermelon in the face. Doesn't change that this leg is kinda crap. The leg winners get an Express Pass for use before the end of Leg 8.

arus1702rb	Sell Sunglasses	Ghana	Who thinks they can handle some shady dealings?: Compete with local vendors and sell sunglasses to locals, earning a total of at least 15 cedi but selling each pair for at least 3 cedi.
arus1702dt	Tune In or Check Out	Ghana	Tune In: Travel to Adom Electricals and collect a TV antenna system, then find a marked house nearby, install it, and tune the signal to an acceptable standard. Check Out: Travel to Emmanuel's Woodshop and collect an ornamental Ga coffin, then use a flatbed cart to deliver it on foot to the Hello Coffin showroom.
arus1703rb	Pro Boxing Training	Ghana	You've got a Rocky road ahead...: Correctly wrap your hands in boxing bandages, then complete two boxing drills (punching a speed bag and using a skipping rope) for one minute each.
arus1703ri1	Special Delivery	Ghana	Load two wheelbarrows with a listed set of supplies and deliver them on foot to the Asebi D/A Primary School. The Pit Stop for this episode is extended; during this extra time, teams helped to renovate the school.
arus1703ri2	African Geography Quiz	Ghana	Join a local class and identify Ghana on an unlabelled map of Africa. After each wrong guess, the school children will correctly identify another country to make the task slightly easier. No, really. "Find the country you are in on a map". (I look forward to when they recycle this task in Canada.)
arus1703dt	Bicycle Parts or Language Arts	Ghana	Bicycle Parts: Using only a stick for assistance, roll a bicycle rim each across a soccer field and back without it falling over. Language Arts: Select a scroll with a local proverb, use a translation guide to match eight parts of it to Adinkra symbols, then find the symbols in the right order in a giant wordsearch hanging on an adjacent shed wall. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arus1704sb	Sit on Ice	Sweden	Sit on chairs made from ice for ten minutes. No changing clothes.
arus1704cc	Artificial Swedener	Sweden	Work out the next destination from a clue written entirely in Swedish (and carved into a large block of ice).
arus1704rb	Mush Dogs	Sweden	Who's feeling kind of mushy?: Ride a summer dogsled down a trail to a hunter's camp, collecting five hanging flags along the way (and completing a penalty lap of the camp for each missed flag), then switch them for a shipment of furs and ride back to the start.
arus1704dt	Sleds or Beds	Sweden	Sleds: Drive to Riksgränsen Ski Resort and ride a TechSled each down a snowy course, both finishing in one minute and 58 seconds or less. Beds: Drive to a Sami camp, then assemble and furnish a teepee-like goahti to match an example.
arus1705ff	Eat Sheep's Head	Norway	Drive to Stornaustet immersive restaurant and complete a mystery task: eating half of a roasted sheep head each, leaving only the bones.
arus1705rb	Rappel and Ascend	Norway	Strength, stamina, and guts; You've got to have all three...: Perform a free rappel 130 feet from Skjomen Bridge, signal a boat to deliver the clue at the bottom, then use a mechanical ascender to climb back up.
arus1705dt	Bike or Boat	Norway	Bike: Ride mountainbikes down a trail to a sign, memorise the combination for a colour-coded lock, then ride back and open the lock. Boat: Board a fishing boat and use a map to direct the captain to a ladder on shore, then deliver two cod and a chainsaw on foot to a nearby lodge.
arus1706dt	Classical Music or Classic Cinema	Russia	Classical Music: Travel to Beloselsky-Belozersky Palace and listen to a set of three gramophones, then enter a ballroom filled with pianists and find the three playing the same songs, collecting a piece of sheet music on each piano. Classic Cinema: Travel to Lenfilm and search a pile of film strips for one showing part of the sequence playing on a film screen. Graphics list the tasks as "Music" or "Cinema", and more than one team misreads the latter as "Classical Cinema" in the clue. They probably should have just called the two tasks "Sights" and "Sounds".

arus1706rb	Plant 50 Potatoes	Russia	Who's ready for a Russian drag race?: Dress as babushkas and collect a sack of potatoes, carry them to a wheelbarrow and fill the latter with manure, then take everything to a nearby field and plant the potatoes following the instructions of a waiting babushka. Non-elimination; due to errors judging the music Detour causing the spared team to finish last, the Speed Bump penalty is waived and teams are artificially bunched together at the start of the next leg for fairness.
arus1707dt	Circus Band or Circus Clown	Russia	Circus Band: Learn and both correctly perform a traditional Russian song on the accordion. Circus Clown: Learn to platespin, then spin ten plates simultaneously for at least ten seconds.
arus1707ri	Russian Around	Russia	Treasure hunt. Part 1: "Find the bridge guarded by four creatures with golden wings". Part 2: Walk to a tower, then have one partner climb it and scan the area for a hint to the next destination, again walking. Only two players in the lookout at a time. Part 3: Find where Peter the Great is buried. Each part of this extended challenge is presented as a different clue, but it's one long "solve a Russian mystery" task.
arus1707rb	Play Gorodki	Russia	Between the two of you, who is the real player?: Knock five wooden pins set up in specific formations off a gorodki court by throwing batons at them, clearing three different formations. Fail to clear the court in two throws and the current formation is reset.
arus1708rb	Rappel 500 Feet	Oman	Who wants to add a little magic to their life?: Rappel 500 feet down a mountain to a landing, then search among hundreds of oil lamps on the ground for one of several with a ring inside.
arus1708dt	Water Table or Wedding Table	Oman	Water Table: Fill a tanker with water from an underground well, then navigate the driver to a specified address and deliver it. Wedding Table: Buy ingredients for machbūs from a market, then cook it and deliver it to a nearby wedding. All six teams pick Water Table; oddly, Wedding Table was considered to have so much potential it was recycled in a season 23 Detour with a U-Turn. (It doesn't.) Both first require driving back to Muscat.
arus1708ri	A Myrrhiad of Puns	Oman	Drive to Muttrah Souq and find a specified vendor, collect frankincense, then search the market for "Ali Baba" and exchange it for the clue.
arus1709ri	Sugar Rush	Bangladesh	Upon landing in Dhaka, find a sugarcane press in Sundarban Square and use it to make a glass of sugarcane juice, then have one partner drink it.
arus1709dt	Balanced Meal or Balanced Bricks	Bangladesh	Balanced Meal: Collect 30 meal containers and travel by boat to an anchored cargo ship, hoist the containers to the deck and exchange them for ten empty containers before returning. Balanced Bricks: Transfer 100 bricks from a barge to a nearby shop by placing them in baskets and carrying them on your heads. Broken bricks do not count. (This Detour has a Double U-Turn attached.)
arus1709rb	Assemble Rickshaw	Bangladesh	If you build it, the clue will come.: Assemble a bicycle rickshaw, using a finished rickshaw for reference.
arus1710rb	Find Fake Chinese Food	China	Who's feeling peckish?: Use only chopsticks to search a buffet for one of five fake food items. Items can be poked and prodded at will, but if a real item is picked up it must be eaten before continuing.
arus1710dt	Ding Ding or Sampan	China	Ding Ding: Ride a double-decker tram along a specific route, searching the signs on buildings along the route for three of the same design that can be combined to reveal the Pit Stop. Sampan: Travel to the Jumbo Kingdom dock and load a cage with two birds onto a sampan, then ride into Aberdeen Harbour and deliver it to the boat with the same registration number on a tag on their cage. While this is the first time Jumbo Kingdom has been visited by a race, it's not the first time it has appeared: it was part of the credits of The Amazing Race Asia. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.

arus1711ri	Path of Least Resistance	South Korea	Whitewater raft down a section of the Hantan River with a group of guides to reach a Humvee, then ride in it to the next destination. This is the same river which hosted the ice-swimming Road Block in season four.
arus1711sb	Tanks for Nothing	South Korea	Use hoses to clean an army tank. Not explained on air as the affected team was so far behind, but shown in their final montage. (The team was so far behind they also skipped the rafting portion of the above task and simply rode all the way in a Humvee, then apparently got a mercy clue directly after finishing the Speed Bump.)
arus1711rb	Match the Headband	South Korea	Who's ready to be all you can be?: Choose a headband marked with Korean characters from the top of a set of bleachers, then search among 200 US Army soldiers performing tae kwon do in unison for the one wearing the matching headband. Fail and collect another headband before continuing. Korea = America!
arus1711dt	Full Throttle or Full Bottle	South Korea	Full Throttle: Travel to Mokdong Ice Rink and skate 24 laps of a short track course, alternating laps in a relay. Full Bottle: Travel to Namdaemun Market and deliver six jars of ginseng roots on foot to a nearby holistic pharmacy, then drink a glass of ginseng tonic each. For both, teams must travel only on foot or by train.
arus1712ri1	Bungy Swing	United States	Travel to the top of a shipping crane and receive the next clue, then return to the ground by completing a 150-foot bungy swing.
arus1712rb	Decorate Float	United States	Who's bright enough to float?: Decorate three sections of a Tournament of Roses parade float in accordance with set instructions. This was filmed in 2010 and the float was decorated for 2011... so why was the 2009 Rose Queen responsible for giving out clues?
arus1712cc	Answer Me These Questions Three...	United States	Work out the answers to three general knowledge questions, then combine the answers to work out the next destination.
arus1712ri2	Identify Greeters	United States	Search a grid of 48 screens scrolling through numbered three-second clips of people to find the eleven showing this season's Pit Stop greeters, then use a touchscreen to match the greeters to the correct legs. Cameo from game show host Bob Eubanks. The other 37 screens show clips of 35 greeters and two task judges from past seasons (among them the very first greeter from season one). It's implied they were all chosen because they had headwear on, but there are several more not present who could have replaced the two random judges.

Season Eighteen: Unfinished Business

arus1801ri1	Fly High	United States	Search a field of mock paper planes for "Queensland and Northern Territories Aerial Services" (a plane marked with its abbreviation "Qantas") and bring it to Phil to earn flight tickets. The last team to finish must complete both tasks at the race's first Detour.
arus1801rb	Swim with Sharks	Australia	Who's ready to get tanked?: SCUBA dive in an aquarium tank to collect a giant compass, then use the guide painted around the outside to translate a long clue from three rows of nautical flags, then follow its instructions with your partner.
arus1801ri2	Sail 16ft Skiff	Australia	Work with a crew of locals to sail a 16-foot skiff yacht across Manly Bay to one of three buoys, reaching out to grab an attached clue while passing. There is no rest period at this Pit Stop; it's not too surprising since there isn't a Detour in this leg for the penalised team, who were likely to be at the back of the pack. Ten teams arrive in the first episode while the last is still at the Road Block. (The leg winners get an Express Pass for use before the end of Leg 8.)
arus1802cc1	Sail; Away	Australia	Find "To Sail, To Stop".

arus1802dt	Spirit World or Natural World	Australia	Spirit World: Use provided rocks and chalks to make a ground mosaic matching the example, then dance on top of it. Natural World: Mix pigment and water to make a natural paint, then spit it around your hands and two stencils to make four territorial marker silhouettes.
arus1802cc3	Roo or Die	Australia	Dressed as kangaroos, find the next destination on foot using only a periodic table with two elements marked for assistance. The shaded elements refer to roads; the next clue is at their intersection. During the Pit Stop, teams are taken back to Sydney.
arus1803rb	Perform Yabusame Ritual	Japan	Who wants to go back a thousand years in time?: Memorise a choreographed yabusame focus ritual and perform it correctly, then sit on a wooden horse and use a bow and arrow to hit a small target while the horse spins.
arus1803dt	Prayer of Purity or Frog of Luck	Japan	Prayer of Purity: Drive to Yuhi Falls and learn and correctly perform a traditional Shinto prayer, then stand beneath a frigid waterfall for one minute. Frog of Luck: Drive to a rice farm in Madarame, then strip to your underwear and search a giant mud pit for a frog toy while locals pelt you with mud. Graphics list the tasks as "Purity" and "Luck".
arus1804ri1	Ride a Yak	China	Saddle a yak, then have one partner ride it across a terraced river.
arus1804rb	Search for Zodiac Charms	China	Who thinks they're living a charmed life?: Search thousands of wooden charms for twelve marked with the animals in the Chinese Zodiac, then hang them from a mobile in the correct order.
arus1804ri2	Make Zodiac Wish	China	Write a wish each on separate pieces of paper, then identify your Chinese Zodiac signs and place it in the corresponding sign on a prayer wheel.
arus1804dt	Hammer or Horn	China	Hammer: Walk to a confectionery store and use wooden mallets to pound a pile of molten peanut brittle until it is flat. Horn: Travel to Nanmen Square and collect a ceremonial horn, then carry it through the streets to Wenchang Palace while leading a group of Naxi dancers. There is no rest period at this leg's Pit Stop; seven teams arrive in the episode, with one at the Detour and one lost leaving the Road Block. (The team at the Detour is never shown finishing their task.)
arus1805ri	Flower Power	China	Upon arrival in Kunming, travel to Dounan Flower Market and search among its stalls for a cluebox.
arus1805dt	Honor the Past or Embrace the Future	China	Honor Past: Travel to Shangri-La Palace and watch a Tibetan performance, then enter an adjacent room and arrange fifteen dolls dressed as the performers in the order they appeared. No notes. Embrace Future: Travel to Great Wall Tower and unload a solar water heater kit from a truck, then carry it to the roof and assemble it correctly. (This Detour has a Double U-Turn attached; see below). Graphics list the tasks as "Honor Past" and "Embrace Future".
arus1805rb	Build Dinosaur	China	Who's ready for a task 65 million years in the making?: Pick a dig site and collect dozens of wooden pieces scattered in it, then assemble a 20-foot model dilophosaurus, using only a diagram for reference. I see the word "dig" is merely a suggestion now.
arus1806ri	Tea Time	China	Travel to Jin Fu Yi Zhan and complete a traditional tea tasting. The intention is for it to be a surprise that the tea used reappears in the Road Block below; it lessens the impact somewhat that teams are given a brick of tea after tasting it and must carry it with them, presumably for usage later in the leg.

arus1806dt	Hindu Art or Bengali Literature	India	Hindu Art: Travel to the Rakhil Paul and Sons statue shop, then paint, dress, and decorate a statue of Ganesha. Bengali Literature: Travel to Dey's Publishing and load eight bundles of children's books into a rickshaw school bus, then direct the driver through the streets to the Victoria Institute school and give the books to the headmistress.
arus1807rb	Find Meaning of Life	India	Who's ready to search for the meaning of life?: Use photographs to find six holy men at various locations in the surrounding area, collecting part of "the meaning of life" from each, then find a seventh holy man and tell him the full message. Just for the record: "Once you're over the hill, you pick up speed". (It sure is lucky the meaning of life is an English phrase.)
arus1807dt	Feed the Fire or Feed the Buffalo	India	Feed the Fire: Use buffalo manure to make 50 fuel patties, sticking them onto a wall to dry, then load a fire place with fuel patties and start a fire. Feed the Buffalo: Collect a large bundle of hay, then ride across the Ganges and carry it on foot through the narrow alleys to a specified address. Both first require travelling up the Ganges to nearby addresses.
arus1808ri	Back to Basics	Austria	Reverse a product-placed car over a clue on the ground, using the car's reverse-vision camera to read it. Why not just read the clue before getting into the car then quickly reverse back to complete the "task"?
arus1808dt	Long Hard Walk or Quick & Easy Meal	Austria	Long Hard Walk: Travel to the Freud Museum and collect a psychoanalysis couch, then carry it one mile on foot to the University of Vienna. Quick and Easy Meal: Travel to the Wiener Riesenrad and collect a Viennese schnitzel and a slice of sachertorte each, taking them into one of the observation wheel's cabins and eating it all before the wheel completes a full revolution. Oddly, the clue was written with these titles but behind-the-scenes videos show Phil explaining them with the titles "Father of Psychoanalysis" and "Mother of All Meals". The broadcast titles work better - nobody would pick the meal task if it sounded daunting, and what Freud task would be complete without innuendo? Then again, Food or Thought (or Food or Freud) would have been even better.
arus1808rb	Sweep Chimney	Austria	Who's feeling lucky as lucky can be?: Climb onto a rooftop and use a weighted brush to clean three chimneys, then climb back down and collect a clue from the cleanout door. The clue is a shoutout to Chim-Chim-Cheree , from that notable musical about Austrians Mary Poppins . (It may have been a deliberate reference to the Austria-Australia confusion, since Mary Poppins was written by an Australian.) Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arus1809sb	Fuel Solex	Liechtenstein	Use provided items to measure the correct amount of gasoline and oil needed to fuel the motorised bike used in the task below in accordance with a set ratio.
arus1809rb	Measure Liechtenstein	Liechtenstein	Who's better at giving a measured response?: Use a map to navigate a motorised bike with an odometer on it around a set course from one end of Liechtenstein to the other, using the odometer reading to measure the length of the course to the nearest kilometre. Get the wrong answer and repeat the entire 22km course. Cameo by six-time Winter Olympian Marco Büchel.
arus1809dt	Cheese or Wheeze	Switzerland	Cheese: Travel to Walliserkanne Restaurant and eat all of the cheese in a pot of fondue. Wheeze: Select twenty items of luggage from a large pile and use flatbed carts to deliver them to the hotels marked on their tags, travelling to at least five different hotels, then return. (This Detour has a Double U-Turn attached.)

arus1810dt	Search or Rescue	Switzerland	Search: Use an avalanche beacon to find a training dummy buried somewhere in a snowfield, then dig it up. Rescue: Rescue a mountaineer from a crevasse, with one partner performing a free rappel to clip the mountaineer to a rescue cable and the other winching them to safety. Both first require travelling to the Matterhorn; teams get the clue after they sign up for helicopters (to an "unknown" location) but before they leave.
arus1810rb	Chocolate Gnome	Switzerland	Who wants to make a new friend?: Use provided moulds and coloured chocolate to make a product-placed gnome matching the example, then wait for it to set in the snow.
arus1811rb	Samba	Brazil	Who's not afraid of shaking in their boots?: Learn a simple samba routine then perform it over and over while leading a group of samba dancers around a set parade route.
arus1811ri2	Body Waxing	Brazil	Endure a fifteen-minute body waxing session. Yes. Brazilian waxing in Brazil. Oy and also vey.
arus1811dt	On the Rocks or On the Beach	Brazil	On the Rocks: Walk to Espacio X bar on Copacabana Beach and make 100 caipirinha cocktails following an ongoing demonstration. On the Beach: Walk to Copacabana Beach and sell bikini tops to customers, having them change into it beneath a cover and earning R$100.
arus1812rb1	Transport Boat	United States	Who's confident about handling a boat?: Use a heavy-load forklift to pick up a boat, then deposit it in a drydock safely.
arus1812rb2	Bob Dive	United States	[Hint not revealed]: Use a one-person submarine scooter to search a lagoon filled with submerged treasure chests for one with a clue.
arus1812cc	Twenty-Nine	United States	"Off the coast near Big Pine Key there's a camp that's by the sea. To find the Mile Marker near where you should be, please subtract 4 from 33." However will they manage to solve this devilishly difficult puzzle?
arus1812ri	Create Trailerhood	United States	Manually wheel a caravan into a marked parking area and connect it to utilities, then set up a campsite to match the photo in a provided brochure.

Season Nineteen

arus1901ri1	Tai Again	United States	Search a wall of umbrellas for one marked with three letters that can be added twice to six shown letters to form the name of the first destination, then bring it to Phil. The last team to finish must complete an extra task, the Hazard, later in this leg. It's more confusing than usual for the at-this-point standard "luck disguised as observation" opening task, but basically you need to find and add TAI to WANPEI in order to spell TAIPEI, TAIWAN.
arus1901cc1	The Sky's the Limit	Taiwan	Upon landing in Taipei, travel to Ximending and "look up" to find a clue. The clue's on an electronic billboard. Despite the show's tone, it's hard to blame players for not finding it immediately when it's not always visible and is written in Chinese.
arus1901cc2	Translation Nation	Taiwan	Have the above clue translated from Chinese, then find the specified location.
arus1901rb	Call Confucius	Taiwan	Confucius says, "Who's ready to play telephone?": Use a payphone to call a given number and memorise a Confucian quote, then repeat it verbatim to a monk. No notes allowed. All together now: "In all things success depends on previous preparation, and without such previous preparation there is sure to be failure." Spoilers reveal there was an additional part to this task, involving players having to get payphone credits from locals outside the temple used before calling.

arus1901hz	Indoor Bungy Jump	Taiwan	Exactly what it says on the tin. One member of the affected team must perform an indoor bungy jump in a vertical mall. First requires travelling to Core City Pacific Mall. (The episode edits it as though they were the only team to, but it's fairly clear all teams had to and it was just edited out for everyone else.) So the Hazard is just a rebranded Speed Bump that's also a Road Block, except it doesn't count towards the Road Block tally? Pass. arus1901ri2	Race Dragon Boats	Taiwan	Work with a group of waiting locals to paddle a dragon boat around a marked course, with one partner paddling and the other acting as coxswain. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg. (The leg winners get an Express Pass for use before the end of Leg 8.) There actually is an elimination in this leg, just not the one you expected: from here onwards, there is no location sign at the Pit Stop. arus1902sb	Unkink Rope	Indonesia	Untangle a giant knotted rope attached to a tree on one side of a clearing until the loose end can be clipped to a carabiner on the opposite side.
arus1902rb	Spelunk	Indonesia	Who's ready to spelunk?: Perform a 160-foot free rappel into a cave, then search it for a Javanese mask and dagger before proceeding to a giant bamboo scaffold and climbing back out.
arus1902dt	Shake Your Money Maker or Be a Ticket Taker	Indonesia	Shake Your Money Maker: Travel to a crowded intersection and busk for 30,000 rupiah, with one player performing a traditional dance and the other playing the gamelan, then travel to Aisyiyah Orphanage and donate it. Be a Ticket Taker: Travel to Mal Malioboro and valet park motorbikes for money, earning 15,000 rupiah before taking the profits to Aisyiyah Orphanage and donating them. Graphics list the two tasks as "Money Maker" and "Ticket Taker". A sign at the orphanage tells teams to also donate any other money they have; eight out of eleven teams are sent back from the Pit Stop for failing to do so. arus1902cc	Crest in Show	Indonesia	Given only a crest, work out the location of the Pit Stop: the local Sultan's palace. Double elimination; teams were told about the twist with the first clue of the leg and the spared team was told at the Leg 1 Pit Stop. (It's not surprising the twist hasn't been repeated when it got rid of the show's biggest drawcards.)
arus1903dt	Rice Field or Grass Fed	Indonesia	Rice Field: Carry a provided meal to a group of farmers in a nearby field, then plant 300 rice seedlings by hand. Grass Fed: Fill two sacks with fresh-cut grass, then deliver them and two sheep to a waiting shed and fill a trough with six buckets of water from an adjacent well.
arus1903rb	Count Buddhas	Indonesia	Who's prepared to follow the path to Buddha?: Walk around the Borobodur roof clockwise, counting the number of statues with their hands in each of four given positions, then provide the correct totals. Players are not told they must demonstrate the hand positions when giving the totals; as with the billboard clue and money donation, it's far too unintuitive to fairly expect teams to get this on their own. arus1904dt	Coral Reconstruction or Beach Preparation	Thailand	Coral Reconstruction: Assemble a coral nursery from plastic pipes, load it and a tray of live coral onto a canoe, then take it to a buoy, put it on the seafloor, and insert the coral. Beach Preparation: Search a supply shed for twenty chairs and ten umbrellas marked with specific symbols, then set them up on the beach. Both first require travelling by boat to Koh Khai. For obvious reasons, graphics simply call the tasks "Coral" and "Beach". arus1904cc	North Sea	Thailand	Find the island carved into a provided medal, told only to travel due north.

arus1904rb	Climb Island Rock	Thailand	Who wants to be the king of the hill?: Rock climb up a cliff to reach a bird nest with clues inside. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arus1905sb	Wash Elephant	Thailand	Fill a waiting bucket with elephant manure from a pile, then enter an adjacent pond and use brushes to scrub an elephant clean.
arus1905rb1	Search Pool	Thailand	Who wants to hear some water music?: Follow the sound of music to a nearby flautist, then search the adjacent pond for a submerged clue.
arus1905ri1	Disassemble Spirit House	Thailand	Travel to a roadside store and disassemble a spirit house shrine, then deliver all of the pieces to Wat Chanathikaram.
arus1905rb2	Reassemble Spirit House	Thailand	[No hint]: Reassemble the spirit house exactly as it was. There is a spare display back at the roadside store to study if needed.
arus1905ri2	Banal Canal	Thailand	Upon arrival in Bangkok, travel to Bangkok Noi canal and use a provided bag of fish food to feed the local fish. The odd planning for this leg is because it was an emergency leg created when the intended location became unsafe. (The original location was never revealed, but rumours persist for both Laos and Nepal. Neither has appeared yet, and as a result the original leg has never been used.)
arus1906rb	Transport Tobacco	Malawi	Who's ready to put up bale?: Using only a handcart, transport ten 200lb bales of tobacco through a mazelike warehouse to a stacking area, one at a time. In accordance with tobacco advertising laws, the company whose warehouse is used for this task is never mentioned onscreen.
arus1906dt	All Sewn Up or Not Grown Up	Malawi	All Sewn Up: Travel to Whitehorse Designs and use manual sewing machines to repair the seams on a suit jacket and pants. Not Grown Up: Travel to Lilongwe LEA School and use recycled materials to assemble two toy trucks matching the shown example. At this point, all three races to visit Africa since the first All-Stars season had had exactly two legs there, in a single country, with a Detour held at a school.
arus1906ri	Transport Beds	Malawi	Wait for a ute to arrive and load two single bed frames into its tray, then ride to Kumbali Village and carry the beds on foot down a trail to the Pit Stop. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arus1907sb	Sliders	Malawi	Walk to an adjacent flagpole and solve the 3x4 slide puzzle beneath it so the image matches the national flag of Malawi above. In order to avoid being missed, the Speed Bump sign is held above the bus station crowd by a local.
arus1907rb	Bike Taxi	Malawi	[Hint not revealed]: Use a kabaza (bicycle taxi) to deliver a local to one of three addresses, then ride back to the starting point. The local cannot help navigate.
arus1907dt	Dugout or Lugout	Malawi	Dugout: Paddle a dugout canoe on Lake Malawi to a drummer, then return to shore. Lugout: Transport eight passengers and an assortment of items from an anchored boat to shore without anything getting wet. (This Detour has a Double U-Turn attached.)
arus1908ri	Eye in the Sky	Denmark	Upon landing in Copenhagen, drive to Vor Frelsers Kirke and climb its belltower, then search for two halves of the next clue. The first half is on a nearby rooftop and is continually revealed and covered, the second is on a flag at the very top of the tower's spiral staircase.
arus1908rb	Learn Dance	Denmark	Who's ready to take a few steps back in time?: Learn a three-part Renaissance dance routine, then perform each part with a different partner while crossing a large ballroom.
arus1908dt	All Hopped Up or All Churned Out	Denmark	All Hopped Up: Correctly set up a kaninhop (rabbit steeplechase) course, then each lead a rabbit along the course. All Churned Out: Use manual churns, buttermolds, and cream to make six sticks of butter. (This Detour has a Double U-Turn attached.)

arus1909rb	Poetic Performance	Denmark	Who's ready to take a fairytale ride?: Memorise a poem written on a plaque, then ride a bike (with a map on its front wheel) to the Teatermuseet and recite the poem verbatim and with enough dramatic flair to please a theatre critic.
arus1909cc	...Nation	Denmark	Drive to the next destination – in Hamburg, Germany – using only the finished puzzle from the above task to find it. Nine legs in, the train station in Hamburg is the first time teams collect their clue from an actual cluebox.
arus1909ri2	Bodybuilding Posedown	Belgium	Travel to Concert Noble and put on bodybuilding swimsuits and fake tan, then learn and perform a bodybuilding routine for three judges, earning a score of 12 or more out of a maximum 15. This was one half of a Detour, but all teams picked this task and the other wasn't described. Based on the title, my guess is the other task could only have been something along the lines of Firefighting Hosedown. There is no rest period at this leg's Pit Stop and the episode ends with the first team arriving.
arus1910rb	Master Your Mustang	Belgium	Who wants to play with the ponies?: Use a product-placed car to complete three advanced driving stunts – accelerating to 100mph and braking in a marked area, completing a slalom in 16 seconds or less, and a double donut.
arus1910dt	Water or Waffle	Belgium	Water: Assemble a raft from provided items, then paddle along Lieve Canal to find two halves of the next clue. Waffle: Correctly set up a waffle stand and prepare eighteen display waffles to match the examples.
arus1910ri	Pigeon Racing	Belgium	Release a flock of homing pigeons and drive to reunite with them at the given address, collecting the next clue from one of them upon arrival. “When it comes to international pigeon racing, Belgium is Team #1”. No. It isn't. This is literally just an excuse to work homing pigeons into a task (and frankly, it looks as though the entire visit to Belgium was to shoehorn in that Road Block).
arus1910cc	Larger Than They Appear	Belgium	Find the Pit Stop at the Atomium, using only a miniature photo of it. Teams spend the night camping in the Atomium.
arus1911ri	Comic Book Caper	Belgium	Put on outfits to resemble Belgian comic book characters, then find the mural in a provided photo and tell a local dressed as a character from the same comic any of the three pairs of names used for the characters. There are three names because they vary from country to country – the English, French, and Dutch versions of The Adventures of Tintin each use a different pair of similar names, and all other versions are translated from one of the three.
arus1911cc1	It Takes Tattoo	Panama	Find the next destination, using only the words shown on temporary tattoos applied to your arms.
arus1911rb	Walk Tightrope	Panama	Who wants to walk on rarified air?: Using only a safety harness for support, walk along a tightrope suspended between two 35th-floor rooftops to collect a clue, then return to the start the same way. Amazingly, this was a last-minute backup task. And yet still easily one of the best Road Blocks all season.
arus1911cc2	Panama or Bust	Panama	“Success in Suez led him to Panama. His failure inspired others to succeed. Find him beneath a rooster and you'll find your next clue.”
arus1911dt	Filet or Sole	Panama	Filet: Travel to Mercado de Mariscos and deliver provided seafood to marked stalls. Each vendor will only accept a limited amount of each type of seafood. Sole: Travel to Mercado Salsipuedes and use a piece of leather to make a pair of sandals for a waiting customer. It feels like it's been forever since there was a double-meaning Detour title.

arus1911cc3	Dancing Queens	Panama	Travel to Cathedral Square and find a group of tamborito dancers, then work out the Pit Stop location based on their outfits. There are two possible ways to get the right answer: their metal necklaces show an image of Panama Viejo, and the words "Panama Viejo" are hidden among the hemline design on one dancer's dress. (One team still got lost and ended up at the Miraflores Locks information centre, the Pit Stop from Panama's only other leg in season eight.) The show erroneously calls them pollera dancers. "Pollera" is just the name for the type of dress the dancers are wearing. arus1912ri1	Land Simulator Aircraft	United States	Board a Learjet flight simulator and successfully land a flight from an altitude of 2500 feet, with one partner as pilot and one as co-pilot.
arus1912cc1	Dump Luck	United States	"Find the former residence known as The Dump."
arus1912rb	Type Out Next Clue	United States	Who gives a damn?: Use an antique typewriter to replicate the next clue, shown on a table on the other side of the room. The entire task is realising the lowercase L looks like a 1. On the other hand, the clue is clearly a decoy to screw with expectations of a final-leg memory task based on the race... which'd have been great, had the memory challenge later in the leg been a Road Block. (It's rumoured it was planned as one but was changed due to the two-Road-Block emergency leg in Bangkok earlier in the season.) arus1912cc2	Number Your Business	United States	Use only the numbers "44 - 715 - 74" to find the next clue. The clue is at Turner Field, where in 1974 Hank Aaron (who wore #44) broke a baseball record by hitting his 715th career home run. arus1912ri2	Map Out Race	United States	One partner clammers around a giant billboard world map, feeding a long rope through carabiners representing each country visited, while the other partner shouts advice from the ground. No notes. Outlines of each country were provided for the clue telling teams to travel to them; despite this, neither Germany nor the Netherlands (both forced parts of the route without proper tasks) were part of the solution.

Season Twenty

arus2001ri1	Take to the Skies	United States	Run into a vineyard and search for ropes attached to each of 100 mock hot air balloons, pulling them down one at a time until one of eleven clues is found. arus2001rb	X Marks the Spot	Argentina	Who's got a great sense of direction?: Use a provided landscape map to navigate to a skydive landing zone while your partner tandem skydives with a jumpmaster from 10,000 feet. To clarify: The driver is the one treated as performing the Road Block. (What would have happened if the skydiver refused? It can't be the usual Road Block quitting penalty because they're not performing the task.) arus2001ri2	Make Empanadas	Argentina	Follow ongoing demonstrations to correctly make 60 meat empanadas and 60 cheese empanadas. Once approved, run to the adjacent Pit Stop. The leg winners get an Express Pass for use before the end of Leg 8. arus2002dt	Boil My Water or Light My Fire	Argentina	Boil My Water: Travel to one of three nearby villages and assemble a working solar kitchen using only the pictures on the kit box, then wait for a kettle to boil. There are a limited number of kits in each village. Light My Fire: Travel to the riverbed and collect 40 pieces of clay or firewood, load them onto a donkey, then lead the donkey to a pottery workshop a mile away. arus2002rb	Calculate Cattle	Argentina	Where's the beef?: Listen to an auctioneer give the total weight of a corral filled with cows, then count them and work out the average weight of each cow before the auction ends. No calculators.
arus2003ri	Hide and Seek	Paraguay	Upon landing in Asunción, travel to Metalurgica Punta de Rieles and search the metalyard for a hidden clue.

arus2003dt	Stacked Up or Strung Out	Paraguay	Stacked Up: Travel to Mercado Central de Abasto and stack a ten-level square pyramid of watermelons. Strung Out: Travel to an auditorium at Universidad Nacional de Asunción and correctly string a harp following a demonstration.
arus2003rb	Bottle Dance	Paraguay	Who's ready to use their head?: Learn and perform a traditional dance while keeping a glass bottle balanced on your head. There is a limit of 50 bottles per player; break them all and get a two-hour penalty at the Pit Stop. The bottles were made of sugarglass for safety reasons; this combined with the water inside made them so weak they often broke simply by being placed on the players' heads.
arus2004ff	Land a Helicopter	Italy	One partner must wear a helmet with a model helipad on it; the other must then land a remote-control helicopter on it. Despite clearly being designed for multiple attempts – there are enough props for three teams, and it is right next to the Road Block – only one team tries.
arus2004rb	Rappel	Italy	What goes up must come down...: Perform a 120-foot free abseil to the ground below, collecting a clue along the way within two minutes of starting.
arus2004ri	Old...	Italy	Drive to the Museo Nazionale dell'Automobile and find the 1916 Tin Lizzie.
arus2004cc	...Money	Italy	Given only a 2 cent Euro coin with a building on it, find the next destination.
arus2004dt	Clean That Statue or Name That Salami	Italy	Clean That Statue: Drive to L'Arte Marmi and use airhoses to clean all of the dirt from an imitation marble statue. Name That Salami: Drive to Gastronomia Salumeria and memorise fourteen kinds of salami, then walk half a mile to a salami vendor in Piazza Vittorio Veneto and correctly identify all fourteen. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arus2005sb	Yodel	Germany	Learn to yodel, then perform a traditional song correctly. The first clue of the leg requires a train trip to Austria and driving into Germany; despite being added solely to increase the number of countries visited, it is not counted at the end of the season.
arus2005dt	Fairy Tale or Champion Male	Germany	Fairy Tale: Drive to Oberammergau and collect pieces of gingerbread while walking along a marked path, then use them to finish the roof of a gingerbread house. Champion Male: Drive to Unterammergau and find a restaurant, then select a bearded man and style his beard to match a provided photograph.
arus2005cc	King of the Castle	Germany	Find “the inspiration for Sleeping Beauty's castle”, then search it for King Ludwig II's former bedroom. The clue quote has appeared on the show before – a field beneath the castle was a Pit Stop in season three, and Phil used the quoted section when explaining it.
arus2005rb	Eisstockschiessen	Germany	Who's ready to put it on ice?: Slide a product-placed gnome across a curling pitch so that it stops in the centre of the bullseye target. It's presented as though players used the same gnomes collected earlier (they had the Detour clue on their bases), but it's clear there's a waiting supply here.
arus2006ff	Unload and Stack Hay	Azerbaijan	Travel to Saman Ot Bazary and unload 150 bales of hay from a truck, arranging them in a stack ten bales long, three bales wide, and five bales high.
arus2006rb	Escape Helicopter	Azerbaijan	What goes down must come up!: Sit in a helicopter simulator as it is submerged and flipped upside-down, then release yourselves and escape through a panel at the back of the simulator before surfacing and swimming to a buoy. Ten years earlier, the challenge appeared (without the cultural explanation, but with an identical format) on Fear Factor .
arus2006dt	Apples or Oil	Azerbaijan	Apples: Travel to a fruit market and find a marked stall, then search a Soviet-era car filled with apples to find one with fake leaves decorated like race flags. Oil: Travel to Naftalan spa and pick a local to bathe in crude oil, then use a shoehorn and sponges to clean the oil off. Not saying these aren't real things, but... really, show? This is the best you can do in an entire region the show has only spent one leg in before?

arus2007dt	Marksmanship or Courtship	Tanzania	Marksmanship: Throw runigus to shatter one moving clay target each. Courtship: Jump with the Maasai for one minute at high altitude. Both first require riding bikes to Soneto. arus2007ri	Pitch Tent	Tanzania	Unload an array of items from a truck, then use them to assemble a safari tent matching the example before running to the nearby Pit Stop. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg. arus2008dt	Water Supply or Air Supply	Tanzania	Water Supply: Find a specific address and collect a set of water barrels, then take them to the town well and wait in line to fill them, returning them once full. Air Supply: Travel to Fundi Baiskeli and remove the innertube from a bike wheel without taking it off the bike, then find a leak and patch it before reinserting it and pumping it up. (This Detour has a Double U-Turn attached.)
arus2008rb	Harvest Honey	Tanzania	To bee or not to bee...: Put on a protective suit and harvest 500 grams of honey from hives filled with African honey bees. The task is repurposed from a Detour nobody chose in season five, using the same farm; notably, the Pit Stop for this leg is also the same as that episode's, albeit in a different location at the landmark.
arus2009rb	Dance Bollywood	India	Who's got all the right moves?: Learn a Bollywood dance routine, then perform it in synch with a group of 30 local performers.
arus2009dt	Cricket or Clutch It	India	Cricket: Travel to Ambedkar Stadium and each hit one ball bowled by a local cricketer past a boundary behind the bowler. Clutch It: Travel to A2Z driving school and drive an auto-rickshaw around a slalom course without hitting any poles, one at a time. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg. arus2010ri1	Hindu it Yourself	India	Travel to Daiva Vili Bhagvathi Kshetram temple in Chandiroor and receive a traditional Hindu blessing. arus2010sb	Paint Tiger	India	Paint a tiger on the belly of a waiting Puli Kali dancer to match the examples.
arus2010ff	Shave Head	India	Travel to Mutharamman Devasthanam temple and complete a mystery task: each having your heads shaved. This is the first time since season four there are more than two Fast Forwards in a season, and this combined with the task itself makes me wonder if it was a last-minute insertion – two teams can't win it, two others have women who won't do it, and the last is the Designated Woobie in a sea of obnoxious assholes. arus2010rb	Spin & Spool Coconut Rope	India	Who's at the end of their rope?: Use traditional techniques to create 40 feet of rope from coconut husks, then spool four bundles of rope onto one spindle. arus2010dt	Pachyderm or Pack a Box	India	Pachyderm: Travel to Beach Road and use provided ornaments to decorate an elephant to match the example, then shovel and transport fifteen wheelbarrows of elephant manure to a nearby truck. Pack a Box: Travel to All Spices Market and carry ten wooden boxes to a courtyard, fill them with ginger, then paint a stencilled label on each box and carry them to a shipping depot. arus2011ri2	Bombs; Away	Japan	Travel to Hiroshima Peace Memorial Park and find the Atomic Bomb Dome, then take a moment to pay your respects before getting the next clue. arus2011rb	Bring That Chicken Home	Japan	Who wants to bring home the chicken?: Run against a giant conveyor belt, grabbing three rubber chickens hanging at different heights overhead before jumping on the finish platform at the end. And really, nothing says "Japan!" quite like going from a Hiroshima memorial to comedic pratfalls. As usual at this point, the hint is irrelevant because of the Road Block division rules as all four teams have a member who has reached their pre-finale limit.

arus2011dt	Bingo Shout-Out or Photo Cut-Out	Japan	Bingo Shout-Out: Travel to Kula Sushi and work with locals to identify types of sushi on a sushi train as they are called out, placing them in the matching places on a five-by-five bingo board until five pieces in a row are correctly gathered, then eat all five. Photo Cut-Out: Travel to a crowded urban area and pick up supplies, then convince ten sets of three locals to pose for photographs behind a cutout of sumo wrestlers before returning. Graphics show the tasks as Bingo or Photo. The clue for this Detour is presented on two product-placed touchscreens next to each other, each playing a slideshow describing the relevant task. (The idea of a touchscreen PC being something people would want – as opposed to a regular tablet – is almost as incomprehensible as the sushi task.) arus2012cc	The Two Towers	United States	Upon landing in Honolulu, find the twins “Mauka” and “Makai”.
arus2012ri1	Ascend and Rappel	United States	Use ascenders to climb 45 storeys to the roof of Makai Tower, then search the surrounding area for a raceflag marking the next destination before abseiling face first to the ground and going to it
arus2012ri2	Rescue Swimmer	United States	Rescue a “distressed swimmer”, with one player driving a jetski into the surf and the other holding onto a rescue sled towed behind, then return to shore.
arus2012rb2	Hawaiian Games	United States	Who wants to take a Papa Holua to a 'Ulu Maika?: Ride a ladder-like wooden sled down a 150-foot hill without falling, then roll a disc-shaped rock into a narrow goal 50 feet away. The hint's irrelevant because whoever sat out of the ice task has to do this, but “Holua” and “Ulu Maika” are the local names for the sled and disc respectively.

Season Twenty-One

arus2101ri1	Down and Out	United States	Tied together at the waist, perform a ten-storey free abseil to the first clue.
arus2101rb1	Play Table Tennis	China	Who's ready to get paddled?: Score one point playing table tennis against a local child. One attempt per turn; after the first turn the child uses an increasingly odd item to make the task easier. Really? We're using hazing puns for a task involving a child? And derogatory graphics of the pro laughing at each failed attempt? arus2101rb2	Eat Frog Fallopian Tubes	China	Who wants to go tubing?: Using only chopsticks to eat a large serving of hasma, a traditional dessert made from frog fallopian tubes, without lifting the papayas they are served in from the table. This is the seventh “local delicacy” task in China in this version alone. In lieu of a prize, the leg winners are told that if they win the race, the final prize will be doubled to two million dollars. arus2102ri	Race with the Bulls	Indonesia	Upon landing in Surabaya, travel to Alun-Alun Stadium. In the morning, ride as passengers on motorbikes as they race across a field against a pair of bulls. First come, first served. So teams do nothing, and winning or losing the race has no bearing on anything? arus2102rb	Make Balloon Art	Indonesia	Who likes to party?: Make four balloon animals and four balloon hats while pedalling a bike-powered amusement ride with four children on board. arus2102dt	Ice by the Pound or Fish by the Barrel	Indonesia	Ice by the Pound: Travel to an ice factory and load ten 65lb ice blocks onto a truck, then ride to Pabean Market and deliver them to a stall. Fish by the Barrel: Travel to Pabean Market and carry two barrels of fish to a stall, then set up the stall to match an example. The leg winners get an Express Pass for use before the end of Leg 8. arus2103rb	Serve a Padang Meal	Indonesia	Who wants to serve a balanced meal?: Collect twenty plates of padang food from a restaurant kitchen and carry them to a table of diners simultaneously, serving them all without dropping anything.

arus2103ri	Clue Go	Indonesia	Travel to the train station and board a train to Bangil, watching for a clue that will appear at some point during the ride.
arus2103dt	Egg Head or Lion's Head	Indonesia	Egg Head: Collect four eggs from a market and travel by rickshaw to a park, then hold a burning coconut over your head to cook two eggs in frying pans before eating them. Lion's Head: Travel to a park and collect a 40lb lion's head mask, then walk along a round-trip parade route while completing choreographed dance moves. (This Detour has a Double Blind U-Turn attached.)
arus2104ff	Collect Rats	Bangladesh	Travel to a waiting pest control against and collect supplies, then collect dead rats from three nearby locations before returning.
arus2104rb	Repair Bus	Bangladesh	Who wants to fill in the gaps?: Use body putty to fill in the dents in a marked section of a bus shell and sand it smooth from painting, then transport three bus seats from the bus to a refurbishing area.
arus2104ri	Sack Attack	Bangladesh	Find a marked stall at Kawran Bazar Shootkir, then search a sack of dried fish for a fake fish painted in race colours.
arus2104dt	Pound the Metal or Pound the Cotton	Bangladesh	Pound the Metal: Use hand-operated bellows to stoke a fire and heat an iron bar, then sledgehammers to pound the bar into a spike. Pound the Cotton: Use bamboo rods to pound clumps of cotton until they loosen, then stuff a mattress and sew it shut.
arus2105rb	Build and Balance Scale	Bangladesh	It ain't heavy, it's a Road Block.: Assemble a traditional seesaw scale with only a finished model for reference, then load four stone on one side and balance them by stacking wood on the other.
arus2105dt	Straw Dogs or Bamboo Jungle	Bangladesh	Straw Dogs: Travel to a jute factory and use a heckling comb to untangle twenty bundles of jute, then carry it across the factory to a loom. Bamboo Jungle: Travel to a bamboo yard and load 40 sticks of bamboo (of different sizes) onto a freight bike, delivering them to a nearby construction site. "This Detour requires teams to take on the backbreaking work of a Bangladeshi labourer." Because there just haven't been enough manual labour tasks so far.
arus2105ri	Drawn Out	Bangladesh	Find the Pit Stop, given only a painting of the location for assistance. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arus2106sb	Eat Turkish Ice Cream	Turkey	Find a marked Maras ice cream stall near the New Mosque and eat eat a cone with at least two scoops of different flavours before returning.
arus2106dt	Simit or Scrub It	Turkey	Simit: Travel to a bakery and stack 200 simits (bread rolls) on a tray on your head, then deliver them on foot to three nearby addresses. Scrub It: Travel to Hurrem Sultan Hamami and pick a bath attendant, then strip to your swimsuit and have them scrub you from head to toe. "This Detour gives teams the chance to choose between two ancient Turkish traditions that date back to the Ottoman Empire." So... about 100 years old, then.
arus2106rb	Serve Turkish Sherbet	Turkey	Who's ready to pour their heart out?: Carry a large, long-spouted teapot full of Turkish sherbet around a marked and sell 40 cups of the drunk to bypassers for one lira each.
arus2107dt	Synchronised or Alphabetised	Russia	Synchronised: Travel to Trud Sports Complex, then learn and correctly perform a synchronised swimming routine with a team of young athletes. Alphabetised: Travel to the Russian State Library and use the card catalog, written completely in Cyrillic, to find any four books from a provided list of ten on the shelves. This is one of those times where mentioning the distances would have added the needed context: the library requires a quick walk across Red Square, the pool is ten kilometres away on Moscow's congested roads.
arus2107rb	Unlock Trees of Love	Russia	Who's ready to unlock the future?: Search the Trees of Love for a race flag held in place by ten locks, then use a ring of keys (plus extra keys on each lock) to open all ten before unravelling a clue inside the flag.

arus2107cc	Cash In	Russia	Use only a provided 100-rouble note to find the Pit Stop at the building on it. This is the second “find the landmark on the money” cryptic clue in Russia alone. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg. (The episode ends with a cliffhanger – one team losing their bags and two others hours behind the leaders – but it's a regular non-elimination leg.)
arus2108sb	Pray it Away	Russia	Navigate a limousine driver to deliver a Russian Orthodox priest to his church. Not explained on air as the affected team was so far behind, but shown in their final montage.
arus2108rb	Calculate Times	Russia	Who's in the zone?: Study a slideshow with maps of Russian cities and their time zones, then write the correct times in at least five cities on a provided list of 52 when it is a given time in Moscow. There is a time limit for each attempt. No, really. The task is “answer questions on a Powerpoint presentation, getting a passing grade of at least eight per cent”.
arus2108dt	Movers or Shakers	Russia	Movers: Learn and perform a traditional Cossack dance routine. Shakers: Enter a costume party and correctly count the number of guests dressed as various Russian historical figures. Both first require travelling to the National Hotel. Phil claims there are seven historical figures to count, but we get a close-up of the list and there are nine.
arus2109cc	Jet Flag	Russia	Given only the flag of the next country, fly to its capital and take a train to the city's main train station. Nice to see the flag clue again, but the Netherlands is an odd choice for it, given the only difference between its flag and Luxembourg's is the shade of blue used.
arus2109ff	Eat Herring	Netherlands	Board an aquabus at the Van Gogh cafe, then eat five soused herrings each before the bus finishes a seven-minute roundtrip course. There is a ten-minute wait between attempts.
arus2109dt	Back in Time or Organ to Grind	Netherlands	Back in Time: Travel to De Duif Church and dress as figures from Rembrandt's The Night Watch , then arrange yourselves, extras, and props to exactly match the original. Organ to Grind: Find one of three street organs on different bridges and have one partner play it while the other collects €30 in tips. (This Detour has a Double U-Turn attached.) The clue lists the latter task as “Organ Grind”. (29 years earlier, the exact organ behind Phil as he explains the task appeared in an episode of the original Doctor Who series filmed on location in Amsterdam.)
arus2109rb	Switchback Ditch Vaulting	Netherlands	Who's ready to jump back in time and make a last ditch effort?: Use a pole to cleanly vault across a water-filled ditch and collect a pair of clogs, then return.
arus21103ri1	Better the Devil You Know	Spain	Upon arrival in Palma, travel to its cathedral and search a group of locals dressed as demons for one with the next clue.
arus2110rb	Return 20 Tennis Balls	Spain	Who wants to get smashed?: Successfully return 20 tennis balls fired from an automatic server on the other side of a clay court. Run out of balls and the tally resets for the next attempt.
arus2110ri2	The Caves are Alive...	Spain	Drive to Coves de Campanet and follow the sound of music through the caves to the next clue.
arus2110dt	Spin It or Bull It	Spain	Spin It: Drive to a farm near Sa Pobla and attach two large blades to a windmill. Bull It: Drive to the Muro bullring and dress in a two-person bull outfit, then run around a course to hit eight matadors' capes and a bullseye within two minutes. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arus2111ri	Crate Escape	France	Before driving to the next destination, collect eight crates from a nearby cafe and load them into your car for use later in the leg.

arus2111cc	Veni Vidi Vinci	France	Find Leonardo da Vinci's final resting place.
arus2111dt	Plow or Chow	France	Plow: Use a horse-drawn plow to till four farrows in a nearby field. Chow: Sort, weigh, and cut assorted meats to prepare a meal for a pack of hunting dogs.
arus2111rb	Find Mushrooms	France	Who's a 'fun guy?': Study three specific types of mushrooms, then find ten of each in an underground mushroom farm, carrying them in the crates collected earlier in the leg. GROAN.
arus2112cc	Wish You Were Here	United States	Upon landing in New York City, work out a provided postcard shows the Coney Island boardwalk, then travel there and find a clue hidden in plain sight.
arus2112rb1	Escape Houdini-Style	United States	Who's up for an amazing escape?: Suspended upside-down fifteen storeys above a drydock, escape from a straitjacket. When free, you will be released into a surprise bungee jump. I refuse to believe bungee jumping was ever part of Houdini's repertoire.
arus2112cc	Food Before Thought	United States	Find "the first pizzeria in New York City". Look, pizza guy, these people are in a race. They don't care about the history of your restaurant.
arus2112ri	Deliver 10 Pizzas	United States	Select a list of pizza orders from customers at three nearby addresses, find the right pizzas in a pile, then deliver them all on foot before returning. Lexi, as if they'd make eating a pizza one of the last tasks of... oh. Never mind.
arus2112cc	World Piece	United States	Work out the next destination, given only a keycard showing the logo of the United Nations. SO HARD. How ever did they manage to work out it was the UN headquarters?
arus2112rb2	Hello Goodbye	United States	Who has a way with words?: Select banners with the local words for 'hello' and 'goodbye' in each country visited (as mentioned by the greeters) and raise them up flagpoles so they all hang beneath the right national flags. There are several decoy banners. Unlike other memory tasks, it appears you can ask to have your work checked as you go rather than have to complete the entire arrangement first. Given how long the task took, this was probably a necessary change.

Season Twenty-Two

arus2201rb1	Skydive from Helicopter	French Polynesia	Who's ready to take a giant leap towards a million bucks: Tandem skydive with a jumpmaster from 10,000 feet above sea level. Presented as a race first. Two problems though: (1) Saying so implies all other tasks aren't race firsts, and (2) it's not even the first time skydiving's been done in a season premiere - it's the third , and the most recent was two seasons ago . arus2201rb2	Search Sandcastles	French Polynesia	Who likes to play in the sand?: Search a grid of 400 sandcastles for one of several clues buried a short distance beneath them, remaking any destroyed sandcastles before continuing.
arus2201ri	Get Va'aked	French Polynesia	Attach a float to a va'a outrigger canoe, then paddle one mile to the Pit Stop. The leg winners get two Express Passes, one to be given away before the end of Leg 5 and both available for use before the end of Leg 8.
arus2202ri	Missionary: Impossible	French Polynesia	Travel to Hilton Bora Bora Nui and find a priest, then get a traditional blessing for safe travel. Teams spent the Pit Stop at the Hilton and left from there; they departed from the service dock and did a lap of its island to the guest dock.

arus2202dt	Pick a Pearl or Take a Trunk	French Polynesia	Pick a Pearl: Travel to an offshore pearl farm and dive to untie lines of oysters, shucking them open until two red pearls are found. Take a Trunk: Wearing dive helmets, find a sunken treasure chest and carry it to an umbrella, then assemble the picnic table inside it underwater.
arus2202rb	Kick a Coconut	French Polynesia	Who's a well-balanced individual?: Stiltwalk across a 35-yard section of beach while using the stilts to kick a coconut the same distance. Fall and the coconut can stay where it is but you must restart; reach the end and you can run to the adjacent Pit Stop.
arus2203dt	Rev it Up or Reel it In	New Zealand	Rev it Up: One at a time, drive a stuntcar around a slalom course marked with traffic cones, finishing in a combined time of 83 seconds or less. Reel it In: Standing in shallow waters, use fishing rods to each catch a fish at least 12" long. Both tasks first require driving ATVs to their locations; while they're both close, the driving is three times as far away and requires travelling past the fishing.
arus2203rb	Shemozzle Race	New Zealand	Who wants to keep their race from going to the dogs?: Pick a farm dog and travel with it through an obstacle course, collecting eggs along the way and placing any unbroken eggs in a basket at the end, repeating until twelve are delivered safely. While the concept is known as a shemozzle in New Zealand, in neighbouring Australia the word is slang for "incomprehensible mess". Fitting. There is no rest period at this leg's Pit Stop and the episode ends with the first team arriving.
arus2204ri	Smash and Grab	Indonesia	Upon landing in Denpasar, travel to Ubud Monkey Forest and collect a coconut, then leave it alone for the monkeys to crack open, revealing the clue inside.
arus2204dt	Sandy Bottom or Fruity Top	Indonesia	Sandy Bottom: Travel to the Ayung River and fill baskets with sand, then place the baskets on your heads and deliver them to a brickmaker 200 yards uphill, repeating until a larger bucket is full. Fruity Top: Travel to Pura Desa Puseh and use fruit to assemble a religious offering matching the example, then carry it on a round-trip route and place it on an altar.
arus2204rb	Find a Surfboard	Indonesia	Who's ready to get totally tubular and be worked in a way-gnarly challenge?: Find Ketut's Surf Shop and search dozens of surfboards for one with an image seen earlier in the race on it, then carry it to the Pit Stop, picking your partner up on the way. No checking in without the right board. The correct image shows the Tahitian priest from Leg 2.
arus2205rb	Find Political Quote	Vietnam	Who's ready to take in the sights and sounds of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam?: Watch a patriotic song performance and memorise a Vietnamese phrase shown at the end, then run to a nearby room and find the quote on one of several hundred political posters within five minutes. Fail and rewatch the song before trying again. No notes.
arus2205ri	Bamboozled	Vietnam	Travel to Cong Vien Thong Nhat, then hold hands and jump over a series of ankle-high bamboo poles as locals move them backwards and forwards in a set rhythm without hitting any.
arus2205dt	Make Your Move or Make Your Meal	Vietnam	Make Your Move: Travel to the Temple of Literature and select four pieces on a Chinese chess board, then find costumed extras wearing the same colour-coded symbols and place them correctly on a lifesize replica board. Make Your Meal: Collect four baskets (two with live chickens) from Ngoc Son Temple, buy a series of listed ingredients in a nearby market, then take them to a restaurant and prepare two bowls of pho. (This Detour has a Double Blind U-Turn attached.) The Double U-Turn was located near a downed American military plane left in place as a war memorial; the choice caused conservative pundits to demand an apology. Oddly, nobody demanded an apology for the race using the regular flag (which is similar to South Vietnam's old flag) at the same memorial.
arus2206cc	Predict the Future	Vietnam	Told to buy tickets to "Maun, in the Kalahari Desert" from a specified travel agency, travel there and give the correct country to a doorman before entering. Sound familiar? Teams were told to drive through Maun on their way to Sankuyo at the start of season seven's second Botswana leg.

arus2206rb	Dig for Scorpion	Botswana	Who wants to make a new friend?: Follow a Bushman to a scorpion hole and dig one up so the Bushman can put it in a jar. Worst Road Block ever. It's not even that much of a contest. The Bushmen and scorpions travel with teams for the remainder of the leg, also helping with the Detour tasks below. arus2206dt	Fire or Fowl	Botswana	Fire: Use zebra manure, grass, and two sticks to make a fire strong enough to light a smoking pipe. Fowl: Set up a traditional guineafowl trap to match the example, then trigger it to prove it works. Both require teams to walk to a nearby village, mimicking animal sounds made by their Bushman along the way. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg. arus2207sb	Ceremonial Dance	Botswana	Finish a partially-complete beaded skirt each, then put them on and perform a traditional seduction dance to the satisfaction of local dancers. arus2207ff	Waterski One Mile	Botswana	Put on waterskis and stay standing as the towboat travels one mile through "crocodile-infested" waters. Aside from Speed Bumps completed by teams who were hours behind before they were given a mercy clue, this is the only major task in the show's history not to have Phil explain it.
arus2207rb	Deliver Goats Upriver	Botswana	Who wants to go up a creek without a paddle?: Load two goats onto a dugout canoe, paddle upstream to deliver them to a pen using only a pole to steer, then paddle back downriver to the start. The partner not chosen must also sit in the canoe; they are free to help load and unload the goats as they see fit. arus2207dt	Brains or Brawn	Botswana	Brains: Ride horses around a marked course, memorising a sequence of animal signs along the way, then select the ten animals seen from a group of tiles and place them in the correct order. Make any mistakes and reride the entire course before trying again. Brawn: Fill a sandsled attached to two donkeys with wood, then use a carrot on a stick to lead the donkeys to a campsite half a mile away before unloading the wood. As if Brains wasn't hard enough, the last sign shows both a hippo and a smaller heron, and there is no tile for the hippo. arus2208ri3	A Dog's Life	Switzerland	Travelling by train, deliver a St. Bernard to a mountain rescue guide waiting near Jungfrauoch station (the highest in Europe).
arus2208rb	Climb Eiger	Switzerland	Who wants to enjoy the sights?: Climb out of an observation window on the north face of the Eiger, cross a narrow beam to collect a gnome, then continue around the rock face to climb in a second window. There are two windows, each first come, first served, and the clue is on the gnome's base. First requires yet another train trip, this time to the Eiger itself. arus2208ri4	Feeling Horny	Switzerland	Upon arrival in Grund, follow the sound of an alphorn to the next clue. arus2208ri5	Cheese Hill Switchback	Switzerland	Carry a traditional local sled each to the top of a steep, snowy hill, load two 50lb wheels of cheese on each, then deliver them to a shed at the base of the hill. A leg that features Grindelwald and a Switchback and doesn't make players try to pronounce "Gletscherschlucht"? No respect for the classics. arus2209ri1	Ford Challenge	Germany	Correctly answer three multiple-choice quiz questions related tangentially to the next destination. Each must be answered correctly before moving on. I refuse to believe this is a feature of the car anybody would use deliberately.
arus2209ri2	BASE Fly	Germany	One at a time, jump from a 37-storey building and be lowered to the ground on a cable at high speed.

arus2209dt	Train Trials or Font Follies	Germany	Train Trials: Drive to the Deutsches Technikmuseum and lay provided model train tracks on a platform, then have a model train complete a lap. Font Follies: Drive to a stall on Alexanderplatz and collect a giant neon letter each, then carry them on foot to the Buchstabenmuseum without breaking them.
arus2209rb	Search Labyrinth	Germany	Who wants to go tripping?: Answer a general-knowledge question correctly to be granted access to an indoor labyrinth, then search it for a hidden clue. Both the question here and the first question in this leg's first task are about quotes made by US Presidents on trips to Germany. And JFK, the correct answer here, was one of the wrong choices for the question about Reagan earlier. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arus2210rb	Play Bagpipes	Scotland	Who has the deep lungs and strong legs of a Royal Scot?: Learn to hold a note on the bagpipes, then hold it for two minutes while marching with pipers.
arus2210ri	Fire in the Hole	Scotland	Drive to the ruins of Craigmillar Castle and search for a clue hidden amongst its many fireplaces. The clues are placed in separate fireplaces.
arus2210sb	Play Skittles	Scotland	Alternating rolls, score a strike rolling a holeless bowling ball along a raised lane. The Speed Bump sign is placed at the entrance of Craigmillar Castle; I've listed it here rather than before the above task because that task was mentioned in the clue for travelling to the castle.
arus2210dt	Tasty Puddin' or Whisky Rollin'	Scotland	Tasty Puddin': Prepare four haggis each, then each eat one bite of haggis. Whisky Rollin': Roll eight barrels of whisky up a cobblestone course to a party 200 yards away. (This Detour has a Double U-Turn attached.) Both first require driving to Old Church Lane in Duddingston. (So did the Speed Bump, which suggests the sign wasn't supposed to be placed where it was.) It would be remiss of me not to point out the greeter for this leg seemed to have been chosen just as much for being able to portray Jekyll and Hyde as because he was a dead ringer for Scottish-American CBS talk show host Craig Ferguson.
arus2211rb	Bog Snorkelling	Northern Ireland	Who wants to get bogged down?: Cannonball into a bog, then snorkel along a 100-yard course in four minutes or less.
arus2211cc	Insert Dirty Joke	Northern Ireland	Drive back to Belfast and find "the thing with a ring". Turns out it's just a statue. Disappointing.
arus2211dt	Tray It or Spray It	Northern Ireland	Tray It: Find the drydock where the Titanic was built and deliver a five-course meal from a kitchen on ground level to a table of six diners at the base of the dock. There are decoy dishes, and each course must be served correctly before moving on. Spray It: Drive to T13 Skatepark and finish half of a graffiti painting, using only a photo of the intended design for reference.
arus2212ri1	London Calling	England	Upon arrival in London, find the Euston Tap and order a pint of beer each. This is the second season finale with a gratuitous and nonsensical "have beer in a London pub" sequence, after season seven's.
arus2212cc1	Dream On	United States	Upon arrival in Washington, DC, find the location where Martin Luther King Jr. gave the "I Have a Dream" speech.
arus2212ri2	A Bunch of Posers	United States	Travel to 1100 Pennsylvania Avenue and pose for a photo with President Obama. The White House is at 1600; this didn't stop teams from thinking it was real and being disappointed when it turned out to be a tacky gift shop. Still: awful.
arus2212ri3	Backseat Driver	United States	Find a marked car near the Tidal Basin, then knock on its rear window to receive a briefcase with the clue inside.
arus2212rb	Spy Games	United States	Who's ready for some covert ops?: Given a password, find the one briefcase-carrying spy among 50 patrolling the Tidal Basin who will answer with the correct reply, then switch cases and use a verbal clue to open the case's lock. For all three teams, the combination is their finish positions in Legs 3, 4, and 5. It isn't explained how each team got "their" case rather than another team's.

arus2212cc2	Nat on Your Life	United States	Find “the home of the Nats”.
arus2212ri4	Play Ball!	United States	One partner rides a zipline over a baseball stadium and drops a ball to their partner on the ground, who must catch it while dressed as a giant baseball. America!
arus2212ri5	Go Global	United States	One partner searches a gigantic ball pit of unlabelled globes for those marked with the ten countries visited during the race, passing them to the other to arrange in the correct order on a shelf.
arus2212cc3	...And the Home of the Brave	United States	Find the finish line at “the home of the first President”. This is the first time there has been a greeter at the finish line, though she is at the entrance of the Mount Vernon estate rather than at the mat.

Season Twenty-Three

arus2301ri	Route Info	United States	Use a product-placed carphone to call a given number and listen to a message giving the first destination: Iquique, Chile. Another epic beginning for The Amazing Race. Two thumbs up!
arus2301rb1	Follow Paraglider	Chile	Who's good at follow the leader?: Solve a “cryptic” clue to reveal a paraglide landing site, then navigate your taxi there while your partner paraglides.
arus2301rb2	Collect 5 Fish	Chile	Who's got both oars in the water?: Paddle a rowboat through Iquique Harbour to collect five fish from any or all of three listed boats, then return. Each boat has a limited supply of fish.
arus2301cc	Sea Legs	Chile	Find the Pit Stop at Teatro Municipal de Iquique, given only a photo of it. The leg winners get two Express Passes, one to be given away before the end of Leg 5 and both available for use before the end of Leg 8.
arus2302ri	Whatever Quotes Your Boat	Chile	Identify a famous quote given by local hero Arturo Prat during the Battle of Iquique, then repeat it in Spanish to a waiting boat captain.
arus2302dt	Brining or Mining	Chile	Brining: Fill a small pool with 25kg bags of salt until the water is dense enough to read the local newspaper in while floating. Mining: Use sledgehammers and picks to break open salt rocks until a hidden clue is found. Both require riding bikes from the cluebox to the Tarapaca salt flats.
arus2302rb	Shoeshine Carts	Chile	Who's got the knack to pack?: Travel to Paseo Ahumada and shine a waiting customer's shoes, then pack up the folding shoeshine cart used and take it on foot to a storage locker six blocks away at Merced 738.
arus2303cc	Art Imitates Life	Portugal	Given only a painting of a coach, find the Museu Nacional dos Coches and then the coach shown.
arus2303dt	Tiles or Miles	Portugal	Tiles: Travel to Fabrica Sant'Ana and assemble a life-size portrait from porcelain tiles. Miles: Collect a giant compass from Jeronimos Monastery, take it to Padrão dos Descobrimentos, and use it to measure the total distance between ten locations on a giant map of Magellan's voyage within 500 miles of the real total.
arus2303rb	Slings & Arrows	Portugal	Who has a hand for slings and arrows?: Use a giant crossbow to hit one of ten hanging shields with an arrow.
arus2304dt	Hang Your Heads or Hammer of the Cods	Norway	Hang Your Heads: Skewer six bundles of ten fish heads for drying, then carry them to a series of drying racks and hang them. Hammer of the Cods: Collect fifteen pairs of cods from racks and carry them to a warehouse, then use a wooden mallet to pound waiting cod into one kilogram of boneless fish jerky. Both first require travelling to the L Bergs Sønner AS fish factory.
arus2304rb	Arctic Plunge	Norway	Who's the biggest swinger?: Complete a giant swing from the Henningsvær Bridge over the Arctic Ocean, unclip to drop into the water, and swim to a nearby buoy with clues attached. First requires travelling to said bridge.

arus2304ri	Ford Challenge	Norway	Use chains to attach a sled with a boulder on it to your car and tow it far enough to collect a satchel of Viking coins (for use later in the race) and the next clue from underneath. There was no rest period at this leg's Pit Stop; though only one team arrives by the end of the episode, the new clue isn't used as the cliffhanger. (The city in this leg is so far north there was no sunset on the night the race visited – the leg was filmed in broad daylight well after midnight – so the choice to eliminate the rest period here is especially sadistic.) arus2305dt	Pose or Polka	Poland	Pose: Travel to the Long Market and pose as statues, imitating a nearby Neptune statue to collect 75 złoty in tips from passersby. Polka: Travel to Old Town Hall, then learn and correctly perform a polka routine. (This Detour has a Double U-Turn attached.) After both tasks, players must wear their costumes for the entire leg. (With five all-male teams cast and three still racing, my guess is this was to punish teams who tried to game the game by relying on the usual lax dance task standards.) In addition to the graphics being changed this season, the U-Turn sign has been updated but has reverted to its original format of cards in lieu of touchscreens. It is not clear whether this is because the touchscreens looked terrible on TV or because the sponsorship deal with the manufacturer was not renewed. arus2305cc1	Long Journey	Poland	Find “the longest apartment building in Poland”.
arus2305rb	Find Rose Paczki	Poland	Who's got a sweet tooth?: Search the Falowiec Building for one of twelve listed apartments and eat a provided paczki (Polish donut) upon arrival, continuing until one with rose filling is found. Each address has only one kind of paczki. Penalties for rude manners are implied, but... how would it be enforced? arus2305cc2	Pier Pressure	Poland	Find the Pit Stop at “the longest wooden pier in Europe”.
arus2306ff	Bungy Jump 500 Feet	Austria	Travel to the Donauturm and complete a mystery task: bungy jumping 500 feet from it, one at a time. Attempted but not claimed due to inclement weather. The task is a Switchback to a season four Road Block; that it isn't mentioned isn't surprising but is especially notable when one of the Detour tasks is copied from the episode before that season's Austria leg. arus2306dt	Light Brigade or Masquerade	Austria	Light Brigade: Travel to Ephesos Museum and assemble a chandelier to match the example. Fail and it will be smashed, forcing you to switch task. Masquerade: Travel to Palais Lobkowitz and put on a masquerade mask each, then search a room of dancing couples for the people wearing the same masks. arus2306rb	Join the Choir	Austria	Who's a choir boy at heart?: Learn Schubert's Die Forelle with an instructor, then sing it with the Vienna Boys' Choir with correct pronunciation and tune.
arus2306ri	A Maze in Race	Austria	Travel to Schonbrunn Palace and search its hedge maze for the next clue.
arus2307dt	Sort it Out or Sew it Up	United Arab Emirates	Sort it Out: Travel to a stall at Al Mina Vegetable Market and make a platter of mixed dates matching the example exactly. Sew it Up: Travel to the harbour and assemble a traditional fishing net matching the example. arus2307rb	Drop and Drive	United Arab Emirates	Who wants to drop in on a hot lap?: Perform a 200-foot free abseil, then ride one lap of a grand prix track at high speed while memorising roadside lap time signs, providing the fastest time and its driver at the end of the lap. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg. (More notable: 23 seasons in, it's the first time this version has had a female greeter in a Middle Eastern country.) arus2308ri1	Viking Coin Puzzle	United Arab Emirates	Use the coins collected in Norway to work out a five-digit combination, then use it to unlock a product-placed car for use throughout this leg. The coins must be placed in the order their designs are shown on the bag they are stored in, then flipped over to reveal the combination. arus2308ri2	Follow Flags into Desert	United Arab Emirates	Ride a dune buggy along a marked course of unknown distance to find a cluebox. UAE visits by this franchise: Three. UAE visits by this franchise with "Yay, sandy desert!" tasks: Three.

arus2308dt	Wedding Guests or Beauty Contest	United Arab Emirates	Wedding Guests: Collect a series of listed ingredients from a table, prepare them for cooking in accordance with a recipe, and serve a cooked version to a table of wedding guests. Beauty Contest: Find one specific camel in a herd using a list of its facial features, then dress and groom it for a camel show. (This Detour has a Double U-Turn attached.) Both first require travelling to Al Jahili Fort.
arus2308sb	Wet & Wild	United Arab Emirates	Jump from a platform into a wave pool, then swim to a rope ladder at the far end and climb back out. A six-foot wave is generated every 90 seconds.
arus2308rb	Ride the Rapids	United Arab Emirates	Who likes rapid transit?: Paddle down the world's longest manmade whitewater course with a guide, collecting three overhead flags along the way.
arus2309ri	Head-Butting Rams	Indonesia	Unload two rams from a nearby truck, take them to an arena and wait for them to butt heads, then return them to their truck.
arus2309dt	For the Elephants or For the Birds	Indonesia	For the Elephants: Collect a listed variety of food from Simpang Market, take it to Bandung Zoo, use a hand trolley to deliver it to the elephants, and feed them. For the Birds: Collect two birds from a marked stall at Sukahaji Market and deliver them to a bird song competition, then get them to sing.
arus2309rb	Assemble Angklung	Indonesia	Who has an inkling for Angklung?: Assemble a traditional angklung (musical instrument) using bamboo pieces sourced from a communal pile so that an octave can be correctly played on it.
arus2310ri	Snake Bite	Indonesia	Find King Cobra House and each eat a serving of grilled cobra.
arus2310rb	Hard-Boil Eggs	Indonesia	Who's feeling hard-boiled?: Collect 60 eggs from a vendor, ride on the back of a motorcycle along a dirt road to a hot springs, and use baskets on poles to hard-boil at least a dozen before returning to have them checked.
arus2310dt	Paint Your Partner or Turn Over a New Leaf	Indonesia	Paint Your Partner: Travel to Gracia Spa Graha Ciater and apply makeup and decorations to each other to resemble a typical Javanese bride, with a finished model but no mirror for reference. Turn Over a New Leaf: Travel to Ciater Tea Plantation and search the terraced teafields for one of several hidden shears. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arus2311dt	Knock it Down or Call it Up	Japan	Knock it Down: Travel to Tokyo Media City and take turns riding down a bumpy slope on innertubes, trying to score a strike by knocking over giant bowling pins at the bottom. Call it Up: Travel to Kinuta Park, have one partner climb into a water-filled phone booth and listen to a message while goldfish swim around them, then relay that message to the other partner to tell the cluegiver. Only two teams can attempt each task at a time. The first task is the third in a series of obnoxious phony Japanese Game Shows with the same fake host; the message in the phone task includes an otherwise random expression used as an audience chant the first time the host appeared. This is the only time tasks are described when a team arrives at them rather than when the first team reads the clue. Probably a good thing in this instance.
arus2311sb	Capture Escaped Rhino	Japan	Work with a group of zookeepers to corral a pantomime rhinoceros with a giant cargo net, loading it onto a truck. I can't help noticing Phil took great efforts to claim this is a real drill while not doing anything remotely similar for the Detour.
arus2311rb	Build a Robot	Japan	Pipe up or go home.: Use cardboard pipes to assemble a lifesize model robot, with only a miniature robot a short distance away for reference.
arus2311ri	Out of Order	Japan	Travel to Shibuya Scramble Crossing and search for a roaming vending machine.
arus2312rb	Supply Drop	United States	Who's got flour power?: Riding in a bush plane flying at 60mph, drop a flour bag onto a giant target on the ground over 150 feet below.

arus2312ri1	Ice Expedition	United States	Ride a helicopter to Norris Glacier and work with a guide to cross a crevasse and travel through an ice tunnel, then use a pickaxe to release a clue from the glacier wall. Not every clue is correct.
arus2312ri2	Build a Wall of Totem Poles	United States	Assemble a provided set of wooden cylinders to form nine totem poles showing the currencies of the nine countries visited during the race, arranging them in a frame in the order the countries were visited. In a break with tradition for this sort of task, the United States is only listed last rather than being both first and last in the sequence.

Season Twenty-Four: All-Stars II

arus2401ri1	Band Aid	United States	Memorise the Chinese characters for Guangzhou as shown on a bandleader's hat, then find a marching band member with the same characters on their hat and bring them to Phil. Marching band version of the show's theme optional.
arus2401ri2	Shop 'Til You Drop	China	Upon landing in Guangzhou, travel to the bridal district and search for one of three specific stores, given only their English names. Each store has a limited number of clues.
arus2401cc	Thought Bubble	China	Find "the building with the bubbles on top". A model bubble is provided to help.
arus2401ri3	Ferris Wheeler's Day Off	China	Upon arrival at Canton Tower, pick one of the bubbles on its observation wheel and search it for a clue. Every cabin has a clue but not all of them are correct; either way, the bubble must be ridden for a full lap.
arus2401rb	Head Over Heels	China	Who's feeling wired?: Suspended 300 feet in the air in a stunt harness, perform five consecutive backflips. While Caroline is shown commenting on other teams, Jennifer is never shown performing the task. The leg winners get two Express Passes, one to be given away before the end of Leg 5 and both available for use before the end of Leg 8.
arus2402ri1	Martial Bore	China	Travel to Chen Clan Academy and watch a martial arts demonstration. At the end, a performer will stamp the next clue – in Chinese – on each of your heads.
arus2402rb	Child's Play	China	Who's the mechanic?: Assemble a motorised toy car, with only a manual written entirely in Chinese for reference. Oh. We're down to doing "Made in China" tasks in China now? Might be time to give it a rest for a few seasons then.
arus2402ri2	Cargo	China	Deliver the toy car built above to Guangzhou Children's Cultural Centre, using provided cables to secure it to your taxi.
arus2402dt	Featherball or China Cup	China	Featherball: Travel to Liwanhu Park and work with two featherball players to keep a shuttlecock in the air for ten consecutive passes. China Cup: Travel to a spa and each receive a traditional cupping therapy. For those of you playing along, at the end of this leg Margie and Luke had spent seven legs – over half a race – in China, while Jet and Cord had spent six there.
arus2403rb	Face the Falls	Malaysia	Who will fall for this one?: Collect a product-placed gnome and transport it across a hand-over-hand traverse, then collect a clue while abseiling down a ten-storey waterfall.
arus2403dt	River Delivery or Run Through the Jungle	Malaysia	River Delivery: Collect a set of supplies, then paddle downriver and deliver them to Kampung Tombung. Run Through the Jungle: Use a blowpipe to each hit a bird target while being led along a forest trail by a Murut warrior. For both, teams must build a bamboo raft and paddle downriver to the start of their task, then from the end of their task to the next clue (rather than having it given to them). Why were there cockatoo targets? They aren't native to Asia , let alone Sabah.

arus2404rb	Leaps and Bounds	Malaysia	Who's got a spring in their step?: Bounce on a bamboo trampoline to grab a flag overhead. Its height is adjusted according to yours; fail within three attempts and return to the back of the line.
arus2404dt	Mix Master or Master Mix	Malaysia	Mix Master: Learn to DJ, then each mimic seven increasingly-complex record scratch effects correctly. Master Mix: Stack seven cocktail glasses into a two-level pyramid, then stack seven glasses filled with red and yellow liquids into a tower before tilting it to fill the pyramid simultaneously, without any colours mixing. Both first require travelling to the Skybar. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arus2405ri	Bless Again	Sri Lanka	Upon landing in Colombo, receive a Buddhist blessing at Gangaramaya Temple. Oddly, this temple has been used for identical tasks in two other franchises, and for other tasks in two more, but this is the first time teams have been required to change clothes for the blessing.
arus2405dt	Fishing Pole or Spin Control	Sri Lanka	Fishing Pole: Water to perches in the shallow water and use a makeshift rod to catch a fish each, bringing them ashore. Spin Control: Learn and perform a dance routine while each spinning tambourine-like instruments atop handheld poles.
arus2405sb	Pass with Flying Colours	Sri Lanka	Use silk-screening materials to correctly apply the final layer to Sri Lankan flag decals on fifteen T-shirts.
arus2405rb	A Stitch in Time Saves Nine	Sri Lanka	Who wants to put the treadle to the metal?: Use a sewing machine to assemble a shirt correctly, with an ongoing demonstration for reference. As with the blessing, this task was also used on the Asian and Australian races in the same location; all three times, it was deservedly criticised by fandom for promoting sweatshop labour.
arus2406rb	Pump it Up	Sri Lanka	Who wants to fill 'er up?: Search a traffic jam of tuktuks for four marked in a set colour, then bring them to a fuel station and fill up their tanks.
arus2406dt	Trunk or Sheets	Sri Lanka	Trunk: Work with an elephant to transport six logs to a truck, carrying three yourselves and attaching a chain to three others for the elephant. There are a limited number of chains. Sheets: Fill a wheelbarrow with elephant dung, mix it with water and scrap paper to make pulp, use the pulp to make five sheets of paper, then lay out a stack of paper to dry.
arus2406ri	Sound Off	Sri Lanka	Travel to Ambepussa Rest House and follow the sound of music to a wise man, who will finish his song before handing over the next clue. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg.
arus2407cc1	Time Flies	Sri Lanka	Fly to "the Eternal City" and find Hadrian's Bridge upon arrival.
arus2407sb	Just My Type	Italy	Collect an Olivetti typewriter from an antique dealer outside the Pantheon, then carry it to a photographer outside the landmark it allegedly resembles.
arus2407dt	Gladiator or Charioteer	Italy	Gladiator: Travel to Parco del Celio, learn a choreographed swordfight routine, and each perform it with a professional. Charioteer: Travel to Parco del Colle Oppio and steer a remote-control chariot around five laps of a track within 90 seconds, with one partner controlling speed and the other controlling turning.
arus2407cc2	At Home with the Classics	Italy	Find the "Piazza of John Keats' unhappy Roman holiday". The odd wording is a double meaning: the Piazza di Spagna is both where Keats died and was made famous in the movie Roman Holiday (the latter of which is referenced by the cluegivers for the task taking place there).
arus2407rb	Step Up and Be Counted	Italy	Who can sum up the Spanish Steps?: Count the Spanish Steps, add the number to the number shown in Roman numerals on an obelisk at the top, then write the answer in Roman numerals on a postcard. Fail and collect a new postcard from the bottom of the steps before trying again.
arus2407cc3	Start/Finish	Italy	Find "where the race's leg ends but the Via Flaminia begins".

arus2408dt	Donkey Run or Donkey Build	Italy	Donkey Run: Ride a donkey each around three laps of a track while a band plays a song, finishing before they do. Donkey Build: Assemble a wooden donkey from provided materials without any reference and have it loaded with wood, then deliver it to a nearby house. (This Detour has a Double U-Turn attached.) Pro: The basket the donkey parts are stored in being part of the donkey. Con: The donkey race basically being a lesser copy of last leg's chariot task.
arus2408rb	The Write Stuff	Italy	Who's got the write stuff?: Use calligraphy and gold-leafing techniques to copy a page of a provided religious manuscript exactly.
arus2409ri1	Showin' Tell	Switzerland	Upon arrival in Chiasso, drive to the William Tell Monument in Altdorf and wait for an impersonator to arrive at sunrise with the next clue. Naturally, the sequence after this clue is given has the William Tell Overture as its background music.
arus2409cc	Morning Wood	Switzerland	Drive to Lucerne and find "the oldest wooden bridge in Europe".
arus2409ri2	Rockstar Rehab	Switzerland	Drive to Schweizerhof Hotel and clean a room (allegedly trashed by a rock band) to match an example room exactly. I'm guessing the theme is a thin veil to hide copying yet another task from other versions. (Oddly, they seem to be doing it fairly regularly this season despite deliberately avoiding it in the past.)
arus2409ri3	Dig a Little Deeper	Switzerland	Drive to the Verkehrshaus der Schweiz and find a marked item outside, then correctly identify its function.
arus2409ri4	50 Years of Mustang	Switzerland	After picking a car with the clue for this task on it, use the adjacent wall of road signs and a provided formula to work out the year the car was made. Each clue has a different formula for its car.
arus2409rb	Don't Cry Over Spilt Milk	Switzerland	Who wants to make a milk pick-up Swiss-style?: Pick a delivery cart led by a Bernese mountain dog, load two empty milk jugs on it and lead the dog to one of two gondolas, then ride up alone with just the jugs and exchange them for full jugs before returning to the start of the task. Non-elimination; the spared team must complete a Speed Bump in the next leg. (The skeptic in me suggests this was chosen as a non-elimination because a very similar leg two seasons ago ended with the only popular team left being booted.) arus2410cc	Greek, Roman, Spanish?	Spain	Upon landing in Seville, "find the next clue between Hercules and Caesar". Despite the wording, there are hours of operation here and clues can only be collected (from a bugler standing between the two monuments) from 8:30am.
arus2410rb	Barbers of Seville	Spain	Who wants to be a barber of Seville?: Use a straight razor to clear a layer of shaving cream from an inflated balloon within 60 seconds without popping it. Seville: Land of balloon people. Balloon people have been discriminated against on this show for far too long. Equal rights for balloon people!
arus2410sb	Ham it Up	Spain	Deliver six Spanish hams on foot to Las Teresas Cafe Bar.
arus2410dt	Spanish Steps or Run with the Ballz	Spain	Spanish Steps: Travel to the Museo del Baile Flamenco, then learn and perform a simple flamenco routine. Run with the Ballz: Travel to Calle Lope de Rueda and put on inflatable bull outfits, then run through the streets on a set route, finding and memorising three parts of a phrase while being distracted by other "bulls", repeating the phrase at the end. (This Detour has a Double U-Turn attached.)
arus2411ri	Just for Kicks	England	Upon landing in London, drive to Anfield Stadium in Liverpool and each score two penalty goals against an expert teenage goalkeeper. Even if it's a plug for the product-placed car, why London and not Manchester, which is right there and has a sporting rivalry so fierce locals could send teams off course for the fun of it?
arus2411cc	River Phoenix	England	Drive into Wales and find "the stream in the sky". If you're only going to have one new country in a race as deliberately derivative as this one has been, Wales probably isn't the right choice? Just a thought.

arus2411rb	Poetry in Motion	Wales	Who gets high water and marks?: Learn a Welsh-language poem while crossing the Pontcysyllte Aqueduct in a canalboat, then recite it correctly at the end of the fifteen-minute trip. Fail and repeat the entire crossing before trying again.
arus2411dt	Shoot It or Boot It	England	Shoot It: Taking turns, hit a combined total of sixteen targets skeet shooting. Boot It: Search a pile of wellingtons for a pair in either size 9 or size 11, then fill them with water and repeatedly throw them along a marked course until they land over the finish line.
arus2412ri1	There and Back	United States	Upon landing in Las Vegas, ride a waiting car into the desert and dig in a marked area for a locked crate needed in the next task before being taken to it.
arus2412rb1	Do You Believe in Magic?	United States	Do you believe in magic?: Shackled by one wrist and both ankles inside a crate, use a ring of keys to free yourself, then reach through the lid and grab a jar with a lock pick inside, then open the crate and escape while the box is "lit on fire and dropped onto a metal scaffold". Cameo by David Copperfield, who designed the stunt. (Plausible reaction: "Wow, Celine Dion's looking good for sixty-eight.") The partner not chosen watches a live camera feed rather than the actual stunt; when it cuts from the player inside to them reaching out for the jar, the latter is a pre-filmed clip to allow the player to escape without risk.
arus2412ri2	Night Light	United States	Search the Neon Museum for a silver and red question mark and remove one of its lights, then take it to the Mirage for use in the next task. I say "search", but it's right behind the cluebox. Still, surprisingly hard.
arus2412ri3	How Many Light Bulbs Does it Take?	United States	Ride in a window washer's basket to the sign at the top of the Mirage hotel and replace all of the lights in the letter I, then correctly count the number of bulbs used before being lowered back to the ground. Yes. Installing lightbulbs. Exciting and totally worthy of an all-star season finale. (In case you can't tell, I'm being quite sarcastic.)
arus2412rb2	Light Up the Sky	United States	Who wants to be a UFO?: Put on a glowing jumpsuit and ride in a helicopter over the Vegas strip while searching for a sign revealing the finish line, then ride there and perform a tandem skydive from 10,000 feet above. Usually whoever did the first must not perform the second; this season the rules were changed so that Road Blocks must be split evenly in the first ten legs and then evenly again in the last two; theoretically, whoever sat out of last leg's Road Block could have done both in this leg. "Let's take all of the tension from the finale by creating a leg with a likely close finish and then make the last task basically first come, first served." Well done, show! (This leg was below par anyway, even with the lower standards of finales, but still. Icing on top.)

arvt0107rb	Remember the Time	Thua Thien-Hue	Who's feeling nostalgic?: Memorise the details on seven posters showing Nguyen Dynasty emperors and the durations of their reigns, then collect twenty markers representing different lengths (1, 2, 5, or 10 years) and take them to a solving station before combining them so each emperor is represented by markers showing the length of their reign. The second player must find the questions on signs around Phu Quoc Prison and match the answers given by their partner while the latter carries a shoulderbasket around laps of a courtyard; for each wrong guess, a coconut is loaded into the basket. If the walker drops it, the team must serve an immediate two-hour penalty before the baskets are emptied.
arvt0111rb	Mazed and Confused	Kien Giang	Who likes the ocean breeze?: Guide a key along a rope wound through a fence to release it, use a rope to pull a heavy crate from the water and unlock it, then use the photos inside to find three parts of a treasure map showing the Pit Stop. arvt0210ri1	Dig Deep	Hai Phong	Travel to Prince Beach 2 and search beneath a grid of sandcastles for one of several buried clues. Destroy a sandcastle without a clue beneath it and it must be rebuilt before continuing.
arvt0210ri2	Para Sight	Hai Phong	Travel to Prince Beach 1 and have one player parasail, memorising the tricolour signs shown in five boats along the set route, then replicate all five signs from memory using coloured blocks.
arvt0210ri3	Strike a Pose	Hai Phong	Travel back to Prince Beach 2 and climb onto parallel pontoons, then have one player make a series of poses while the other uses a camera to photograph each.

Season Three: Celebrity Edition II

arvt0301ri1	There and Kayak	Quang Ninh	In relay, paddle a kayak to one of two sampans filled with balls, find one marked with part of the show's Vietnamese title, and bring it back to your partner on shore, repeating until all five parts have been found and returned.
arvt0301rb	Room with a View	Quang Ninh	Who likes adventure?: Free rappel from Bai Chay Bridge to collect a bottle of product-placed energy drink from a dangling rope, continue down into a boat and ride back to shore, then travel to Muong Thanh Hotel and search the rooms on the 18th, 19th, and 20th floors for your partner.
arvt0301dt	An or Hoc	Quang Ninh	An [Feeders]: Prepare servings of three simple vegetarian dishes. Hoc [Readers]: Memorise versions of the same poem in both modern and archaic Vietnamese, then repeat them verbatim.
arvt0301ri2	Crate Outdoors	Quang Ninh	Carry a large crate of books up an outdoor staircase to Tran Nhan Tong Buddha Statue, then work out that his request for "the Green Lotus Bud" refers to one of the books. If needed, the answer can be given by a local at a chairlift station but the crate must be carried the entire way. Non-elimination; the spared team will get a 30-minute penalty if they do not win the next leg. The leg winners get an Express Pass for use before the end of Leg 8.
arvt0302rb	Close Shave	Hanoi	Who likes hair care?: Use a straight razor to remove shaving cream from three inflated balloons without popping any. Fail and get an immediate fifteen-minute penalty before trying again.
arvt0302cc1	Four of a Kind	Hanoi	Find the next destination given only a photo of it, then search its grounds for a photo of the next destination, and so on until all four photos have been collected and given to a person waiting at the last destination. No talking while inside the grounds of any photographed destination. The four locations are the north, south, east, and west gates of the Old Quarter.
arvt0302ri1	Paint Misbehavin'	Hanoi	Paint a copy of a traditional cartoon, using only a smaller copy of the completed image for reference.
arvt0302cc2	Lost in Time	Hanoi	Find the oldest house in Duong Lam Village.
arvt0302dt	Trong or Che	Hanoi	Trong [Beat]: Walk to a nearby temple and balance on a giant seesaw so that one partner can bang a raised drum three times, then transfer a series of flags from one partner to the other. If either side of the seesaw touches the ground, the attempt is a failure and you must return to the end of the line. Che [Sweet]: Walk to a nearby house and prepare a tray of che lam, a traditional local candy. For both, there are only two workstations available, each first come first served.
arvt0302ri2	Slip Sliding Away	Hanoi	Tug of war, standing on a greased surface and using a bamboo pole instead of a rope. Survive for three minutes to get the clue.
arvt0302ri3	Soft Sell	Hanoi	Sell five scarves to bystanders, earning a total of 1,500,000 dong.
arvt0303rb	Don't Count Your Chickens Before They Hatch	Dien Bien	Who is most skilful?: Balance an egg on a spoon held in your mouth, then walk up an outdoor staircase to Keo Phao Memorial and count the statues, as well as the number of them wearing hats. Make a mistake or break your egg and get an immediate fifteen-minute penalty before trying again. Only two players can attempt the task at a time. (Your guess is as good as mine.)
arvt0303ri1	Wheel Deal	Dien Bien	Assemble bamboo gutter, carry it to a waterwheel, and set it up in place to fill a nearby vase with water.

arvt0303ri2	Bamboozled	Dien Bien	Part 1: Wearing weighted shoes, hold hands and jump over a series of ankle-high poles as locals move them backwards and forwards in a set rhythm without hitting any. Part 2: Convince a local to let you stay at their house overnight.
arvt0303ri3	The Weight Escape	Dien Bien	Collect two goats from a pen and lead them along a marked route, then guess their total weight within 500g. Fail and return the goats to the pen, getting a brief time penalty before starting again.

arvt0303ri5	Out of Reach	Dien Bien	Bungy run. Starting from opposite sides of a pit, run down the sloped walls to the centre and transfer a flag from one player to the other.
arvt0304ri1	Letters and Numbers	Nghe An	Assemble five double-sided puzzle pieces into a square, use a translation guide to turn the numbers on the visible sides into letters, then arrange them to spell a mystery word. It's a little bit of a stretch here to assume they got from the numbers to the letters without help – aside from the whole puzzle being double-sided and thus having two solutions, three of the pieces can be flipped over in place to result in different numbers without affecting the rest of the puzzle.
arvt0304dt	Tinh Mat or Sieng Nang	Nghe An	Tinh Mat [Observation]: Enter a pond and search a group of swimming ducks for two with colour-coded ribbons around their feet. Sieng Nang [Preparation]: Harvest 15kg of elephant feed from plants, feed 5kg of it to elephants, then clean up 50kg of elephant dung and transport it to a disposal site.

arvt0304ri3	Soccer To Me	Nghe An	Part 1: Headbutt a soccer ball back and forth four consecutive times. Part 2: Have one player kick a ball through a slalom course and then to their partner (who has run through a slalom of their own) to kick past a cardboard cutout into a goal. Score three goals in five attempts or receive an immediate fifteen-minute penalty before trying again. There is no rest period at this leg's Pit Stop; all teams are shown arriving by the end of the episode but it doesn't appear as if anybody actually gets the next clue. (More oddly, the last team is told they are eliminated but is later told at their hotel that they are not.)
arvt0305ri1	Hear No Evil	Thua Thien-Hue	One player completes the first half a high ropes course while blindfolded, with their partner on the ground directing. They then remove the blindfold and complete the rest with a clue held in their mouth. Drop the clue and restart the entire task.
arvt0305rb	Signs and Blunders	Thua Thien-Hue	Who likes heights?: Ride a zipline while memorising a series of numbers on large signs below, then recite them all in order. It's presented as if the numbers form a telephone number which must be dialled to hear the clue, but that's clearly BS – the string of digits is far too long, and players are shown listing the sequence to an offscreen task judge.
arvt0305dt	Truyen Thong or Hien Dai	Thua Thien-Hue	Truyen Thong [Traditional]: Travel to the Perfume River and use baskets to collect 5kg of snails from the riverbed. Hien Dai [Modern]: Travel to Le Brothers Gallery and make a work of modern art. (This Detour has a U-Turn attached.)

arvt0306rb	Reefer Madness	Khanh Hoa	Who wants to go on a treasure hunt?: SCUBA dive to find a series of underwater boxes, then use a key to open them, searching for one of several hidden balls. First requires travelling to a coral reef near the Hon Mun islands.
arvt0306dt	Len Nui or Xuong Bien	Khanh Hoa	Len Nui [Mountain High]: Search among a rockfall for one of several hidden clues. Xuong Bien [River Deep]: Repair a broken fishing net. Both first require travelling to the Hon Mun islands, but each task takes place on a different island.

arvt0306ri4	Picnic Basket	Khanh Hoa	Paddle a coracle through the floating market to collect a set of ingredients and a portable stove from a marked boat, paddle into the water and prepare a serving of grilled fish, then return to the supply boat before it burns. Non-elimination; the spared team will receive no money for the next leg.
arvt0307ri1	Packed to the Rafters	Khanh Hoa	Ride a raft down a whitewater course, throwing balls into nearby baskets along the way. For the first two attempts, get two balls in baskets; for the next two, only two are needed; thereafter, only one ball is needed.
arvt0307ff	Feast to Their Own	Ninh Thuan	Travel to Pacific Beach Resort and each eat a large serving of lamb.
arvt0307rb	Feeling Sheepish	Ninh Thuan	[Hint unknown]: Enter a sheep pen and herd two sheep wearing colour-coded bandanas into their respective pens, while blindfolded and following verbal directions from your partner. First requires travelling to Phuoc Lap Village.
arvt0307dt	Dat Dai or Cay Trai	Ninh Thuan	Dat Dai [Pots]: Travel to a pottery workshop in Bau Truc and make a clay pot, using a finished pot for reference. Cay Trai [Plants]: Travel to Ba Moi Little Farm and trim the vines and branches of a set of grape plants, then harvest the grapes.
arvt0307ri2	Pot Heads	Ninh Thuan	Balance pots of water on your heads and cross a course through the sand dunes to reach a larger pot, repeating the process until you have filled the large pot with water. No hands.
arvt0308ri1	Bug Off	Dong Thap	Eat servings of several local delicacies, including assorted fried insects, frogs, and grasshoppers, and live beetle larvae.
arvt0308dt	Lich Su or Truyen Thong	Dong Thap	Lich Su [History]: Search books about Vietnamese history for words on specific pages and lines, then combine them into a mystery phrase. Truyen Thong [Tradition]: Weave a thatched basket, using a finished basket for reference.
arvt0308rb	Hit Me With Your Best Shot	Dong Thap	Who is more accurate?: Use a giant slingshot to fire coconuts at a target. On the first attempt, hit it three times in five shots; on the second, hit it twice in seven shots; after that, hit it once in ten shots. arvt0309dt	Phong Ten or Phat Co	South Korea	Phong Ten [Mountains]: Collect a sticker while hiking up a hill, exchange it for ten sticks, then throw three into a jar from behind a marked line with one player sitting on the other's shoulders. Fail and hike back down to collect another sticker. Phat Co [Cliffs]: One partner hikes to a lookout on a nearby cliff, then uses semaphore to send a message to the other to translate without error.
arvt0309ri1	Half and Half	South Korea	Travel to Kimnyoung Stone Maze and collect two halves of a clue from clueboxes in different parts of the maze.

arvt0309ri2	Getting Stoned	South Korea	Search Jeju Stone Park for the statue shown in a provided photo, then enter the park's museum and count the stones on display. No talking in the museum.
arvt0309rb	Skeet Sixteen	South Korea	Who likes flying saucers?: Skeet shooting. Hit five clay targets with only sixteen bullets. Run out of bullets and get an immediate thirty-minute penalty before the clue is given. First requires travelling to Daeyoo Hunting & Shooting Club.
arvt0309ri3	Married to my Korea	South Korea	Part 1: Dress in traditional Korean wedding outfits and have a local take your photo. Part 2: Find a woman performing a love song and collect a bag of rice, then take it to a workstation and have one player grind it while the other learns the song before performing it. The clue will be given if the song is performed correctly; the singer cannot attempt the task until the rice is ground. There is no rest period at this leg's Pit Stop; all teams are shown arriving by the end of the episode but it doesn't appear as if anybody actually gets the next clue.
arvt0310ri1	Outsider Art	South Korea	Travel to Bukchon Village and search for four people with bags of supplies, then take the supplies to a workstation and make assorted local crafts with the items to match completed versions as shown.

arvt0310ri2	Race and Relaxation	South Korea	Four spa-themed minitasks: timed stays in a sauna and a spa, cleaning a spa, and folding spa clothing for storage. Once all four are complete the clue will be given.
arvt0310ri3	Dub Step	South Korea	Watch a short scene from a famous South Korean film, work out what the scene was about, then re-enact it correctly.
arvt0310rb	Rolls; A Deck	South Korea	Who likes sweet treats?: Select a tray of baked goods and eat them all, then turn over the playing card in front of the tray. If it is a joker, wait 15 minutes before trying again. Each tray has a different set of items. First requires travelling to Tous les Jours restaurant.
arvt0310ri4	Leap of Faith	South Korea	Travel to Riverland Park and bungee jump from a crane, one at a time. There is a time limit; run out of time and wait fifteen minutes before getting back in line.

aras0103rb	Beach Dig	Indonesia	Who digs the seaside?: Dig in a marked plot of sand to find a buried 'souvenir': a wooden surfboard. Held at Kuta Beach, most known as the site of the 2002 Bali bombings. (This version's producers are Australian and undoubtedly knew of the connection.)
aras0103ri1	Caught in the Web	Indonesia	Travel to Internet Outpost internet cafe and use its computers to find a clue with a product-placed search engine. We're shown a close-up of the clue on screen, but the address bar makes it clear it's a regular file viewed in a web explorer rather than actually being online.

aras0109dt	Carry or Count	India	Carry: Travel to the West Bengal Kabaddi Association and fill urns with milk, then balance them on your heads and cross a clearing to pour them into a barrel, repeating until the 80-litre barrel is full. No hands while delivering. Count: Travel to Maniktala Bazar and count the betel nuts in a basket, using an empty basket for assistance. Each basket has a different total. There is no rest period at this leg's Pit Stop and the episode ends with the first team arriving.

arla0505dt	Fuerzas Especiales or Paracaidistas	Peru	Fuerzas Especiales [Special Forces]: Abseil down a training tower, climb back up by bracing yourself between two parallel walls, then lower yourself back down face first. Paracaidistas [Paratroopers]: Put on paratrooper harnesses using only a waiting soldier's harness for reference, then walk to the top of a training tower and ride a bungee-like zipline back to the ground.
arla0505rb	Taste Test	Peru	Who has better taste?: Taste four different canapes, each with six ingredients, then identify at least four correct ingredients in each. Double elimination leg.
arla0506rb1	Going Down	Curaçao	[Hint unknown]: Free rappel from Queen Juliana Bridge.

arla0506rb2	Stand and Deliver	Curaçao	Who is more heroic?: Use a stand-up paddleboard to reach a pontoon, collect a waiting person, and bring them back to shore. First requires driving to Curaçao Windsurfing School.
arla0506ri	Breaking News	Curaçao	Part 1: Read an autocue script written in Papiamentu, detailing an accident near a local monument. Part 2: Walk to said monument and give first aid on a 'victim', then take them to an ambulance.

arla0508rb	Hands Off	Dominican Republic	[Hint unknown]: Complete a simple obstacle course on the beach... with your hands tied behind your back.
arla0508sb	Lunch Break	Dominican Republic	Eat a serving of Mofongo, a traditional local soup-like dish, each. Is this the only time a 'local delicacy' challenge has deliberately and explicitly been treated as a punishment on a reality show?
arla0508ri	Windfall	Dominican Republic	Travel to Damajagua Falls and climb to the top, then travel back down the series of small waterfalls by sliding down smooth rocks and jumping from cliffs into the pools below, collecting a bag of coins along the way and depositing them into a product-placed piggy bank at the bottom.
arla0508dt	Distancia or Precisión	Dominican Republic	Distancia [Distance]: Hit five golf balls each past a marker 200 yards away. Precisión [Precision]: Putt five golf balls each into a hole, sinking each ball in two strokes or less.

arla0509dt	Tierra or Agua	Panama	Tierra [Land]: Ride quadbikes along a course with several covers along the way, lifting one at a time to reveal either a clue or an hourglass. It is not required to lift every cover; find an hourglass and wait for the sand to run out before continuing. Hourglasses are different sizes. Agua [Water]: One at a time, travel across a lagoon and back on a wakeboard while being towed by a mechanical rig. (This Detour has a Double U-Turn attached.)
arla0510ri	Ship Shape	Panama	Walk to the beach and attach two sails to a dugout canoe.
arla0510dt	Visual or Manual	Panama	Visual: Search a series of hanging decorative blankets for one with the design shown on a provided black-and-white image. arla0510rb	See Shells By The Sea Shore	Panama	Who would make the best pirate?: Swim to a shipwreck and dive down to search dozens of conch shells on the sea floor for one of several with clues inside. arla0512dt	Ascenso de Rana or Escalera Loca	Mexico	Ascenso de Rana [Ascend]: Use ascenders to reach a platform above the ground within a ten-minute time limit, then abseil back to the ground. Escalera Loca [Climb]: Climb a cable ladder to reach a platform above the ground within a ten-minute time limit, then abseil back down. It looks like both tasks use the same site, so... why on earth would you even consider the ascender? Even ignoring that it's much more difficult, it also presumably requires a significantly longer safety briefing than "climb a ladder". There is no rest period at this Pit Stop; all teams arrive within the first episode.
arla0513ri1	Snap Shots	Mexico	Use a product-placed tablet to take photos of every destination visited until further notice. The clue at the end of the Road Block, which leads to the end of this ongoing task, misspells the name of the sponsor.

arla0513ri	A Numbers Game	Mexico	Season memory. One player at a time, answer two trivia questions with numeric answers; then combine the four answers to form the four-digit combination for a safe with the final clue inside. The questions: Legs with more than one greeter at the Pit Stop, the official team number for the team who finished third in Leg 2, the number of countries visited minus the number of legs in capital cities, and the number of forms of aquatic transportation used during the race. The last answer is very wrong – five is 'correct', but even being kind I still get at least six – rafts in Leg 4, sculls boat in Leg 5, stand-up paddleboard in Leg 6, wakeboards in Leg 9, dugout canoe in Leg 10, and kayaks used to reach this task itself – to say nothing of a motorboat from the island start line to the mainland, the rockslide in Leg 8, swimming in Leg 10, or four separate ferry trips.
